The corporate governance of NIHON KOHDEN CORPORATION is described below.

I. Basic Views on Corporate Governance, Capital Structure, Corporate Profile and Other Basic Information

1. Basic Views

Nihon Kohden's management philosophy is "we contribute to the world by fighting disease and improving health with advanced technology, and create a fulfilling life for our employees" as a medical electronics manufacturer.

To realize its management philosophy, the Company aims at achieving sustained growth and establishing reliance as a company that is highly evaluated by the customers, shareholders, clients and society in all aspects including products, service, technology, financial strength, quality of employees, and other points.

In order to realize this management basic policy and increase corporate value over the mid-to long-term, the Company recognizes that enhancing corporate governance, by establishing a management structure aiming at improving the soundness, transparency and efficiency of management, is an important management issue.

[Reasons for Non-compliance with the Principles of the Corporate Governance Code] Updated

[Subject Code]

The following description is based on Japan's Corporate Governance Code with effect from June 2021.

The Company will comply with all principles of the Corporate Governance Code and work on the following principle in the future.

[Principle 4.11 Prerequisites for Board Effectiveness] international diversity

The Company set the maximum number of directors at seventeen and appoints several independent outside directors. The Board consists of directors from diverse backgrounds in expertise and experience. Currently, one out of twelve directors is female, and the Company doesn't appoint for foreign directors but continue to work on achieving the international diversity in view of its appropriate size of the Board and the size of its overseas business.

[Disclosure Based on the Principles of the Corporate Governance Code] Updated

[Principle 1.4 Cross-Shareholdings]

Policy with respect to cross-shareholdings:

To realize its mid- to long-term sustainable growth, Nihon Kohden considers that the collaboration with various companies is necessary during the course of R&D, production, logistics, sales, services and financing. From this standpoint, Nihon Kohden Group holds shares of companies in the comprehensive view of the business relationship and business strategy. The Board examines the objective of cross-shareholdings of each share on an annual basis from the following perspectives: i) increasing asset efficiency, ii) avoiding the risk of share price fluctuations based on its capital cost, and iii) the necessity of the collaboration with the Company. The Company will reduce shareholdings when the Board determines the objective of cross-shareholdings is inadequate. In FY2020, the Company sold a part of shares of one company as a result of a review at the Board. The Company holds shares of twelve companies at the end of March 2021.

Standards with respect to voting rights:

The Company exercises voting rights based on the judgment criteria of whether investee's sustainable growth and improvement of mid- to long-term corporate value as well as the Company's and the Company shareholders' economic return in the mid- to long-term can be expected. The Company will vote against a relevant resolution when an adverse effect on investee's financial strength can be expected or an illegal activity is discovered. The Company also exercises voting rights appropriately through the dialogue with investee if needed.

[Principle 1.7 Related Party Transactions]

The Company establishes the following procedures with respect to related party transactions, in order to ensure that such transactions do not harm the interests of the Company or the common interests of its shareholders.

- When the Company engages in transactions with its directors or corporations whose representatives are its directors (excluding its wholly owned subsidiaries), the Company shall obtain approval of the Board in accordance with the Board of Directors Rules as well as complying with laws.
- The Company monitors related party transactions regularly by requiring directors and operating officers to submit the written confirmation regarding related party transactions.

[Supplementary Principle 2.4.1 Ensuring diversity in the promotion of core human resources]

Policies for ensuring diversities:

By respecting diversity and creating a workplace environment in which each individual can demonstrate his/her full potential, Nihon Kohden seeks to improve job fulfillment, create new value, invigorate the organization, and enhance corporate value. The Company has traditionally hired and promoted employees based on their abilities and performance, regardless of gender, nationality, or work history.

As part of its efforts to promote diversity, the Company has formulated a Plan of Action under the Act on Promotion of Women's Participation and Career Advancement in the Workplace. By advancing the development of a workplace where women can play an active role and realizing comfortable and creating fulfilling workplaces for not just women but all employees of Nihon Kohden, the Company is implementing concrete measures to ensure that each employee can demonstrate their abilities to the fullest.

