Announcement of Launch of Singapore Subsidiary and Commencement of its Operations

Nihon M&A Center Holdings Inc. today announces a launch of a Singapore subsidiary, Nihon M&A Center Singapore Pte. Ltd., which began its operations on January 1, 2022.

Purpose

Nihon M&A Center group established an overseas support department in April 2013 with a view toward supporting cross-border M&A projects following a recent increase in Japanese businesses launching overseas operations and the sales of overseas subsidiaries. In April 2016, it opened its first overseas office in Singapore to consult Japanese firms as well as ASEAN firms regarding cross-border M&A projects. With an establishment of a subsidiary, it will further enhance its business activities and its provision of services, aiming to utilize the information and increase the number of cross-border M&A transactions closed between Japan and Singapore as well as the other ASEAN countries.

The group successively established the Indonesian Representative Office in October 2019, the Vietnamese subsidiary in February 2020, the Malaysian Representative Office in March 2020 (commenced its operations as a subsidiary in December 2021) and the Thai Representative Office in October 2021, strengthening its system for supporting cross-border M&A projects.
