Notice Regarding Application for Selection of “Standard Market” under New Market Segments

Universal Entertainment Corporation (hereinafter referred to as the “Company”) hereby announces that on July 9, 2021, it received the “Results of Initial Assessment of Status of Conformance with Continued Listing Criteria under New Market Segments” from the Tokyo Stock Exchange (“TSE” below), and has verified that the Company conforms with the continued listing criteria for a “Standard Market” under the TSE’s new market segments.

Based on these results, at the meeting of its Board of Directors that convened today, the Company passed a resolution to select “Standard Market” as the market segment that the Company will belong to following its scheduled transition to the new market segments on April 4, 2022 and submit an application to the TSE to that effect.

Going forward, the Company will carry out the designated procedures for applications to select a new market segment in accordance with the schedule set forth by the TSE.