Voluntary and measurable goals for ensuring diversity:

The ratio of female managers*¹: 12% or more by April 2026 (current ratio: 7.8%)

Appointment of female directors and operating officers*²: 4 persons or more by April 2026 (currently 3 persons)

The ratio of foreign nationals in CXO or higher positions at overseas subsidiaries: 50% or more by April 2026 (current ratio: 46.4%)

The ratio of mid-career hires in management positions*¹: 40% or more (current ratio: 40.8%)

*1: The figure is the number of employees in Japan.

*2: The figure is the number of directors and operating officers at the parent company.

Policies for human resource development and internal environment development to ensure diversity, and the status of their implementation:

Policy

Nihon Kohden promotes the development of human resources that embody the core values that serve as the guidelines for the Group's actions. The Company also aims to create a globally consistent and coherent human resource management system, including human resource development and personnel systems. In its three-year business plan, Nihon Kohden identified 'Fostering a Corporate Culture of Pride in Contributing to Healthcare' as one of our material issues for sustainability, and set 'Developing Human Resources who can Succeed Globally' as a KPI. The Company also sets a target of more than 45 cumulative hours of education for each employee over three years.

In addition, considering the changing values of work and the penetration of new work styles, the Company promotes initiatives to ensure that employees are highly motivated and can realize various career paths and work styles.

Please check the Company website for more information about its core values:

<https://www.nihonkohden.com/company/beacon2030.html>

Status of implementation

i) Implementation of management philosophy training

To deepen employees' understanding of its management philosophy and core values as well as to enable employees to act in accordance with core values, Nihon Kohden conducts training for all managers. The Company also provides the opportunity for directors and managers in charge of human resources and education at its overseas subsidiaries to present and share the measures taken to promote its core values at each company. The Company will disseminate its management philosophy and core values through implementing management philosophy training.

ii) Promotion of diversity

Nihon Kohden dedicates a great deal of effort to promoting diversity. The Company is implementing initiatives not only to help female employees thrive in the workplace, but also to fully leverage the skills and talents of our diverse pool of human resources in all aspects of our business, regardless of gender, age, nationality, race or disability.

Please check the Company website for more information:

https://www.nihonkohden.com/sustainability/csr_employees.html#diversity

iii) Review of personnel system

Since April 2021, Nihon Kohden has shifted to a new role-based (job-based) personnel system for management positions in order to foster human resources who can personify its management philosophy, long-term vision, and core values. In addition to developing management level employees through management courses, the Company facilitates the promotion of highly specialized personnel through newly introduced expert courses. The Company will also create opportunities for ambitious and skilled employees to actively take on challenges and grow themselves.

Please check the Company website for more information:

https://www.nihonkohden.com/sustainability/csr_employees.html#human_resource_development

iv) Promotion of working style reforms

The Company has been implementing Working Style Reforms to enable greater flexibility in work styles, improve the work-life balance of employees, and maximize results without relying on long working hours.

Please check the Company website for more information:

https://www.nihonkohden.com/sustainability/csr_employees.html#reforming_working_styles

[Principle 2.6 Roles of Corporate Pension Funds as Asset Owners]

To make sure that the Company performs the role as the asset owners by increasing the investment management expertise, the Company sets the basic policy for pension asset management and establishes the Pension Asset Management Committee which includes qualified persons such as general managers of financial and human resource department.

[Principle 3.1 Full Disclosure]

i) Management Philosophy, business strategies and business plans

Under the management philosophy of “we contribute to the world by fighting disease and improving health with advanced technology, and create a fulfilling life for our employees”, Nihon Kohden announced a long-term vision, BEACON 2030, for the next ten years to 2030, in September 2020. The Company aims to create a better future for people and healthcare by solving global medical issues. The Company will steadily implement the three-year business plan, BEACON 2030 Phase I, covering from FY2021 to FY2023, in order to achieve its sustainable growth and enhance its corporate value.

