The corporate governance of Fullcast Holdings Co., Ltd. is described below.

I. Basic Views on Corporate Governance, Capital Structure, Corporate Profile and Other Basic Information

1. Basic Views

Our Group considers the basic principles and aims of corporate governance to ensure transparent management for all concerned interested parties including shareholders as well as to improve the efficiency of management in order to realize the “sustained improvement of corporate value.”

As of December 17, 2021, Fullcast Holdings Co., Ltd. is a company with a Board of Directors, which is comprised of 7 Directors, including 4 Directors (excluding those who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members) and 3 Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members, and also a company with an Audit & Supervisory Committee, which is comprised of 3 Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members.

To achieve the aforementioned basic principles and goals of corporate governance, it is our policy for the composition of the Board of Directors to consist of at least one-third Outside Directors and to report all Outside Directors as Independent Directors as stipulated by the Tokyo Stock Exchange. We have chosen Outside Directors to serve as 3 of our 7 Directors, and in so doing we aim to strengthen the supervisory function of overall enforcement from an external perspective.

Regarding Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members, by appointing all 3 as Outside Auditors (one of them being a fulltime Audit & Supervisory Committee Member), we perform effective and appropriate oversight of business execution by Directors, and have put in place a system that ensures objectivity and neutrality.

We believe that these systems allow our corporate governance to function properly.

[Reason for Non-Compliance with the Principles of the Corporate Governance Code]

This information is provided based on the Corporate Governance Code after its revision in June 2021 (including the principles for the Prime Market which will apply from April 4, 2022.)

Supplementary Principle 1-2-2 [Early Sending of Convocation Notices and Publication on Website before Sending]

The Company recognizes that shareholders must be given sufficient time to review the proposals for the General Meeting of Shareholders, but at the present the Company is unable to send the convocation notice at an earlier date. The Company will review a schedule that makes it possible to send out the convocation notice earlier in the future, including completing the settlement of accounts and audits at an earlier point in time.

Starting from the 24th General Meeting of Shareholders (for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2016), the Company has begun disclosing the convocation notice on its website and the website of the Tokyo Stock Exchange 7 days prior to sending it.

[Disclosures Based on the Principle of the Corporate Governance Code]

Principle 1-4 [Cross-Shareholdings]

The Group acquires and holds cross-shareholdings of publicly listed stocks when it is determined to contribute to the improved medium to long-term corporate value of the Group from the perspective of maintaining and strengthening cooperative business relations and maintaining and strengthening stable, long-term transactional relationships between the Group and its business partners, restricted to alliance relationships, transactional relationships or other business relationships. The Company plans to sell and reduce its holdings of affiliated company stocks and investment securities for which these business synergies are not expected to materialize.

In addition, every year the Company has examined the medium- to long-term economic rationality and future outlook of main cross-shareholdings taking into account risks and returns, and reported the findings to the Board of Directors as necessary. However, beginning from the fiscal year ended December 2018, the Board of Directors has examined whether these holdings are needed or not. For the fiscal year ended December 2020, the Board of Directors scrutinized in detail whether it is appropriate for the Group to retain cross-shareholdings (4 stocks) and examined whether these holdings are needed or not. As a result of this examination, it was determined that continuing to hold these cross-shareholdings is appropriate at the current point in time.

With regard to exercising the voting rights of cross-shareholdings, the Group determines whether it approves or disapproves of a proposal and exercises its voting rights after comprehensively determining, based on individual scrutiny, whether the proposal contributes to the enhancement of the corporate value of the company and the Group and whether there is a possibility the proposal will damage shareholder value, for each individual proposal, taking into account the purpose of each individual holdings and referencing the criteria for exercising voting rights of the voting advisory company.

