The following is an overview of the Corporate Governance for BEENOS Inc.

I . Basic Policy, Capital Structure, Corporate Attributes and Other Basic Information of the Corporate Governance

1 . Basic Policy

The BEENOS Group (the Group) is dedicated to continually grow and improve its corporate value. The Group recognizes that the fulfillment of its corporate governance is of great importance and fortifies its measures by improving the speed of managerial decisions, securing a transparent management system through its disclosure policies and strengthen the auditing functions of management.

Furthermore, the Group has established its Risk Management department and compliance committee to maintain its high ethics and to lawfully and responsibly perform business activities.

【Disclosure Based on the Principles of the Corporate Governance Code】

【Principle 1-4】

BEENOS Inc. (the Company) does not hold any shares of companies as cross-shareholdings and does not intend to hold any for the foreseeable future.

【Principle 1-7】

If the Company is in a position where it could legally engage in transactions with competitors or have a conflict of interest with its director(s), it will always receive approval in a board meeting consisting multiple external directors. Furthermore, if a director(s) has a conflict of interest, he/she will immediately report it to the board of directors and must be approved in a board meeting. If such instances occur, the Company will accurately disclose all necessary facts as constituted by law.

Important transactions with major shareholders will be evaluated in a board meeting as to whether it is valid and appropriate. The Company will create compliance measures for the management of important information and the transaction of the Company's stocks by Board Members, etc. and strictly operate said measures to prevent internal trading of the Company's stocks etc.

【Principle 2-4-1】

The corporate website's recruiting page discloses the diversity of the Company, its business culture and its recruiting policy along with a message from the CEO.

【Principle 2-6】

The Company's Defined Benefit Corporate Pension Fund is a comprehensive establishment type (a corporate pension fund that has been created by a conglomerate of businesses with no personnel, capital or contractual partnerships with each other) which does not make it an asset owner. Furthermore, the Corporate Pension Fund follows Corporate Accounting Standards No. 26 Item 33 (2) by processing it according to the defined benefit system which does not have a direct impact on the Company's financial status. The Company receives financial information of the Fund as needed and lists it within the notes of its asset securities report.

【Principle 3-1】

(1) BEENOS is on the "Global Platform Frontier" to use IT and the internet to create new platforms in new markets on the global market. BEENOS aims to increase corporate value through the construction of a multi-lateral global platform where Japanese products and contents can be distributed on marketplaces throughout the world and products and contents around the world can be distributed throughout Japan and Asia. BEENOS will create a bilateral platform in new business regions where people and experiences from Japan and the globe can be shared with each other to create new international business opportunities. Our vision is also described on our website at <https://beenos.com/>

(2) Our basic views on Corporate Governance is listed in "1. 1. Basic Policy"

(3) Our policy in determining the remuneration of directors are determined at our General Shareholders Meetings under the following guidelines:

Remuneration for directors (excluding external directors and Audit and Supervisory Committee members) will be distributed through a mixture of cash and Company stock to incentivize long-term growth of the Company.

Annual cash remuneration is based on the rank, responsibilities and contribution of each director on a consolidated basis and bonuses are results based. Restricted stocks are issued in accordance with the rise of share prices as stock-based compensation.

Type of remuneration		Objective and Overview
Fixed	Fixed remuneration	Fixed remuneration to promote sound execution of duties <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The remuneration level shall be determined based on the amount of ordinary income in the previous year and in accordance with the position, role, responsibility, etc. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Remuneration is distributed monthly.

Variable		Incentivized remuneration (Short-term incentive remuneration)	Performance-linked remuneration to steadily accumulate results for each fiscal year <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The specific amount to be paid shall be determined based on the amount of consolidated ordinary income for each fiscal year and in accordance with position, role, responsibility, etc. • Payment shall be made in a sum after the end of each fiscal year.
		Restricted stock remuneration (Medium-to long-term incentive remuneration)	Performance-linked remuneration to promote management with an emphasis on medium to long-term enhancement of corporate and shareholder value <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The "Base Value" shall be set according to responsibilities, etc. • Grant the "Base Value" by the number of Shares divided by the closing price of our Shares on the Tokyo Stock Exchange on the day before the issue resolution date. • The shares to be granted shall be specified restricted shares that cannot be disposed of, such as via transfers, for the period until retirement. • The number of shares to be granted shall not exceed 100,000 shares per year. • Remuneration to be issued within 1 month of the Board Meeting held after the AGM. • The Company will obtain any restricted shares that have not been released at the end of the restricted period for reasons, such as the director not fulfilling their full term, free of charge.