Please check the Company website for more information: <https://www.nihonkohden.com/>

ii) Basic views and guidelines on corporate governance

Please check 1. Basic Views in this report.

iii) Board policies and procedures in determining the remuneration of directors

Please check [Director Remuneration] Disclosure of Policy on Determining Remuneration Amounts and Calculation Methods in this report.

iv) Board policies and procedures in the appointment/dismissal of directors

Policy

Director nomination is considered based on the following matters: the Board is well balanced in knowledge, experience, and abilities as a whole; the Board can make appropriate and quick decisions; and individual directors have excellent character, insight, and high ethical standards. The nomination policy of directors (excluding Audit & Supervisory Committee members) is stipulated in the Corporate Governance Guideline and of Audit & Supervisory Committee members is stipulated in Auditing Standards conducted by the Audit & Supervisory Committee. The dismissal policy of directors is stipulated in the Corporate Governance Guideline.

Procedure

In accordance with the policy above, nominations and dismissals of directors, which are submitted to a general shareholders meeting, are proposed by the Nomination & Remuneration Committee, which is a voluntary advisory committee under the Board, and are approved by the Board.

v) Explanations with respect to the individual appointments and dismissals

When the Company proposes the appointments or dismissals of the directors as an agenda at a general shareholders meeting, the Company discloses the reasons for the individual appointments and dismissals of directors in the Convocation Notice.

Please check the Company website for more information:

<https://www.nihonkohden.com/ir/stock/meeting.html>

[Supplementary Principles 3-1-3 Initiatives on sustainability]

Initiatives on sustainability:

Nihon Kohden defined 12 material issues to be addressed through business and corporate activities. The Company also incorporated these non-financial targets into its three-year business plan, BEACON 2030 Phase I, in order to contribute to solving global social issues and SDGs. The Company aims to realize a sustainable society and increase its corporate value by further strengthening the coordination between business strategy and sustainability strategy, and creating both economic and social value. The Company reviewed the sustainability promotion structure in April 2021 and established an Advisory Board, which consists of four outside experts, in July 2021.

Please check the Company website for more information on its sustainability promotion structure:

https://www.nihonkohden.com/sustainability/csr_management.html

To realize a carbon-free society and carbon neutrality by 2050, the Company is strengthening its efforts to set a Science Based Target for CO₂ emissions, and promotes the development of environment-friendly products.

Investments in human capital and intellectual properties:

Human capital

In its management philosophy, long-term vision, and three-year business plan, the Company has defined human resources as the source of value creation for Nihon Kohden. In its three-year business plan, Nihon Kohden has also identified 'Fostering a Corporate Culture of Pride in Contributing to Healthcare' as one of our material issues for sustainability, and set 'Employee Satisfaction' and 'Developing Human Resources who can Succeed Globally' as KPIs. In addition to implementing activities based on the KPIs, the Company will review the progress of these activities regularly and disclose the results annually in its Integrated Report and on its website.

https://www.nihonkohden.com/sustainability/csr_employees.html

Intellectual Property

The policy for Nihon Kohden's intellectual property is that we enhance our freedom to operate and potential to develop business by acquiring new intellectual properties according to our business strategy while respecting third party rights and striving to prevent infringement. In its three-year business plan, Nihon Kohden has identified the following items as material issues for sustainability: i) Developing and Providing Sensors which are Gentle on the Patient, and ii) Creating a Peaceful Patient Environment with Advanced Alarm Technology. The total amount of R&D costs is planned to be around ¥20.0 billion over three years. For further details on intellectual property, please refer to our website.

https://www.nihonkohden.com/sustainability/intellectual_property.html

[Supplementary Principles 4-1-1 Scope of the matters delegated to the management]

The Board resolves the matters pursuant to the Companies Act and makes a decision on the execution of important business for the Nihon Kohden Group as well as supervising directors' performance of their duties in accordance with Board of Directors Rules and Standards for Procedures for Requesting Deliberations and Making Decisions. Content of the matters delegated to the Management Council, president and operating officers are clearly specified in Standards for Procedures for Requesting Deliberations and Making Decisions.