Principles 1-7 [Related Party Transactions]

Matters stipulated in laws and regulations, and the scope of major shareholders and subsidiaries considered as stakeholders, the Company's Regulations on the Board of Directors stipulate that competitive transactions with the subsidiary of a Director and transactions involving a conflict of interest between a Director or major shareholder and subsidiary must be approved by the Board of Directors, and the Board of Directors must be reported to with regard to when an approved transaction is executed and on a semiannual basis for transactions with blanket approval are executed. In addition, the results of a survey on the existence of related party transactions is reported to the Board of Directors every year and disclosed appropriately pursuant to laws and regulations.

The development of these procedures and supervision of the Board of Directors ensures system is in place that does not damage the interests of the Company or its shareholders and that prevents such concerns from arising.

Supplementary Principle 2-4-1 [Ensuring Diversity in Promotion to Core Human Resources]

<View and Goals on Ensuring Diversity>

The Group will promote diversity not tied to attributes such as gender, nationality, age, and work history, not only in core human resources, but also among its regular employees, temporary employees, and jobseekers via dispatching or placement through the Group.

As of December 31, 2020, the ratio of female employees, including regular and temporary employees working for the Group, was 59.1%, and we will maintain a minimum ratio of 50.0%.

The ratio of female managers at the Group was 11.7% as of December 31, 2020. We have set a goal of raising the ratio to 15.0% by December 31, 2025, and will strive to enhance recruitment, personnel systems, and training programs.

As we do not anticipate any differences in the promotion of foreign nationals and midcareer hires to management positions in terms of nationality or recruitment period, we have not set or disclosed goals for promotion to management positions at the current time.

<Policy on Human Resource Development and Development of Internal Environment>

For the Group to achieve sustained enhancement of corporate value, it is essential for new graduates and midcareer hires to become competitive quickly after joining, and we have a full menu of training programs with a focus on practical training for employees up to their third year. In addition to increasing the precision and opportunities offered under our menu of training programs, we will consider gradually expanding the menu for each level of upper management and establishing training programs aimed at increasing awareness of sustainability among officers and employees.

Principle 2-6 [Roles of Corporate Pension Funds as Asset Owners]

The Company does not have a corporate pension fund as of the date this report was updated.

Principle 3-1 [Full Disclosure]

1. The Company's future vision (management philosophy, etc.), management strategy and management plan

Our Group considers the "sustained improvement of corporate value" to be one of its most important management issues.

Therefore, our Group will endeavor to maximize corporate value by striking a balance between profitability and growth. At the same time, our management will endeavor maintain a solid financial standing and implement strategies that focus upon capital efficiency. Also, we maintain a goal of realizing a debt-to-equity ratio target of no more than 1.0 time to maintain appropriate debt levels that will enable us to make investments necessary to secure growth, while at the same time maintaining financial soundness. The Fullcast Group also seeks to achieve an ROE of over 20% as a target indicator to reflect "improvement of corporate value." In addition, we maintain a policy of enhancing returns of profits to shareholders with a target of achieving total return ratio of 50%.

Indicators used to realize our vision of “enhancing sustained corporate value”: Maintain ROE above 20%

Indicator for shareholder returns: Total return ratio of 50%

Indicator underpinning our “Basic Policy on Capital”: D/E ratio of less than 1.0x

We seek to achieve the above target indicators to realize our vision of “sustained enhancement of corporate value”

The Fullcast Group achieved its operating profit target of 5.0 billion yen for the final fiscal year of the Medium-Term Management Plan (FY16–FY20), which was formulated as a five-year plan beginning in the fiscal year ended December 2016, two years ahead of schedule in the fiscal year ended December 2018, the third year of the plan. As a result, the Group revised the Medium-Term Management Plan with changes to targets for the fiscal years ended December 2019 and 2020, and continued to work toward achieving these revised targets.

During the current fiscal year, the final year of the revised Medium-Term Management Plan, we experienced a downturn in profits due to the impacts of COVID-19. However, we were able to achieved our initial target of “surpass our previous record high profit in the final year” in the fiscal year ended December 2018, the third year of the plan. And for the fiscal year ended December 2019, we made upward revisions to the initial Medium-Term Management Plan and our results exceeded the revised targets, establishing yet another record high level of profit.

