2. Matters Concerning Functions of Business Execution, Auditing and Supervision, Nomination, and Remuneration Decisions (Overview of Current Corporate Governance System)

a. Board of Directors

The Company's Board of Directors is composed of four Directors (including two Outside Directors), and it has the authority to adopt resolutions for important matters and supervises Directors' execution of duties, based on the "Rules of the Board of Directors." The Company has invited Mr. Sumito Togo and Ms. Maki Ogawa as an Independent Officer and is promoting a management system that makes it possible to improve the soundness and transparency of management decision-making. In principle, the Board of Directors holds a regular meeting of the Board of Directors once a month, and it flexibly holds extraordinary meetings of the Board of Directors as necessary.

b. Audit & Supervisory Committee

The Company has established an Audit & Supervisory Committee. The Audit & Supervisory Committee comprises three Audit & Supervisory Committee Members (including three Outside Audit & Supervisory Committee Members), and it audits Directors' daily activities, including their execution of duties. The Audit & Supervisory Committee Members include members who have experience as an accountant, a tax accountant and an attorney, and they utilize their knowledge to express objective opinions from an independent and neutral position. Audit & Supervisory Committee Members conduct effective monitoring by attending the General Meetings of Shareholders and meetings of the Board of Directors and exercising their legal rights of receiving reports from Directors, employees and the Company's accounting auditor and such that a full-time Audit & Supervisory Committee Member attends management meeting. In principle, the Audit & Supervisory Committee holds a regular Audit & Supervisory Committee meeting once each month and holds meetings extraordinarily as necessary.

c. Internal Audits

The Internal Audit Department (two employees) audits adequacy of the Company's business, and for the purpose of ensuring the effectiveness and efficiency of its audit work, the Internal Audit Department performs audits based on annual internal audit plans and reports audit results to the Representative Director as well as to Audit & Supervisory Board Members, management meetings and the Board of Directors. The Internal Audit Department shares audit results and instructions for improvement with each audited department and confirms the progress of improvement on an ongoing basis and reports the results of the follow-ups at management meetings.

d. Accounting Auditors

The Company has concluded an auditing contract with KPMG AZSA LLC. There are no particular conflicts of interest between the Company and that audit firm and/or its employees who execute audits on the Company.

e. Management Meetings

The Company's Management Meeting comprises the Representative Director, who also serves as the chairperson of the Management Meeting, Directors (excluding Outside Directors), a full-time Audit & Supervisory Committee Member, executive officers, the person responsible for internal management and control, and the person designated by the chairperson or the person responsible for internal management and control. Management Meetings are generally held once a week. The Company strives to make management activities more efficient through discussions related to management in general and deliberation about important business matters.

f. Risk Compliance Committee

The Company has established a Risk Compliance Committee as an organization for conducting discussions and considerations related to the promotion of risk management and compliance. The Committee comprises the Representative Director, who also serves as the chairperson, Directors (excluding Outside Directors), the person responsible for internal management and control, the head of the Corporate Group, and the person designated by the chairperson or the person responsible for internal management and control.

In principle, meetings of Risk Compliance Committee are held once each quarter and are also held flexibly and extraordinarily as necessary. The Risk Compliance Committee discusses the Company's related to risk management and compliance, organizational systems, formulation/revision/abolition of the Company's rules etc., monitoring of compliance with laws and regulations, education and training plans to increase awareness of compliance, and discussions related to risk management.

g. Investment Committee

The principle of the Company's business operations is to faithfully conduct business activities for customers. The Company has established Investment Committee in order to execute investment management that aligns interest of customers and to properly handle changes in the external environments such as the economic environment and the market environment that may affect the Company's investment management operations. The Investment Committee comprises the person responsible for the Research & Quants Department, who also serves as the chairperson, the Representative Director, who also serves as the vice chairperson, and members who are outside experts in domestic and foreign investment theories and asset management. The chairperson and members are appointed by the Representative Director based on approval by the Board of Directors.

In principle, Investment Committee meetings are held once each quarter, and the Committee verifies the appropriateness of recommendation algorithms for optimal portfolios, gives advice to the Company's Research & Quants Department in times of sudden changes of the market environment, verifies the actual investment performance of optimal portfolios, and conducts other verifications and gives advice for matters that are necessary in order to appropriately operate investment management business.

h. Reward and Punishment Committee

The Company's Reward and Punishment Committee chaired by the Representative Director consists of members selected by the Representative Director. Reward and Punishment Committee meetings are held whenever a case corresponding to the "Rules of Employment" arises. This Reward and Punishment Committee conducts resolution related to cases concerning commendations and discipline and has been established for the purpose of ensuring fairness in the rewards and punishments for the Company's employees.

i. Executive Officer System

The Company has introduced an Executive Officer System in order to reinforce execution of the Company's business operations. Executive officers selected by the Board of Directors execute their operations under their control. An executive officer's term of office is until the time of the conclusion of the annual General Meeting of Shareholders for the last business year that ends within one year after the executive officer's appointment.

3. Reasons for Adoption of Current Corporate Governance System

Based on the "Basic Views on Corporate Governance," decision-making authority and responsibility for business execution is centralized at the Board of Directors, and the Audit & Supervisory Committee Members and the Audit & Supervisory Committee, which are independent from business execution and the Board of Directors, audits and supervises the Board of Directors. The Company thereby realizes appropriate management decision-making and business execution and secures the function of a check-and-balance system as a company with an Audit & Supervisory Committee.

Specifically, the Company has appointed two Outside Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members) and three Outside Audit & Supervisory Committee Members. The Outside Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit & Supervisory Committee Members) are responsible for management supervision to monitor appropriateness of decision-making and promote efficiency in management. Also, experts who have diverse knowledge and expertise related to finance, accounting and tax matters, risk management and compliance with laws are appointed as the Outside Audit & Supervisory Committee Members, and as a result, the Board of Directors and the Audit & Supervisory Committee are monitoring management from technical and objective perspectives from independent and fair positions.

In addition, the Company has adopted an executive officer system, and has strengthened the corporate governance system by ensuring the soundness and efficiency of management, separating management supervision functions from business execution functions, by establishing three voluntary expert committees in the form of the Risk Compliance Committee, the Investment Committee, and the Reward and Punishment Committee, and by receiving advice and guidance from external experts such as attorneys, etc. as necessary.