[Principle 4-9 Independence Standards and Qualification for Independent Directors]

The Company appoints four independent outside directors in order to enhance transparency and soundness of the management. The Company appoints outside directors who meet the independence criteria set by the Tokyo Stock Exchange and have a wealth of knowledge and experience in their fields, and can provide advice and supervise the management from their objective and neutral position.

[Supplementary Principles 4-10-1 Mandates and role of Nomination Committee and Remuneration Committee]

The Company has voluntarily established a Nomination & Remuneration Committee which has equivalent functions to a separate Nomination Committee and Remuneration Committee, to ensure the transparency and objectivity of the management. All four committee members including the committee chair are appointed from outside directors.

Please check [Voluntary Establishment of Nomination/Remuneration Committee] in II-1. Organizational Composition and Operation in this report for more information.

[Supplementary Principles 4-11-1 Balance, diversity, and size of the Board as a whole]

Balance between knowledge, experience and skills of the Board as a whole, and diversity and board size:
The Board consists of directors from diverse backgrounds in expertise and experience. The Company keeps an appropriate number of directors, no more than seventeen in accordance with Articles of Incorporation, so that the Board can operate efficiently and effectively, taking into consideration company size and business characteristics.

The Company enhances transparency and soundness of the management by appointing several independent outside directors.

Combination of skills, etc. that each director possesses:

The Board consists of twelve members including four independent outside directors with expertise. The Company strives to ensure diversity by appointing one female independent outside director at the Annual Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held in 2020. Directors utilize their knowledge, experience, and abilities to make decisions and supervise the execution of business in order to realize the long-term vision and the three-year business plan.

Please check the Company website for the director skills matrix that lists the knowledge, experience, and abilities of the directors:

<https://www.nihonkohden.com/company/board.html#skillsmatrix>

[Supplementary Principles 4-11-2 Concurrent positions]

The Company discloses where candidates of directors hold concurrent positions each year in the Convocation Notice and the Annual Securities Report.

[Supplementary Principles 4-11-3 Board Evaluation]

The Company analyzed and evaluated the effectiveness of the Board for FY2020 to clarify issues and improvement of the Board and further improve the function of the Board. The Company concluded that overall effectiveness of the Board was ensured based on the results below.

The method of the Board evaluation:

The Company conducted self-evaluations of all directors including an Audit & Supervisory Committee members in an anonymous survey related to (1) the size and constitution of the Board, (2) the operation of the Board, (3) the supporting system for outside directors, (4) the decision-making process of the Board, and (5) the communication with shareholders and stakeholders. The Board discussed the results of evaluations and issues for further improvements.

The results of the Board evaluation:

In terms of size, composition, and operations of the Board, it was confirmed that the structures necessary to enable appropriate performance of the Board's supervisory functions have been established. It was also concluded that the Board operates effectively with an open atmosphere that enables inside and outside directors to engage in candid discussion. In FY2020, based on the FY2019 evaluation results, the Company improved operational methods to ensure adequate time for deliberation by the Board. In addition, the Board of Directors and the Nomination & Remuneration Committee, which is a voluntary advisory committee under the Board, have become more active in discussing the fostering of successors to the Chief Executive Officer and other executives. On the other hand, the Board members shared the following issues: the need for further discussion on compliance, internal controls, and risk management as well as reinforcing the support systems for outside directors.

Measures to improve the effectiveness of the Board:

In addition to continuing past improvement measures, the Company will strengthen organizational functions to facilitate deeper discussion by the Board on compliance, internal controls, and risk management based on FY2020 evaluation results. The Company will continue to improve overall effectiveness of the Board aiming at sustained growth of corporate value and for an enhancement of corporate governance.

[Supplementary Principles 4-14-2 Training policy for directors (including Audit & Supervisory Committee members)]

The Company provides directors with training opportunities for acquiring necessary knowledge and skills as well as understanding the roles and responsibilities. Training opportunities are provided when they are appointed and thereafter at the Company's expense. In-house training and facility tours for acquiring necessary knowledge on the Company's business are included.