	Initial MTMP FY16–FY20 targets	Revised MTMP FY16–FY20 targets	Results for FY12/20
Operating profit	5.0 billion yen	7.9 billion yen	6.1 billion yen
Ordinary profit	—	8.0 billion yen	6.2 billion yen
Number of operating workers	257,400	320,000	210,943
Gross profit per 1 yen of personnel costs	2.8 yen	2.6 yen	2.5 yen

The Fullcast Group has been moving ahead with preparations for the publication of the Medium-Term Management Plan (FY21–FY25) ending in the fiscal year ending December 2025, following the end of the previous Medium-Term Management Plan (FY16–FY20) in the fiscal year ended December 2020. While our Company plans to grow the mainstay “Short-Term Operational Support Business” without any significant changes to our basic management strategies, COVID-19 infections continue to spread uninterruptedly and it is still extremely difficult to predict when the COVID-19 pandemic will end. Thus, we have decided to postpone the announcement of our new Medium-Term Management Plan, as we deem that it is not appropriate to release medium- to long-term forecasts at the current point in time.

We will focus on quickly restoring our performance in the mainstay “Short-Term Operational Support Business” and continuing our work to establish a new Medium-Term Management Plan to be published in the future at a point in time when the situation surrounding the pandemic becomes clearer. Details pertaining to the Medium-Term Management Plan (FY16–FY20), review of the Medium-Term Management Plan (FY16–FY20), and postponement of the publication of the new Medium-Term Management Plan are disclosed on the Company’s website.

Supplementary Principle 3-1-3 [Initiatives, etc. on Sustainability]

<Initiatives on Sustainability>

As described in Supplementary Principle 4-2-2, the Group's basic policy on sustainability is contributing to solving sustainability issues and gaining the trust of all stakeholders involved in our business by realizing sustainable enhancement of corporate value. We will implement the following sustainability initiatives:

- The Group will constantly offer employment opportunities to job seekers and a workforce to hiring companies by continually providing matching opportunities for short-term positions to job seekers and hiring companies. By doing so, we will contribute to job satisfaction for job seekers and economic growth for hiring companies. In particular, in Japan's labor market, which is experiencing a declining workforce, we will continually provide matching opportunities for short-term positions to both job seekers and hiring companies with a focus on young people, women, seniors, and foreign nationals as these are groups with room for labor force participation who can or want to work in short-term positions only, as well as through the growth of the Group, we will expand the opportunities for job seekers and hiring companies.
- We will contribute to the realization of gender equality by providing employment opportunities to job seekers not tied to age, gender or other attributes. In particular, women account for 47.4% (fiscal year ended December 31, 2020) of dispatched workers in the Short-Term Operational Support Business, the Group's mainstay segment, and through the growth of the Group, we will contribute to the expansion of employment opportunities for female job seekers. We will also contribute to expanding employment opportunities for seniors through Fullcast Senior Works Co., Ltd., a subsidiary providing staffing services specializing in older workers.
- We will contribute to eliminating inequalities among people and countries by providing employment opportunities to job seekers throughout Japan not tied to nationality. In particular, we will contribute to expanding employment opportunities for foreign nationals through Fullcast Global, Co., Ltd., a subsidiary providing staffing services specializing in foreign nationals with resident status in Japan, and Fullcast International, Co., Ltd., a subsidiary providing staffing services specializing in foreign nationals with specified skill worker status.
- In response to Japan's labor environment, which is experiencing a declining workforce, we will contribute to industrial growth and building infrastructure for technological innovation by satisfying workforce needs through the provision of staff matching services to companies seeking growth or innovation. In particular, in providing staff matching services or job opportunities, it is essential to improve the convenience and efficiency of the core systems for human resource matching, and we will strive to make continuous improvements in this area to expand matching opportunities. In addition, there are increasing opportunities for digital transformation (DX), which we will actively implement.