Remuneration for external directors and directors who are audit and supervisory committee members will only be a fixed monthly compensation since it is necessary to ensure independence in order to appropriately assume that role and there is no remuneration that will fluctuate depending on performance.

- (4) The election/dismissal of a managing official and a designation of a board member candidate by the Board of Directors is decided upon by the director election/dismissal standards.
- (5) The explanations with respect to the individual appointments of directors and members of the Audit and Supervisory Committee are disclosed in Notice of the Annual Meeting of Shareholders and the asset securities report.

【Principle 3-1-3】

BEENOS has created a specified page for it on its website. This page will be further enhanced with information regarding sustainability efforts by BEENOS.

【Supplementary Principle 4-1-1】

The board of directors take their responsibility to shareholders very seriously and aim to continually grow and raise corporate value. As the board makes important business decisions and watches over work performance. Board meetings are held in principle on a monthly basis and extraordinary board meetings are held whenever necessary. The minutes of the board meetings are established in the “Board Meeting Rules.”

We have established in our Articles of Incorporation that important business decisions can be delegated to directors, but our basic policy is to make such decisions after counseling among all directors, including external directors, during board meetings.

【Principle 4-9】

Our independence standards and qualification for independent directors is listed in “2. 1. Directors”.

【Supplementary Principle 4-11-1】

The Group has defined the following standards to elect a suitable director:

- (1) The candidate must have the qualities to perform duties loyally and duty of care of a good manager. The candidate must also act to improve the Company’s corporate value with a mid-long-term perspective and manage as a trustee of the shareholders.
- (2) Internal directors that make business decisions must have a deep knowledge of the Group and the ability to make sound and accurate corporate management decisions for the Group.
- (3) External directors must have ample experience in fields such as corporate management, finances, accounting, law, etc. as well as fundamental knowledge of the responsibilities of a director and board meetings. The candidate must also be able to monitor the overall management of the Company and give any necessary advice.
- (4) External directors must meet the standards of the Company’s independence assessment in addition to the aforementioned requirements.
- (5) The candidate must meet all legal requirements to be a director.

The skill matrix listed on its AGM notice is also disclosed.

【Supplementary Principle 4-11-2】

Full-time directors at the Company hold no other responsibility at any other publicly listed company except within subsidiaries in the Group. External directors concurrently serve in a limited and reasonable number (1 person at 1 other publicly listed companies) of other positions. Furthermore, directors’ profiles and concurrent statuses are disclosed in the asset securities report.

【Supplementary Principle 4-11-3】

A survey was conducted for all directors, including external directors, to improve the effectiveness of Board Meetings. Topics included the structure of the board of directors, its operations, issues and the corporate structure supporting the board of directors. The results were compiled by external directors and submitted to the board of directors. The Board analyzed the results, graded themselves based on the results and discussed efforts for further improvement.

The results of the survey showed higher marks than the survey conducted in 2017. The improvements have come from the directors' concerted effort to make improvements in board meetings and, above all, the composition of skill sets and diversity of the external directors has helped improve the discussions revolving the strategies and policies of the Company.

The directors have confirmed that they will further work on diversifying the members in the board meetings and implementing efforts on sustainability.

BEENOS will continue to use these measures to improve the effectiveness of its Board Meetings, improve its managing functions and fortify its corporate governance.

【Supplementary Principle 4-14-2】

The Company has selected directors that have the necessary skills to do so and take the necessary measures/training to improve themselves. If necessary, they will invite outside professionals to give them the necessary guidance/education on how to improve their skills.

【Principle 5-1】

The Company has established the following policies for constructive dialogue with shareholders:

(1) Appointing a member of the management who is responsible for overseeing and ensuring that constructive dialogue takes place.

The Company actively engages in constructive dialogue with shareholders and other investors through IR activities for the mid-to-long-range growth of corporate value.

(2) Measures to ensure positive cooperation between internal departments such as investor relations, corporate planning, general affairs, corporate finance, accounting and legal affairs with the aim of supporting dialogue.

IR activities are managed by the corporate management/IR department, but the activities are done in close collaboration with the accounting/finance, legal and internal control departments.