[Principle 5-1 Policy for Constructive Dialogue with Shareholders]

Information Disclosure Policy:

The Company has established the Information Disclosure Policy in order to maintain appropriate, timely and fair information disclosure and has operated the information disclosure structure in accordance with the Information Disclosure Rules.

Please check V. Other in this report and the IR page of the Company website for more information:

<https://www.nihonkohden.com/ir/policy.html>

Organizational structures of IR:

The Company has appointed the president and general manager of the Corporate Strategy Division as persons in charge of information disclosure in accordance with the Information Disclosure Rules in order to ensure the consistency and transparency of the information disclosure. The Corporate Strategy Division, which bears responsibility for IR activities, endeavors to realize constructive dialogue with shareholders and enhance information disclosure by collecting necessary information in cooperation with relevant departments such as finance, sales operations, and R&D.

Measures to promote opportunities for dialogue:

Dialogue with individual investors

The Company holds meetings for individual investors, which speakers are general manager of the Corporate Strategy Division or a person in charge of IR in order to give investors a more in-depth understanding of our operations and strategies. The Company refrained from holding meetings to prevent the spread of COVID-19 in FY2020. The Company endeavors to enhance information disclosure by explaining company overview, financial results, and company history on its website for individual investors. In FY2020, the Company posted videos of factory tour and company profiles, as well as glossary on its website. In terms of dialogue with individual shareholders, the Company conducts a shareholder survey every year and uses feedback from shareholders as a reference for our future IR activities. The Company introduced its long-term vision in the 1st half for FY2020 shareholder newsletter, and its three-year business plan in the FY2020 shareholder newsletter.

Dialogue with institutional investors

The president, general manager of the Corporate Strategy Division, and persons in charge of IR have meetings with institutional investors in Japan and overseas by making periodic visits to investors, accepting visits as requested, and by phone. The Company holds briefings to explain financial results to institutional investors and analysts, which speaker is the president, in the 2nd quarter and 4th quarter as well as holding conference calls, which speaker is the general manager of the Corporate Strategy Division, in the 1st quarter and 3rd quarter. From May 2020, all financial results briefings were held by conference calls in order to prevent the spread of COVID-19.

Relay investor feedback to management:

The Corporate Strategy Division, which bears responsibility for IR activities, relays the views of shareholders and investors through dialogue to the management and relevant departments for sharing and using information.

Control insider information:

The Company has adopted a quiet period in which it will not respond to comments or questions in order to prevent information leaks of financial information and to ensure fairness in its information disclosure practices in accordance with the Information Disclosure Policy. Measures to control insider information when engaging in dialogue are provided in the Information Disclosure Rules and thoroughly notified to the management and employees.

The Company has established a Nomination & Remuneration Committee voluntarily which has equivalent function to a Nomination Committee and a Remuneration Committee. The purpose of the Committee is to ensure a higher level of fairness, objectivity, and transparency in the decision-making process for the nomination and remuneration of the management in order to contribute to the sustainable development, and the improvement of profitability and productivity of the Company in the mid- to long-term. Currently, committee members consist of four members: Mr. Minoru Obara, Ms. Kanako Muraoka, Mr. Shigeru Kawatsuhara and Mr. Kazuo Shimizu. Mr. Shigeru Kawatsuhara is the committee chair. The committee chair of the Nomination & Remuneration Committee is to be elected from among independent outside directors, and the majority of committee members are to be independent outside directors. The Committee Secretariat is the Human Resources Department.

The Nomination & Remuneration Committee deliberates the proposal of the candidates, the remuneration of directors and the succession plan in response to requests from the Board, and submits the proposals to the Board. The roles and responsibilities of the Committee are as follows:

Nomination of directors and operating officers:

In response to requests from the Board of Directors, the Nomination & Remuneration Committee deliberates on and submits to the Board of Directors proposals concerning the appointment and dismissal of directors, the appointment and dismissal of the Chief Executive Officer, and the selection and dismissal of the representative directors. It also deliberates on the policy for the appointment and dismissal of operating officers and confirms the procedures for the appointment and dismissal of each candidate for operating officer.

