Notice of Settlement of Lawsuit and Recording of Extraordinary Losses

COLOPL, Inc. (the "Company") hereby announced that today it has reached an agreement with Nintendo Co., Ltd. ("Nintendo") on the settlement of a lawsuit filed against the Company by Nintendo. The Company also announced that it has recorded extraordinary losses in the third quarter of the fiscal year ending September 30, 2021 as a result of this agreement.

1. Outline of the party to the settlement

| (3) | Name and title of representative | Shuntaro Furukawa, Representative Director and President |

2. Background to and Outline of the Settlement

As stated in the "Notice of Lawsuit Filed against the Company" dated January 10, 2018, the Company was sued by Nintendo on December 22, 2017 regarding patent infringement in "Shironeko Project" (the "Lawsuit"). Furthermore, as described in the "(Progress of Matters to be Disclosed) Notice of Change in Amount of Lawsuit Filed against the Company for Damages" dated February 12, 2021 and April 21, 2021, the "Petition for Amendment of Claim" were submitted to change the amount of damages claimed. Subsequently, the Company determined that it would be best to resolve the matter as soon as possible through a settlement, and has now reached an agreement on the settlement.

3. Main contents of the settlement

The terms of the agreement are that the Company will pay Nintendo a total of 3.3 billion yen as a settlement for the lawsuit, including future licensing, and that Nintendo will withdraw the lawsuit.

4. Future Outlook

In the third quarter of the fiscal year ending September 30, 2021, the Company recorded extraordinary losses of 3.3 billion yen in provision of allowance for related litigation.

The settlement of this lawsuit will have no impact on the Company's consolidated business results for the fourth quarter of the fiscal year ending September 30, 2021 and beyond.

End.