(3) Measures to promote opportunities for dialogue aside from individual meetings (e.g., general investor meetings and other IR activities).

Financial results briefings, reported by the Group CEO and Group CFO, are held 4 times a year for institutional investors. The briefing is recorded and uploaded onto the corporate website along with the materials. One on one meetings with institutional investors are generally conducted with the director in charge of information disclosure. The Group CEO and/or the Group CFO also engages in International IR activities and talks with foreign investors. By meeting with foreign and domestic institutional investors periodically, we can understand how they would exercise their shareholder rights while they can understand the management policies and strategies the Company has. The Company will continue to enhance the disclosure of its information on its corporate website for IR materials, corporate policies, investment activities and financial statuses, etc. Furthermore, we will share pertinent and accurate information on its notice of annual meeting of shareholders. All important information will, to its best capability, be translated into English.

(4) Measures to appropriately and effectively relay shareholder views and concerns learned through dialogue to the senior management and the board

Dialogue and feedback received from investors will be reported at management meetings and, if necessary, will also be reported at board meetings for consideration.

(5) Measures to control insider information when engaging in dialogue

The Company has established the time period from the end of a quarter to the announcement of its financial results as its silence period to prevent the leakage of financial information and to ensure fairness among investors. We refrain from commenting or responding to financial information during this time. Meetings with investors are generally done with two people including the director in charge of information disclosure to prevent the leaking of insider information during the meeting.

【Reasons for not complying with principles within the Corporate Governance Code】

Disclosure of Policy on Determining Compensation Amounts and Calculation Methods

Directors (not including directors of the Audit and Supervisory Committee) The remuneration total for the Board will be approved in the shareholders meeting and the amount for each individual director will be decided by their position, responsibilities, performance and in accordance to the consolidated financial results. The amount will be approved in a board meeting and bonuses will be in accordance to each business's financial results and will also be approved in a board meeting. Directors of the Audit and Supervisory Committee

The remuneration total for the Committee will be approved in the shareholders meeting and the Audit and Supervisory Committee will decide each individual's remuneration amount.

【Support System for External Directors】

The Audit and Supervisory Committee can arrange for supporting persons to aid them in carrying out their duties as a Committee and will council with the Company, if needed.

2. Matters regarding Decision-making Functions related to the Execution of Duties, Audit and Supervision, Appointments, Compensation etc. (Outline of the Current Corporate Governance System)

The Company has installed an Audit and Supervisory Committee and has 4 directors (not including directors of the Audit and Supervisory Committee) and 3 directors of the Audit and Supervisory Committee. According to the Governance framework, the Company has a board of directors, an Audit and Supervisory Committee, a Compliance Committee, a Risk Management Department and an Accounting Auditor.

· Board of Directors

The Board of Directors is composed of 5 directors (excluding directors who are members of the Audit and Supervisory Committee) and 3 directors (including 3 external directors) who are members of the Audit and Supervisory Committee. In addition to the regular monthly Board of Directors meeting, the Board of Directors holds extraordinary meetings as needed. The Audit and Supervisory Committee Members (External Directors) attend meetings to oversee the execution of duties by Directors. At the same time, the Audit and Supervisory Committee examines the appropriateness, efficiency, fairness, and other aspects of management from time to time, decides on matters stipulated by laws and regulations and in the Articles of Incorporation, as well as important business matters, and makes decisions on the execution of business.

The President chairs the Board of Directors, oversees the Board of Directors, executes resolutions of the Board of Directors, and oversees the overall operations of the Company.

The Board of Directors annually analyzes and evaluates the effectiveness of the Board of Directors using a self-evaluation method and discloses an outline of the results.

· Audit and Supervisory Committee

The Audit and Supervisory Committee is composed of 3 Audit and Supervisory Committee members (of whom 1 is a full-time Audit and Supervisory Committee member), all of whom are external directors. The Audit and Supervisory Committee meets once a month to monitor the status of the business environment and the decision-making process. The Audit and Supervisory Committee strives to enhance the effectiveness of corporate governance.

· Board Member Meetings (Management Meetings)

Board member meetings (management meetings) are held weekly which includes full-time directors (excluding the board of directors who are on the Audit and Supervisory Committee). Through this system, we aim to verify day-to-day business execution, accelerate decision-making and increase corporate value.