Remuneration of directors and operating officers:

In response to requests from the Board of Directors, the Nomination & Remuneration Committee deliberates on and proposes to the Board of Directors policies and detailed recommendations for determining the amounts and calculation methods of remuneration for directors. It also deliberates on the policies for determining the amount and calculation methods of remuneration for operating officers and confirms the procedures to be followed in determining remuneration for operating officers.

Succession plan:

The Nomination & Remuneration Committee deliberates on the policies and details of fostering successors to the Chief Executive Officer and other executives, and submits the proposals to the Board.

In FY2020, the Nomination & Remuneration Committee was held ten times and the attendance rate of all members was 100% (Mr. Shigeru Kawatsuhara attended all ten meetings. Mr. Minoru Obara, Ms. Kanako Muraoka, and Mr. Kazuo Shimizu attended all seven meetings held after June 25, 2020).

[Incentives]

Incentive Policies for Directors	Introduction of a performance-based compensation system, Other
----------------------------------	--

Remuneration of directors (excluding directors serving as Audit & Supervisory Committee members and outside directors) shall consist of bonuses as performance-based compensation reflecting short-term business performance and restricted stock remuneration as an incentive to continuously improve the Company's corporate value over the mid- to long-term.

Performance-based bonuses shall reflect key performance indicators (KPI) to raise awareness of the need to improve the Company's business performance in each fiscal year. The target performance indicators and their values shall be in line with the medium-term business plan and set at the time of the formulation of the plan. The FY2020 performance indicator selected as the basis for calculating the amount of performance-based compensation is operating income. Amounts of performance-based compensation are calculated based on the degree of achievement of the operating income target as well as individual evaluation according to each director's area of responsibility, and the variable payment rate is 0% to 200%.

Policy on Determining Remuneration Amounts and Calculation Methods	Established

Disclosure of Policy on Determining Remuneration Amounts and Calculation Methods

The Company has established the policy on determining the amounts and methods of calculation of directors' remuneration which would further link with performance and shareholder value as well as aiming at the transparency of management and ensuring growth and profitability in mid- to long-term.

Remuneration of directors shall be linked to shareholder value so as to function effectively as an incentive for continuously improving the Company's corporate value. Remuneration of each director shall be determined at an appropriate level based on their respective responsibilities.

Remuneration of directors (excluding Audit & Supervisory Committee members and outside directors) shall consist of a base salary as fixed monthly compensation, bonuses as performance-based compensation reflecting short-term business performance, and restricted stock remuneration as an incentive to continuously improve the Company's corporate value over the mid- to long-term. Remuneration of Audit & Supervisory Committee members and outside directors, who are responsible for supervisory functions, shall consist of the fixed monthly compensation only.

The fixed monthly compensation shall be determined based on the director's position, responsibilities, and years served as director, comprehensively taking into consideration the level of other companies, the Company's business performance, and the level of employee salaries.

Performance-based bonuses shall reflect key performance indicators (KPI) to raise awareness of the need to improve the Company's business performance in each fiscal year. The target performance indicators and their values shall be in line with the medium-term business plan and set at the time of the formulation of the plan.

The target values shall be reviewed as appropriate in accordance with the report of the Nomination & Remuneration Committee in response to environmental changes. The degree of achievement of the target values shall be used as a common evaluation index for all directors. Individual evaluations shall be conducted according to each director's area of responsibility. The amount of bonuses shall be calculated based on a variable payment rate of 0% to 200% and the bonuses shall be paid at a fixed time each year.