<Investment in Human Capital and Intellectual Property>

With regard to investment in human capital, increasing the number of personnel is essential for the Group to achieve sustainable enhancement of corporate value, and we are making the necessary investments to enable us to continually recruit new graduates and midcareer hires, with an annual increase. Besides this, the Group will also increase the number of personnel by regularly providing the opportunity for the Group's temporary employees and staff dispatched and placed through the Group to become regular employees.

In addition, as described in Supplementary Principle 2-4-1, for the Group to achieve sustained enhancement of corporate value, it is essential for new graduates and midcareer hires to become competitive quickly after joining, and we have a full menu of training programs with a focus on practical training for employees up to their third year. In addition to increasing the precision and opportunities offered under our menu of training programs, we will consider gradually expanding the menu for each level of upper management and establishing training programs aimed at increasing awareness of sustainability among officers and employees.

With regard to investment in intellectual property, improving the convenience and efficiency of core systems related to human resource matching is essential for the Group to carry out its mainstay staffing service business. This will not only streamline internal operations, but will also contribute to improving the satisfaction and customer experience of job seekers who are dispatched or placed through the Group and client companies, thereby supporting the sustainable enhancement of the Group's corporate value, and, as such, we will continue to invest in this area.

In addition, due to the speedup and sophistication of digital and IT technologies, as well as the proliferation of these technologies among job seekers and client companies, there are increasing opportunities for digital transformation (DX) in all the business processes of the staffing services industry, where digitization and use of IT has been slow to penetrate. The Group will make the necessary investment to actively utilize these opportunities.

<Disclosure of Climate Change-Related Impacts>

As the Group is primarily engaged in short-term staffing services, it is difficult to imagine that climate change will have a major impact on the Group's business. The Group does not disclose the impact of climate change-related risks and earning opportunities on its business activities and profits based on the TCFD recommendations or an equivalent framework because climate change is not considered a materiality (key issue) for the Company. However, in the future, we will consider collecting and analyzing the necessary data, disclosing information based on a framework such as TCFD, and enhancing the quality and quantity of disclosure.

Supplementary Principle 4-1-1 [Summary of Scope of Matters Delegated from the Board of Director to the Management]

The Board of Directors determines matters in accordance with laws and regulations and matters considered to be of importance to the management of the Group defined in the Regulations of the Board of Directors. The Articles of Incorporation stipulate that all or partial decisions of important business matters be delegated to the Board of Directors.

As for decisions on other matters of business execution, the Company Regulations have been created that clearly indicate approval authority in order to speed up decision making and achieve more in-depth deliberation among Directors. Decision making is sped up by transferring authority as appropriate to the President, Representative Director and CEO, who is appointed executive Director by the Board of Directors.

Supplementary Principle 4-2-2 [Development of Basic Policy for Sustainability Initiatives]

Fullcast Group Sustainability Basic Policy

The Fullcast Group's basic policy on sustainability is to contribute to solving social issues and to win the trust of all stakeholders involved in our business by achieving sustainable enhancement of corporate value with a corporate philosophy of "Providing the best place for people to bring out their best." We will implement the following sustainability activities:

1. As we are primarily engaged in short-term staffing services, it is difficult to imagine that climate change will have a major impact on our business. However, we will reduce environmental impact and use resources efficiently in areas where it can contribute for the sustainable development of the global environment.
2. We will respond appropriately to the human rights impact and risks of corporate activities and strive to prevent human rights violations.
3. We are aware that the growth of employees is the source of sustained enhancement of corporate value and we will strive for recruitment and training not tied to race, nationality, age, gender, and other attributes, as well as for improvements in the working environment giving consideration to work-life balance.

4. We will strive to establish trust and engage in fair and appropriate transactions with jobseekers and client companies, our important business partners in operating the staffing services business.

Principle 4-9 [Independence Standards and Qualification for Independent Directors]

The Company has stipulated the following standards for determining the independence of the Company's Outside Directors as part of its efforts to strengthen corporate governance.

