[Reason for not implementing the principles of the Corporate Governance Code]

The Company has implemented the principles of the Corporate Governance Code.

[Disclosure based on the principles of the Corporate Governance Code] Updated

The following statements are based on the Corporate Governance Code (including content for the prime market) revised in June 2021.

[General Principle 1-4]

■ Policy on cross shareholdings

- The Company makes a decision every year on the continued holding of cross-shareholders at the Board of Directors based on the policy described below and disposes of or reduces holdings of shares for which the rationality of their holding can't be recognized.
- Company Policy: The Company holds shares of other listed companies as Cross-Shareholdings, limited to where it can be determined to be reasonable in consideration of, among others, the necessity of it for business activities (e.g., to maintain and strengthen the relationship with the business partner), the status of the issuer, and the return on the capital cost.

■ Standards for the exercising of voting rights of cross-shareholdings

- The Company, based on the policy of the preceding paragraph and internal standards, exercises voting rights upon making comprehensive judgment, from the perspectives of maximization of corporate value in the medium to long term of the other company to the Cross-Shareholding, the effect on the Group, etc.

[General Principle 1-7]

■ Mechanism for checks on transactions between related parties

- The Company reports to the Board of Directors and discloses significant related party transactions exceeding a certain monetary threshold (such as transactions between the Company and a major shareholder, competing transactions between the Company and Directors or the Executive Officers, transactions for itself, and conflict of interest transactions, etc.) in Notice of convocation of the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders and Securities report.
- When the Company intends to carry out a related party transaction, the Company will make a comprehensive judgment regarding the reasonableness of the transaction taking into consideration its terms and condition, profit and cost levels, etc., to ensure that the transaction will not harm the interests of the Company or the interests of its minority shareholders and obtain the approval of the appropriate decision-maker.
- In particular, when conducting transactions with the Controlling Company of the Company, the Company shall ensure appropriate involvement and supervision by the Independent Outside Directors of the Board, such as obtaining approval at the Board of Directors with the majority of the Independent Directors, etc.
- The Company has prescribed the “monitoring for conflicts of interests between the Company and its Directors of the Board, Executive Officers, and controlling shareholders, etc.” as one of the “Roles of Independent Directors of the Board” in Article 22 (Roles of Independent Directors of the Board) of the Company’s “Corporate Governance Policies”.

- Securities report(<https://www.nipponpaint-holdings.com/en/ir/library/statements/>)

[Supplementary General Principle 2-4-1]

■ Ensuring diversity in the promotion to core human resources

- Although no measurable targets have been set, the Company is promoting the appointment, etc. of foreign nationals and midcareer hires to middle managerial positions. Further, through the Group’s Action Plan, which was formulated after the implementation of the Act on Promotion of Women’s Participation and Advancement in the Workplace, we have promoted the training of women from a long term perspective and the establishment of organizational development and systems; as a result of which, we have established a goal of having 10% of the Group’s overall management positions being held by women by 2025, and since 2015, we have conducted women’s leadership training and development, and change in the attitudes of the management class is progressing. In addition, as of March 31, 2022, among officers, there is 2 female Directors of the Board, 1 female Executive Officer, and 1 female Corporate Officer.

[General Principle 2-6]

■ Demonstration of function as a corporate pension asset owner

<Defined Benefit Corporate Pension Fund>

- The Company, in the management and operation of the “Nippon Paint Corporate Pension Fund (hereinafter the “Fund”),” in order to be able to demonstrate the function expected as the asset owner of the Fund, systematically secures personnel with the qualities required for the management and operation of the Fund from both within and outside the Group, and deploys such personnel as representatives of the corporate pension fund, and to the Asset Management Committee and Corporate Pension Fund Secretary's Office. In addition, in partnerships with investment consultants, efforts are made to promote the understanding of the operation status and individual strategies of the pension assets in general, and to further improve the level of expertise.
- In the operation of the Fund, decisions are made by the representative committee, based on the activities status report for the investment period, as well as the opinions of the Asset Management Committee, and investment consultants, with the objective of the maximization of the interest of the beneficiaries.
- The selection of investment institution shall be determined in accordance with the standards prescribed in the Basic Policy on Asset Management, upon the performance of a comprehensive assessment of both quantitative aspects, such as investment performance, and qualitative aspects, such as investment policy and compliance.

