3. The circumstances that led to possible of uncollectible or late collection of receivables

FPG has the equity interest of the silent partnership in the operating lease business (the lease business) in which

AML is the lessee. And FPG's consolidated subsidiaries (FLIP NO. 243 Co., Ltd., FLIP NO. 244 Co., Ltd. and FLIP NO. 245 Co., Ltd.) are the contracting party of the leasing business as the operator.

AML had applied for voluntary administration under the Mauritius Insolvency Act in April 2020. Since until now, the negotiation has been ongoing with the trustees of AML and the parties involved in the leasing business regarding the lease contract, and the lease contract still valid at present. As a result, while the lease receivables from AML will continue to accrue, the unreceived balance, which are due and have not been received, amounted to 1,490 million yen as of July 30, 2021, and the ratio to consolidated net assets at the end of the previous fiscal year exceeded 3%. With regard to this matter, FPG announced on May 6, 2021, that the unreceived balance as of April 30, 2021, was 1,203 million yen. However, we have decided to disclose updated information because the unreceived balance has increased due to the fact that, while the lease contract continues as described above, no payment was received on the due date.

4. Type and amount of receivables in respect of AML

The lease receivables (include the equivalent to delayed interest):

JPY 1,490 million (5.4% of consolidated net assets)

5. Outlook

For accounting purposes, FPG has not recorded any receivables in respect of AML, except for the amount of collateral protection. And as with the May 6, 2021, disclosure, there is no additional losses to be recorded as a result of this matter. FPG recorded the losses related to the equity interest in the silent partnership of the lease business and reduced the value of the equity interest to zero in the first quarter of the fiscal year ending September 30, 2021. Therefore, we do not expect to incur any further losses in respect of AML, and do not change the forecast for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2021, as the result of this matter.