[Conditions of Independence for Independent Officers]

The Company's independent officers are Outside Directors as stipulated in the Companies Act and Ordinance for Enforcement of the Companies Act and they are persons who satisfy the following conditions, in addition to the conditions for independence set forth by financial instrument exchanges in Japan, including the Tokyo Stock Exchange.

 - (6) A person who fell into any of the categories described in (1) to (5) above in the last one year;
 - (7) A relative of a person (excluding unimportant persons) who falls into any of the following categories (i) to (iii) within the second degree of the relationship:
 - (i) A person who falls into any of the above categories (1) to (6);
 - (ii) An executor of business for a subsidiary of the Company;
 - (iii) A person who falls into (ii) or was an executor of business for the Company in the last year.
2. Individuals who do not have other circumstances that prevents them from fulfilling their duties as independent officer.
3. Even when 1 or 2 above applies, an individual can still be appointed as independent officer if it is determined they effectively possess independence and the reason is explained and disclosed at the time of their appointment as outside officer.

(Notes)

1. An "executor of business" means a Director in charge of business execution, an executive officer, or an employee.
2. A "major customer" means a company whose payments or receivables account for over 2% of annual consolidated sales of the Group within most recent business year.
3. "In addition to Director's remuneration receives money exceeding a certain amount or other assets from the Group" means a person who received monetary proceeds of 10 million yen or more or interests with the equivalent value from the Group, in addition to Director's remuneration, in the most recent business year.

Supplementary Principle 4-10-1 [Nomination Committee and Remuneration Committee]

The Company's Board of Directors consists of 7 Directors, 3 of whom are Independent Outside Directors, and agenda items at Board of Directors meetings are deliberated and decided upon after obtaining appropriate involvement and advice from the Independent Outside Directors.

In order to establish a system that can adequately ensure the independence and objectivity of the functions of the Board of Directors in areas related to the remuneration of senior management and the Directors, the Company established the Remuneration Committee composed of 3 Outside Directors, who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members and are independent, and the President, Representative Director and CEO in the fiscal year ending December 31, 2021. The majority of the members of the Remuneration Committee are Independent Outside Directors. In addition, in terms of its authority and roles, the Remuneration Committee deliberates and reports to the Board of Directors on the following matters:

- (1) Policy in determining the remuneration, etc. of Directors;
- (2) Draft proposals regarding the remuneration, etc. of Directors to be submitted to the General Meeting of Shareholders;
- (3) Policy related to determining the details of remuneration, etc. for individual Directors;
- (4) Matters related to the details of remuneration, etc. for individual Directors;
- (5) Other important matters related to the above referred to the committee by the Board of Directors.

The Company also established the Nomination Committee, which consists of 3 Independent Outside Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members, and the President, Representative Director and CEO, in order to strengthen the supervisory function of the Board of Directors and enhance the corporate governance system by increasing the transparency and objectivity of the evaluation and decision-making process regarding the nomination of Directors. In addition, in terms of its authority and roles, the Nomination Committee deliberates and reports to the Board of Directors on the following matters:

- (1) Matters related to the election and dismissal of Directors;
- (2) Matters related to the selection and dismissal of the President and CEO;
- (3) Matters related to the successor plan for the President and CEO;
- (4) Other important matters related to the above referred to the committee by the Board of Directors.

Supplementary Principle 4-11-1 [View on Balance between Knowledge, Experience and Skills of the Board as a Whole, and on Diversity and Appropriate Board Size]

The Company has elected 4 Directors (excluding those who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members) and 3 Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members. The Company nominates Directors who are not Audit & Supervisory Committee Members as we believe them to be capable of playing a sufficient role in making decisions on important management matters and supervising the execution of duties by the President, Representative Director and CEO, who is an executive Director, in order to realize the management plan.

In addition, all of the Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members are Independent Outside Directors, and we place an emphasis on their highly specialized knowledge and insight and experience in areas related to management which cannot be obtained solely from the Directors who are not Audit & Supervisory Committee Members. We expect all the Directors to fully demonstrate their abilities supported by their respective experience, to make decisions on important matters related to basic management policies, and to supervise the execution of business.