- In addition, in the exercising of voting rights in companies receiving investment, etc., we are appropriately managing any conflicts of interest that arise between the beneficiaries and the Company.
- As part of corporate governance reforms, in December 2020, the Fund declared that it had received a Stewardship Code. Toward the resolution of social issues relating to global sustainability, through the Stewardship Code, we are promoting the improvement of the corporate value of investee companies and their sustainable growth and making efforts to increase the interests of final beneficiaries.

· Further, the obtaining of the prior approval of the Board of Directors of the Company in the event of an Outside Director of the Board being newly appointed as an Officer of another company is stated in Board of Directors Rule of the Company.

[Supplementary General Principle 4-11-3]

■ Overview of analysis and assessments on the effectiveness of the Board of Directors

◇ Continuing from the fiscal year ending December 31, 2020, for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2021, the Company conducted an evaluation of the effectiveness of the Board of Directors using questionnaire and individual interviews by a third party organization, Board Advisors Japan, Inc.

◇ An overview of the results of the assessment for the period ending December 2021 is as per the below.

· It was confirmed that the Board of Directors is proactively and positively responding to the evolution of the Company's management, including the transition to a co-president system. In addition, the agenda setting and facilitation by the new Chairperson of the Board of Directors, who is an independent director, has greatly contributed to the effectiveness of the Board of Directors meetings. It was also confirmed that preparations are underway to nominate directors with the experience, skills, and so on required for the Board of Directors of the Company in order to further improve the function of the Board of Directors.

· Among the issues pointed out to be strengthened in the evaluation of the effectiveness of the Board of Directors for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2020, it was confirmed that significant progress has been made in further strengthening the audit function, and that progress is also being made in upgrading the monitoring model, expanding discussion of important agenda items, and strengthening the nomination function.

· Based on the above, the Company's Board of Directors was evaluated to be generally effective. On the other hand, as issues to be strengthened in the fiscal year ending December 31, 2022, it was recognized that the Board of Directors should enhance discussions on growth strategies, improve the efficiency of the Board of Directors meeting' operations, make further contributions by Independent Directors, and strengthen the Board of Directors' secretariat functions to support Independent Directors.

◇ Based on the results of the above, the Company's Board of Directors will continue to aim for “Maximization of Shareholder Value” and make efforts to improve effectiveness.

Supplementary explanation Updated

1. The total number of issued shares written are as of December 31, 2021.
2. The ratio of the number of shares owned to the total number of issued shares is calculated excluding treasury stock of 22,261,037 shares.
3. Nipsea International Limited is a wholly owned subsidiary of Wuthelam Holdings Ltd. where Goh Hup Jin, a Director of the Board of our Company, serves as Managing Director.
4. On January 25, 2021, the Company conducted a third-party allotment of shares with Nipsea International Limited and Fraser (HK) Limited as underwriters, where it issued 148,700,000 new shares of the Company, and as a result, the total number of issued shares was 474,102,443.
5. Based on the resolution of the Board of Directors meeting held on February 10, 2021, the Company set March 31, 2021 as the record date and April 1, 2021 as the effective date, and as of April 1, 2021, the number of common shares owned by shareholders noted or recorded in the final shareholder registry on the record date has been split at a rate of 5 shares for each share. As a result, the total number of issued shares (474,102,443 shares) after the above third-party allotment has increased by 1,896,409,772 shares to 2,370,512,215 shares.
6. A large shareholding report dated January 31, 2022 (submitted by Mitsubishi UFJ Financial Group, Inc. and its joint holders Mitsubishi UFJ Trust and Banking Corporation, Mitsubishi UFJ Kokusai Asset Management Co., Ltd., First Sentier Investors (Australia) IM Ltd. and First Sentier Investors (Hong Kong) Limited) has been made available for public inspection. However, the portion for which the actual number of shares held as of December 31, 2021 cannot be confirmed by the Company is not included in the above status of the major shareholders.
7. Since the Company was able to confirm the intention of the financial institutions to sell the shares of the Company's common stock held by them, the Company resolved at the Board of Directors the meeting held on January 7, 2022 to conduct a secondary offering of shares in the overseas market, in order to provide such sellers with a smooth opportunity to sell their shares and to resolve the issue of the low market liquidity of the Company's shares relative to its market capitalization. This secondary offering of shares in overseas markets is intended to increase the market liquidity of the Company's shares, build a global investor base that understands the Company's growth strategy from a long-term perspective, and alleviate concerns about the potential sale of Cross-shareholdings. This secondary offering will also contribute to the improvement of the tradable share ratio required to maintain listing on the Prime Market, a new market segment of the Tokyo Stock Exchange.

