Announcement concerning the Impact of the Russia-Ukraine Situation on SUMCO Operations

We at SUMCO are deeply concerned about the situation in Ukraine, and earnestly desire that the parties seek an early, peaceful solution.

As for the impact at present on SUMCO Group operations from the Russia-Ukraine situation, a summary is presented below.

Current Status and Outlook

At the current time, there is no impact on the financial performance of the SUMCO Group.

If a major impact on Group performance comes to be anticipated in the future, due to the situation changing or becoming protracted, we will announce the details promptly.

Note that the Group has no customers or manufacturing and sales bases in Russia or Ukraine. While a very small amount of raw materials are procured from Russia, these can be replaced from other sources.