Also, the 3 Directors who are not Audit & Supervisory Committee Members other than the President, Representative Director and CEO are non-executive Directors with management experience. Therefore, the execution of duties by the President, Representative Director and CEO, is substantially supervised by all other Directors. The policies and procedures related to the election of Directors are provided in “I. Basic Views on Corporate Governance, Capital Structure, Corporate Profile and Other Basic Information > 1. Basic Views, [Disclosures Based on the Principle of the Corporate Governance Code] > Principle 3-1 [Full Disclosure] > 4.” of this report.

Supplementary Principle 4-11-3 [Preconditions for Ensuring the Effectiveness of the Board of Directors]

From the fiscal year ended December 2016, the Company has conducted surveys with regard to the effectiveness of the Company's Board of Directors in order to enhance the effectiveness of the Board of Directors and further enhance corporate value. We conducted a similar survey of all Directors (including those who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members) in the fiscal year ended December 2020. The results of this survey were analyzed and evaluated.

Within the survey, Directors were asked to self-assess 25 items, including composition of the Board of Directors, management of the Board of Directors, structure underpinning the Board of Directors and a comprehensive evaluation for the fiscal year ended December 2020. The results indicated almost as high scores as the previous survey for each item, and that Directors believe the effectiveness of the Company's Board of Directors continues to be ensured.

At the same time, it has been brought to the attention of the Company that there is ongoing room for improvement so as to further deepen and stimulate discussion at the Board of Directors Meeting. Those are sufficient discussion time for individual proposals at the Board of Directors Meeting and how and when documents are provided to ensure sufficient time for Directors to review proposals in advance, as well as the need to have even deeper discussions at the Board of Directors regarding the Company's medium- to long-term management strategy.

Going forward, based on the results of the evaluation of effectiveness, the Company will aim to heighten the effectiveness of the Board of Directors and realize further enhancements in corporate value by making improvements with regard to the issues brought to light.

Supplementary Principle 4-14-2 [Training Policy for Directors (excluding those who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members) and Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members]

Necessary training opportunities are provided, including short courses provided by external institutions, at the time of appointment and continually after appointment, so that Directors (excluding those who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members) and Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members can obtain and update the knowledge and information needed for fulfilling their roles and duties appropriately.

When appointing new Outside Directors from different industry that are non-executive Directors, the President, Representative Director and CEO provides opportunities for them to acquire the knowledge and information concerning the market structure and business and service structure as it relates to the Company.

Principle 5-1 [Policy for Constructive Dialogue with Shareholders]

The Group considers shareholders to be an important stakeholder and for this reason it encourages constructive dialogue with shareholders within a reasonable scope, even outside the venue of the General Meeting of Shareholders, from the perspective of realizing sustainable growth and enhancing medium- to long-term corporate value.

Additionally, the Company encourages discussions on important management policies and corporate governance, among other topics, with major shareholders who have an investment policy that particularly requires them to seek out medium to long-term returns.

The Company's policy on establishing a system and making efforts to promote constructive dialogue with shareholders is outlined below.

- (1) General dialogue with shareholders, including meetings with investors, will be supervised by the President, Representative Director and CEO, while the General Manager of the Finance and IR Department will engage in dialogue with shareholders as the person responsible and the dedicated investor relations department will support these efforts.
- (2) The Company's investor relations department will take the lead in gathering necessary information from dialogue with shareholders, including meetings with investors, and opinions gained through dialogue with shareholders will be shared at regular meetings held involving the General Managers of Indirect Departments so that operations are conducted while incorporating proactive collaboration with related departments.
- (3) In order to enhance means of dialogue outside of individual meetings, the Company will engage in activities to deepen understanding of the Company, by holding business performance briefings will be made to institutional investors semi-annually, making efforts to conduct sincere question and answer sessions at General Meetings of Shareholders, and providing information disclosures through the Company's website. Going forward, the Company will seek to enhance the nature of dialogue based on the opinions and requests of investors.
- (4) All matters of dialogue with shareholders, including meetings with investors and dialogue outside of meetings, is reported to the President, Representative Director and CEO. In addition, the opinions of shareholders gained from dialogue are reported to executive management and the Board of Directors as needed based on the level of importance.
- (5) The management of insider information is conducted in a thorough manner with an emphasis placed on the equality of information, pursuant to company regulations.