As regards restricted stock remuneration, the Company shall, in principle, allot shares of the Company's common stock every year, after concluding an agreement on allotting restricted stock between the Company and each director (excluding Audit & Supervisory members and outside directors). The number of shares of restricted stock to be allotted shall be determined based on the position of the allottee. To encourage the sharing of value with shareholders over the mid- to long-term, the transfer restriction period shall be from the grant date of the restricted stock to the date when each director retires from the position of director or operating officer.

The ratio by types of compensation for directors (excluding Audit & Supervisory Committee members and outside directors) shall be reviewed by the Nomination & Remuneration Committee, based on the remuneration levels of benchmark companies whose business scale is similar to the Company. The weighting of performance-based compensation shall be higher for the higher positions. While respecting the report by the Nomination & Remuneration Committee, the Board of Directors shall determine the details of remuneration for each director within the range of the ratio by types of compensation indicated in the report. The amount of remuneration shall be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors, which shall have the authority to determine the amount of basic salaries for each director as well as the evaluation and allocation of performance-based compensation based on the performance of the business for which each director is responsible. The Board of Directors shall consult the Nomination & Remuneration Committee on the draft remuneration plan and obtain a report from the Committee to ensure that the Board exercises its authority appropriately. The Board of Directors shall also resolve the number of shares to be allocated to each director as restricted stock remuneration based on the report of the Nomination & Remuneration Committee.

In determining the content of remuneration for each director (excluding Audit & Supervisory Committee members), the Nomination & Remuneration Committee shall conduct a multifaceted review of the draft remuneration plan, including consistency with the Decision Policy. As a general rule, the Board of Directors shall defer to the report of the Nomination & Remuneration Committee and determine that the proposed remuneration complies with the Decision Policy.

The remuneration of Audit & Supervisory Committee members shall consist of fixed monthly compensation only from the perspective of placing importance on the independence and objectivity of management. The amount of remuneration for each director is determined by consultation among the Audit & Supervisory Committee members.

[Supporting System for Outside Directors]

The Corporate Strategy Division and Audit & Supervisory Committee Secretariat are in charge of supporting outside directors by assisting in their duties and communications. The Company provides periodic information such as monthly business reports of departments and Group companies to outside directors. When the Company holds the meeting of the Board or the Management Council, the Corporate Strategy Division delivers related materials to them and explains agenda items of the meetings to them in advance.

Appointed as Outside Director of the Company in June 2020

* Shigeru Hirata (appointed on June 25, 2021) Born in May 1961/Joined the Company in April 1985

Audit & Supervisory Committee :

The Audit & Supervisory Committee consists of three directors, including two outside directors and one full-time member. Each Audit & Supervisory Committee member attends the important meetings such as the Management Council. Each Audit & Supervisory Committee member audits the performance of the directors' duties through the investigation of business execution and assets of the Company and its subsidiaries. Those activities shall be in accordance with the audit policy and the audit plan for the term which is decided at the Audit & Supervisory Committee. The Audit & Supervisory Committee cooperates with the Accounting Auditor and the Internal Auditing Department as described in the [Supervisory Committee] section in this report. The full-time member of the Audit & Supervisory Committee has many years of experience in finance and accounting departments and possesses a considerable degree of knowledge about finance and accounting.

Management Council:

Meetings of the Management Council, at which directors and operating officers attend, are held three times a month in order to undertake the management activities based on the policy approved by the Board as well as aiming at prompt decision making and flexible business operation. The Company has introduced an operating officer system that provides a clear segregation between managerial decision making and supervisory functions on the one hand and the execution of operations on the other.

Nomination & Remuneration Committee:

The Company has established a Nomination & Remuneration Committee, which is a voluntary advisory committee under the Board, to ensure transparency and objectivity of the management. The Committee consists of four outside directors and the committee chair is also appointed from outside directors. The Company registered four outside directors as independent directors, who have no conflict of interest between general shareholders and them, to the Tokyo Stock Exchange. Outside directors attend the important meetings such as the Management Council. They provide opinions from an objective and neutral standpoint if necessary and supervise the Company's management.

ii) Measures to strengthen the function of Audit & Supervisory Committee

Please check [Supervisory Committee] above in this report

iii) Accounting auditor

The Company has appointed Crowe Toyo & Co. as an Accounting Auditor. The continuous audit period is forty five years. Engagement partners of the firm are Ms. Yuko Suzuki and Mr. Takashi Miura. Ten certified public accountants and four other persons in the firm assist the auditing of the Company.

