I. Outline of Business Result

(1) Outline of Business Result for First Quarter of Fiscal 2021

During the first quarter of fiscal 2021, the Japanese economy continued to show signs of pick-up against the rising infection of the novel coronavirus. While consumer expenditures lacked momentum, there was seen some brightness in manufacturers' production activities boosted by recovery of equipment investments and gradual increases in exports. As vaccination rates against the novel coronavirus progressed in the U.S. and European countries, economic activities in those countries continued to normalize, sustaining a further recovery of the global economy.

In the meantime, the Nikkei Stock Average on the Tokyo Stock Exchange (the TSE) exceeded the 30,000yen level in early April, thereafter moving under downward pressure. While the U.S. infrastructure investment plan helped to boost stock prices in the U.S. the Nikkei Stock Average registered 28,419yen on April 21, the lowest in about one month, due to the 3rd declaration of the emergency status amid the rising spread of the novel coronavirus and the awareness of delay in coronavirus vaccination rate. After a long run of holidays in early May in Japan, the Nikkei Stock Average rose to 29,685yen on May 10 on the outlook of long-sustaining possibility of the U.S. easy monetary policy. Soon thereafter, however, the Nikkei Stock Average dropped to 27,385yen on May 13, on the rise of interest rates in the U.S. Towards the end of May, the rising trend of U.S. interest rates ceased, helping the Nikkei Stock Average to recover to the 29,000yen level. In mid-June, the Nikkei Stock Average temporarily went below the 28,000yen level in anticipation of near-term reduction of monetary easing in the U.S. Thereafter, as investors readjusted their overreaction to the near-term increase in the U.S. interest rates and bought economically-sensitive stocks in expectation of economic recovery at home and abroad, the Nikkei Stock Average ended the first quarter at 28,791yen.

On the foreign currency market, the yen continued its strength against the U.S. dollar, recording 107.47yen per 1 U.S. dollar on April 23. Thereafter, however, the U.S. dollar strengthened in anticipation of recovery of the U.S. economy, causing the yen to end the first quarter at the lower side of the 111yen per 1 U.S. dollar level.

In the Japanese emerging-stock markets, the Nikkei JASDAQ Stock Average continued its rising trend after hitting the bottom on May 18, and the TSE Mothers Index continued its rising trend after recording its low on May 17. The Nikkei JASDAQ Stock Average ended the first quarter at 3,997yen, the highest in about 3 years since May 2018, and the TSE Mothers Index closed the first quarter at 1,207.

The average daily turnover on the TSE for the first quarter of fiscal 2021 was 2,896.9 billion yen, up 6.2% from the comparable period of fiscal 2020, and that on the TSE Mothers market was 150.0 billion yen, down 20.8%, and that on the JASDAQ market was 67.6 billion yen, up 1.6%.

In the light of these circumstances, as regards activities on stocks in the quarter, the Company proposed to customers asset-backed stocks with stress on stability and dividends under low interest-rate environments and small- and medium-cap growth stocks selected based on the Company's strength in research. The Company thus continued to take various measures to meet with customers' needs.

With regard to "Dream Collection," a fund wrap account vehicle, it showed a favorable performance as a core asset in customers' medium- to long-term asset management. Its outstanding balance as of June 30, 2021 registered 166.3 billion yen, up 36.1% from June 30, 2020.

With respect to investment trust funds, the Company placed its priority on the promotion of "Ichiyoshi Small- and Medium-Cap Growth Stock Fund," which marked its 5th anniversary in June 2021, and also promoted investment trust funds investing in small- and medium-cap stocks with high medium- to long-term attractions, those investing in U.S. stocks with long-term high growth potential and those relating to high-visibility SDG stocks. Those funds are all created to match customer's needs, contributing to an increase in customers' assets under custody.

With respect to Ichiyoshi Asset Management Co., Ltd. the amount of assets under its management recorded 403.8 billion yen as of June 30, 2021, up 34.6%, as net asset values of funds under management got on a recovery trend.

As a result of these activities, net operating revenue for the first quarter of fiscal 2021 amounted to 5,151 million, up 35.8% from the first quarter of fiscal 2020. Operating cost and expenses amounted to 4,268 million yen, up 2.3%. Hence, operating income registered 882 million yen, an increase of 1,264 million over the year-earlier quarter.

Customers' assets in custody as of June 30, 2021 amounted to 2,010.1 billion yen, up 1.0% from March 31, 2021.

Set forth below are revenue sources, cost and expenses and financial condition.

(Application of Accounting Standards Concerning Revenue Recognition)

“Accounting Standards Concerning Revenue Recognition” (Corporate Accounting Standards No. 29, dated March 31, 2020) have been applied effective from the beginning of the first quarter of fiscal 2021. Accordingly, at the time when the control of promised goods or services has been transferred to a customer, an amount receivable as compensation for such transfer of goods or services is recognized as revenue.

Thus, with respect to transactions on goods or services which the company carries out as agent, a net amount of compensation, after deduction of a payment to a third party, is recognized as revenue while previously a whole amount of compensation was recognized as revenue.

Figures relating to the first quarter of fiscal 2020 are also retroactively adjusted in principle in accordance with the new accounting standards.

As a result, other operating revenue and other operating expenses in the first quarter of fiscal 2020 decreased by the same amount of 371 million yen as compared with when the new accounting standards were not applied.