Supplementary Principle 5-2-1 [Basic Policy Regarding the Business Portfolio]

Basic Policy Regarding the Business Portfolio at the Fullcast Group

The Group's business portfolio consists of the mainstay Short-Term Operational Support Business, which accounts for approximately 90% of consolidated net sales, and other two segments, which are the Sales Support Business and the

The Group believes that continuing to grow the mainstay Short-Term Operational Support Business will enable it to enhance the Group's corporate value, and its basic management strategy is to focus on the growth of this business. In addition, with regards to M&A, our policy is to consider and implement M&A primarily in areas peripheral to the Short-Term Operational Support Business, targeting companies that will contribute to further growth and expansion in this business. In the other two segments, our policy is to aim for stable growth.

At present, the Group has postponed the announcement of the new Medium-Term Management Plan (FY21–FY25), the five-year plan that will end in the fiscal year ending December 31, 2025. (Please see “Notice of Postponement of Publication of the Medium-Term Management Plan (FY21–FY25)” published on February 2, 2021 for details.)

Going forward, we plan to grow the mainstay Short-Term Operational Support Business without any significant changes to our basic management strategies, but we will conduct reviews of the business portfolio as necessary in order to optimize it.

Policy on Determining Compensation Amounts and Calculation Method	Yes

Disclosure of Policy for Determination of compensation amounts and calculation method

It is stated in the Articles of Incorporation that officers' remunerations are stipulated based upon decisions made at the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders.

The Company decides on the amount of remuneration for executive officers once each year.

The body with authority for determining policy on decisions on the amount of the remuneration of the Company's officers and the calculation method is the Board of Directors. The remuneration of directors (excluding those who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members) is determined individually based on deliberations by the Board of Directors, including 3 independent outside directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members, in order to secure transparency. During the relevant fiscal year, deliberation and resolution were made by the Board of Directors as follows.

- March 27, 2020: Deliberation and resolution on remuneration of directors (excluding those who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members)

The remuneration of Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members is determined individually based on deliberations by the Audit & Supervisory Committee.

Furthermore, a resolution was passed at the meeting of the Board of Directors held on February 26, 2021 on "Policy for determining the details of remuneration of individual directors" as follows:

1. Fundamental policy

The fundamental policy for the determination of remuneration of the Company's individual directors shall be to set this remuneration at an appropriate level based on the importance of each of their duties and their achievements using a remuneration system linked to the Company's business performance and return to shareholders so that remuneration works sufficiently as an incentive for the sustainable enhancement of corporate value. Specifically, the remuneration of the Representative Director and CEO who serves as an executive officer and the director responsible for audit functions (excluding those who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members) shall be comprised of base remuneration (monetary remuneration) as the fixed remuneration and performance-linked remuneration (monetary remuneration) and stock-based compensation (non-monetary remuneration). The remuneration of outside directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee members shall comprise only base remuneration as fixed remuneration in view of their duties.

2. Policy regarding the amount of remuneration for each individual in terms of base remuneration (monetary remuneration) (including the policy on determining the timing or conditions for the granting of remuneration)

The base remuneration of the Company's directors shall be comprised of monthly fixed remuneration, which shall be determined holistically while considering the level of other companies, the Company's performance, and level of employee pay based on the director's position, duties, and number of years in office.