・ Risk Management Department

The Risk Management Department (4 people) construct and maintain the compliance framework under the direction of the President. They also foresee the internal auditing of the Group and audit the business activities of the companies and departments within the Group according to the “Internal Auditing Rules” and report results to the President. They also regularly report their activities to the Board of Directors and the Audit and Supervisory Committee and exchange information with them.

・ Accounting Auditor

The Company has selected Grant Thornton Taiyo LLC as accounting auditor. Furthermore, the Audit and Supervisory Committee and Process Re-engineering Department cooperate and exchange information with the accounting auditor.

< Status of the Limited Liability Agreement >

The Company has signed contracts with the 4 external directors, Naofumi Nishi, Yasukazu Joho, Kibo Kondo and Yoshindo Takahashi, according to the regulations specified in Article 427 Section 1 of Japan’s Companies Act and holds liability for damages as listed in Article 423 Section 1 of the same Act. The limit amount set for the liability for damages is the minimum amount.

3. Reasons for Adopting the Current Corporate Governance System

The Company has installed an Audit and Supervisory Committee comprised of external directors who are auditors that have a seat in board meetings to fortify the auditing functions towards management.

Furthermore, external directors who are a part of the Audit and Supervisory Committee are designated as independent directors so to be in a position to make fair and accurate decisions without conflict of interest.

We have decided that this provides the necessary functions to audit management and exercise proper Corporate Governance.

III. Status of Implementation of Measures Related to Shareholders and Other Stakeholders

IV. Items Related to the Internal Control System

1. Basic Policy and Development and Operation Status Related to the Internal Control System

The Board of Directors has resolved on the following systems to ensure that the framework for working operations coincide with the law and its articles of incorporation and that the framework and operations for the Company and its subsidiaries are appropriate.

- (1) The framework to secure appropriate working operations that coincide with the law and the articles of incorporation for the directors and employees of the Company and its subsidiaries

The directors and employees of the Company and its subsidiaries will work in accordance to the "Compliance Rules" with high moral ethics and a good conscience and will behave responsibly and comply with social norms as they strictly follow the law, articles of incorporation and corporate rules. Furthermore, it will form a Compliance Committee that will maintain an internal reporting system for any persons violating any laws, articles of incorporation or corporate rules.

- (2) The framework to eliminate any antisocial forces

The Company and its subsidiaries will sever all deals and support with antisocial forces, will not succumb to any undue claims by antisocial forces, maintain an infrastructure at an administrative level to collectively administer against any interference, damages, mental or physical abuse from antisocial forces and cooperate with the police and other relevant agencies to take a firm stance as an organization against such forces.

- (3) Items to store and administer the execution of duties of the Company's directors

In order to store and administer the execution of duties of the Company's directors, the administrative section shall take charge in recording, in writing or electronically, all applicable execution of duties and saving and administrating it for the applicable period of time in accordance with the “Document Handling Rules”.

The Company’s director will be able to see the recordings at any time and the officer in charge must quickly respond to the director’s request.

- (4) The regulations and framework to administer to any losses or danger to the Company or its subsidiaries

The risk management infrastructure for the Company and its subsidiaries will be done under the “Risk Management Rules” overseen by the Director in charge of the administrative section. The Risk Management Department will foresee and assess specific risks to create a speedy and appropriate reporting process and emergency plan, and report all matters regarding risk management regularly to the Board of Directors.

In the case an unexpected incident occurs, a task force will be created with the CEO at the helm and a resolution will be made immediately along with a plan to prevent repeated incidents.

Furthermore, subsidiaries will also comply with company rules and regulations to avert any losses or danger and adopt policies into their respective circumstances.

- (5) The framework for directors and employees to execute duties efficiently

The Board of Directors will create a corporate-wide plan and each appropriate director will create specific measurable goals and action plans for each segment to accomplish those goals. Progress on key indicators will be reported on a weekly basis while budgets will be updated monthly.

The Board of Directors will meet on a monthly basis to report on business progress and monthly closing, take care of any items regarding the execution of duties of the directors and decide on any important matters for the execution of operations.

The Company will create appropriate committees under the “Administrative Authority Rules” to facilitate the decisions of decisive matters.

The Company will place a director and auditor at each subsidiary to secure efficiency of work execution. They will also monitor the monthly progress of the Company and its subsidiaries of its annual budget and mid to long term plan. They will receive reports on other important information regarding each subsidiary.

