Notice Regarding Selection Results for TSE New Market Segments

We hereby announce our decision that we will belong to the new “Prime Market” market segment as of April 4, 2022, which is the simultaneous transition date, based on the new market segment selection results announced by the Tokyo Stock Exchange, Inc. on January 11, 2022.

Going forward, we will continue to work toward sustainable growth and increased corporate value through the high level of governance required of Prime Market-listed companies and through engaging in constructive dialog with investors.