3. Reasons for Adoption of Current Corporate Governance System

The Company has adopted a Company with Audit & Supervisory Committee structure to achieve the following: enhancement of supervisory function through possession of voting rights at the meeting of the Board by Audit & Supervisory Committee members, improvement of soundness and transparency of management by increasing ratio of outside directors, and acceleration of management decision making by having options to delegate the authorities for the business execution. The Company takes measures such as appointment of independent outside directors and introduction of an operating officer system as well as cooperation among the Audit & Supervisory Committee, Internal Auditing Department and Accounting Auditor. The Company believes the management monitoring functions work sufficiently.

3. Measures to Ensure Due Respect for Stakeholders

Updated

	Supplementary Explanations
Stipulation of Internal Rules for Respecting the Position of Stakeholders	It is stated in Nihon Kohden Charter of Conduct, which codifies the basic criteria for business conduct, and Nihon Kohden Code of Ethics and Conduct, which stipulates the way of conduct to be observed from the point of view of compliance with laws.
Implementation of Environmental Activities, CSR Activities etc.	Nihon Kohden's management philosophy is "we contribute to the world by fighting disease and improving health with advanced technology, and create a fulfilling life for our employees" as a medical electronics manufacturer. Nihon Kohden's sustainability activities are based on realizing its philosophy and the implementation of Nihon Kohden Charter of Conduct. The Company's sustainability activities have been posted on its website and described in Integrated Report.
Development of Policies on Information Provision to Stakeholders	It is stated in Nihon Kohden Charter of Conduct, which codifies the basic criteria for business conduct, and Nihon Kohden Code of Ethics and Conduct, which stipulates the way of conduct to be observed from the point of view of compliance with laws.
Other	Nihon Kohden dedicates a great deal of effort to promoting diversity. We are implementing initiatives not only to help female employees thrive in the workplace, but also to fully leverage the skills and talents of our diverse pool of human resources in all aspects of our business, regardless of gender, age, nationality, race or disability. In order to encourage women's career development, we are providing a mentor program, trainee program which provides short-term experience of work in other departments, exchange meetings for female employees, and a seminar for managers. These initiatives will provide opportunities to support female managers, build female employee networks, and raise awareness of female participation for the next generation. As a result of encouraging women's career development through relevant seminars and training courses, as of April 2021, the ratio of female managers was 7.8% in the parent company, which was an increase of 30 basis points from the previous year. In addition, one female outside director was appointed in June 2020, and two female operating officers were appointed in April 2021. Furthermore, as a result of promoting the recruitment of women, the Company achieved the target ratio of 25% new female recruits in April 2021, which was in accordance with the Plan of Action for General Employers under the Act on Promotion of Women's Participation and Career Advancement in the Workplace. In the new Plan of Action, the Company set a target of increasing the ratio of female managers to at least 12% and the ratio of male employees taking childcare leave to at least 30% by the end of March 2026. As a result of the establishment of various systems to support childcare regardless of gender, the number of male employees who took childcare leave in FY2020 was three times that of FY2019.

	The Company has developed an environment where employees can balance work with childcare and it has obtained the right to use the next-generation certification mark called Kurumin and the Women's Participation Promotion Act certification mark called Eruboshi from the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, in recognition of the Company's efforts to support employees' childcare needs. In FY2020, the Company greatly expanded the scope of the work at home system and flextime system to promote flexible work styles. The Company also increased the maximum amount by which employees with childcare and nursing care responsibilities can reduce their daily working hours from the current limit of one hour to a maximum of two hours in FY2021. The Company will continue to actively promote women's participation and career advancement in the workplace and provide support for balancing work with family and childcare.