- (6) The framework to secure appropriate work for the Corporate Group within the Company and its subsidiaries

The company will place a director and auditor at each subsidiary to monitor execution of duties.

The Related Company Administration Department will gather the administration of each subsidiary and will work under the “Related Company Administration Rules” to receive reports beforehand so to be able to bring any appropriate agenda items to the Board Meeting. The Risk Management Department will internally checkup on the subsidiaries for risk management and legal compliance under the “Internal Auditing Rules”.

(7) Framework to secure the reliability of financial reports

The Company will create an internal control system to secure the reliability of financial reports and create an internal control report as determined by the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act. The Risk Management Department will periodically evaluate the system so to secure its validity with the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act and other related laws.

(8) Items regarding employees to aid the work of the Audit & Supervisory Committee (hereby known as “Aid Employees”) as well as items to keep Aid Employees independent from the Company’s directors (excluding the Audit & Supervisory Committee) and items to secure a workable system to designate Aid Employees

The Audit & Supervisory Committee can arrange for a specific Aid Employee to assist in the work of the Committee and the Company will council with the Committee to select the Aid Employee.

The Aid Employee will not receive any direction from directors (excluding the Audit & Supervisory Committee) and employees. If the Aid Employee is transferred or evaluated, they will hear and respect the decision of the Audit & Supervisory Committee.

(9) The framework for the Company and its subsidiaries’ directors and employees to report to the Audit & Supervisory Committee

The Full-time Audit & Supervisory Committee Member will attend all Board of Director’s meetings and other important meetings and will see all final documents as well as related materials. If the Company or its subsidiaries’ director or employee commits a grave crime or greatly damages the Company or its subsidiary, the Audit & Supervisory Committee Member will immediately report it to the Audit & Supervisory Committee and can request a report from the director or employee if necessary. The Full-time Audit & Supervisory Committee Member will also serve as an auditor for a main subsidiary to further authenticate the reporting process of the director, other auditors and employees of said subsidiary. The Full-time Audit & Supervisory Committee Member will report on a monthly basis to the Audit & Supervisory Committee.

The Company and its subsidiaries will not improperly handle anybody who files such a report and will report it throughout to the directors and employees of the Company and its subsidiaries.

(10) The framework to secure an effective audit for the Audit & Supervisory Committee

The Board of Directors will not refuse the attendance of an Audit & Supervisory Committee member to an important company meeting to ensure that the Audit & Supervisory Committee member can be readily available to receive reports from a director or employee to effectively understand the decision-making process and working status of the Company. The Audit & Supervisory Committee member will cooperate closely with the financial auditor and the Risk Management Department and exchange information regularly and will exchange information with the legal advisor if necessary.

- (1 1) Items that will need to be paid in advance for Audit & Supervisory Committee members for the execution of duties or reimbursement procedures for expenditures for the execution of duties or the policy for the processing of liabilities

The Company will quickly process any expenses or liabilities that are necessary for the Audit & Supervisory Committee member to execute duties upon reviewing it with the proper department under the condition that the department does not deem the expense or liability unnecessary.

2. Basic Policy and Efforts to Eliminate Antisocial Forces

The Company has set basic principles regarding our internal integration system to adhere to compliance regulations as the following: “The Company is completely cut off from any business transactions and endorsements with antisocial forces and do not yield to any of their undue claims. If any antisocial forces interfere with, abuse or attack the Company or its management activities, the Corporate Headquarters will coordinate with the appropriate law enforcement agency to engage in necessary countermeasures.”

Furthermore, all subsidiaries of the Group will also adhere by the same policies regarding antisocial forces.

We regularly notify these policies throughout the Group via training seminars and posting them on groupware portals.

Specific measures include using Nikkei Telecom to search for articles involving business contacts and conducting background searches, if necessary. If a business contact turns out to be an antisocial force, we have included a clause in all our contracts that will nullify our dealings with antisocial forces.

We cannot directly control our shareholders since we are a publicly listed company, but we review our list of shareholders semi-annually (2Q and FYE) and perform a background check on all uncertain major shareholders through the administrator of our list of shareholders.

Directors and employees must confirm that they are not affiliated with antisocial forces and are contractually obligated to not be involved with them.

Furthermore, the corporate legal department actively attends seminars held by law enforcement and law firms on the handling of antisocial forces and in turn trains directors and employees on the information they received.