3. Policy regarding the details and amount or calculation method of performance-linked remuneration and non-monetary remuneration (including the policy on determining the timing or conditions for the granting of remuneration)

Performance-linked remuneration shall be comprised of cash remuneration reflecting key performance indicators (KPI) to elevate awareness about improving performance each business year. The amount calculated is based on the level of achievement of targets for consolidated operating profit for each respective business year and shall be paid monthly in conjunction with monthly fixed remuneration. The target KPIs and their values, in principle, shall be set when the Medium-Term Management Plan is formulated to ensure consistency with this plan or medium-term consolidated operating profit targets set by the Company and be reviewed as necessary based on changes in the operating environment.

Non-monetary remuneration shall be comprised of stock compensation-type stock options and adopt consolidated operating profit, a primary financial target of the Medium-Term Management Plan or medium-term consolidated operating profit targets set by the Company, as the indicator related to performance-linked remuneration. Of those share acquisition rights allocated, only a limited number of share acquisition rights can be exercised depending on the level of achievement of the consolidated operating profit target for the final year of the Medium-Term Management Plan or of medium-term consolidated operating profit target.

4. Policy regarding determination of the proportion of monetary remuneration, performance-linked remuneration or non-monetary remuneration for each Director

The ratio of each type of remuneration for Executive Director and Director (excluding those who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members) shall be determined considering remuneration levels of other companies engaged in related business types or formats or whose business size is similar to the Company. Furthermore, the benchmark ratio of each type of remuneration shall be 8 : 1 : 1 representing base remuneration : performance-linked remuneration : non-monetary remuneration (in case the level of KPI achievement is 100%).

Note: Performance-linked remuneration shall be cash remuneration and non-monetary remuneration shall be stock-compensation type stock options.

5. Matters regarding the determination of details of remuneration for individual Directors

The remuneration of the Representative Director and CEO who serves as an executive officer and the director (excluding those who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members) will be proposed by the Representative Director and CEO who serves as an executive officer that will include the total amount of remuneration following the aforementioned fundamental policy on determining remuneration and individual policies. Next, the Board of Directors passes a resolution on the total amount of remuneration (each amount of base remuneration, performance-linked remuneration and stock-type remuneration, if applicable), timing, conditions and other important matters, if any. The specific details of each individual director are entrusted to the discretion of the Representative Director and CEO who serves as an executive officer. The details of this authority shall comprise the amount of base remuneration of each director and performance-linked remuneration of each director.

However, the Company will establish a Remuneration Committee comprised of 3 independent outside directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee members and the Representative Director and CEO who serves as an executive officer to prevent arbitrary decisions on remuneration by the Representative Director and CEO who serves as an executive officer and ensure that authority is exercised appropriately. The Remuneration Committee deliberates on whether the individual remuneration proposals established by the Representative Director and CEO who serves as an executive officer are appropriate or not in accordance with the above-mentioned policies for determination of remuneration. After this, revisions are made if necessary and the Remuneration Committee establishes a remuneration proposal within the scope of the total amount approved by the Board of Directors. The Remuneration Committee submits its proposal to the Representative Director and CEO who serves as an executive officer, and the Representative Director and CEO who serves as an executive officer determines the remuneration amount for individual directors while respecting the details of this proposal.

3. Reasons for Adoption of Current Corporate Governance System

As of December 17, 2021, Fullcast Holdings Co., Ltd. is a company with a Board of Directors, which is comprised of 7 Directors, including 4 Directors (excluding those who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members) and 3 Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members, and also a company with an Audit & Supervisory Committee, which is comprised of 3 Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members.

To achieve the aforementioned basic principles and goals of corporate governance, it is our policy for the composition of the Board of Directors to consist of at least one-third Outside Directors and to report all Outside Directors as Independent Directors as stipulated by the Tokyo Stock Exchange. We have chosen Outside Directors to serve as 3 of our 7 Directors, and in so doing we aim to strengthen the supervisory function of overall enforcement from an external perspective.

Regarding Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members, by appointing all 3 as Outside Auditors (one of them being a fulltime Audit & Supervisory Committee Member), we perform effective and appropriate oversight of business execution by Directors, and have put in place a system that ensures objectivity and neutrality.

We believe that these systems allow our corporate governance to function properly.