3. Company attributes

Hisashi Hara	○			○	(Concurrent Position) Senior Counsel at T&K Partners	With a career of over 40 years as an attorney, Hisashi Hara has been involved in numerous cross-border M&A deals and has assisted in various corporate legal matters. In 2011, he received the Chambers Asia-Pacific Lifetime Achievement Award from Chambers Partners, which is just one of many commendations in recognition of his good reputation as an attorney involved in cross-border M&A deals. As Chairman of the Special Committee, he provided objective advice from the perspective of protecting the interests of minority shareholders in making the Company's joint venture in the Asian region a wholly owned subsidiary and during the acquisition of the Indonesian business announced in August 2020, and in the share transfer of the European and Indian subsidiaries decided in August 2021. As Chairman of the Nominating Committee, he played an important role in the appointment and election of candidates for the Director of the Board and Executive Officer, and also demonstrated strong leadership by leading the nomination process for the establishment of the Co-President structure in April 2021. In light of these contributions, the Company's Nominating Committee deems his advice based on his knowledge and experience to be essential for establishing the corporate governance to pursue "Maximization of Shareholder Value" from a medium- to long-term perspective after fulfilling responsibilities to all the stakeholders surrounding the Company, and nominates him again as a candidate for Outside Director of the Board. In addition, he was elected as a director at the General Meeting of Shareholder and satisfies the requirements for independent directors set forth by the Tokyo Stock Exchange and the Company's "Independence Criteria for Outside Director of the Board". Since the Company judged that there is no risk of conflict of interest with general shareholders, the Company designated him as an independent director.

Peter M Kirby			○		Peter M Kirby has worked globally in the paint industry since 1972, culminating in his appointment as Chairman/CEO of ICI Paints world-wide which was the largest paint company in the world based in the UK. From 1998 to 2003 he was CEO/MD of CSR Ltd, a listed international building materials group. From 2003 he served as an independent director of Australian-listed Orica which became the largest producer of mining explosives and chemicals in the world. In 2010 Orica demerged DuluxGroup and he became its Chairman until retiring in 2018. Dulux is the market leader in Oceania and is now a subsidiary of Nippon Paint Holdings. From 2003 to 2014 he was also an independent director of Macquarie Bank and Group which is an Australian-listed investment bank and a leader in financing infrastructure internationally. The Nominating Committee of Nippon Paint Holdings judges that his global business experience mainly in the paint and coatings industry and his extensive experience and expertise serving on the boards of multinational corporations are indispensable for establishing the corporate governance structure of the Company to pursue Maximization of Shareholder Value with a long-term perspective after fulfilling its obligations to its stakeholders, and nominates him as a candidate for Director of the Board. In addition, he was elected as a director at the General Meeting of Shareholder and satisfies the requirements for independent directors set forth by the Tokyo Stock Exchange and the Company's "Independence Criteria for Outside Director of the Board". Miharu Koezuka			○	○	(Concurrent Position) Outside Director of the Board of Japan Post Holdings Co., Ltd. and Nankai Electric Railway Co., Ltd. Miharu Koezuka was involved in business management of Takashimaya Company, Limited, a leading company in the Japanese department store industry, as part of its management team for many years and served as its Representative Senior Managing Director. Miharu Koezuka currently serves as Outside Director of both Japan Post Holdings Co., Ltd. and Nankai Electric Railway Co., Ltd. She has contributed to the vitalization of discussions at the Company's Board of Directors meetings by providing multifaceted and accurate advice based on her experience in building marketing strategies in local markets and improving employee engagement, which she gained through her management of a retail business. In addition, she has performed duties as an Audit Committee Member, such as by providing

Lim Hwee Hua				○ (Concurrent Position) Independent Director, Jardine Cycle & Carriage Limited Senior Advisor, Kohlberg Kravis Roberts & Co. L.P.	Lim Hwee Hua was elected to the Parliament of Singapore in 1996 and held several important ministerial positions in the Singapore Government until 2011. From 2002 to 2004, she served in important positions of the Parliament including Deputy Speaker of Parliament and Chairman of the Public Accounts Committee. Prior to joining the Singapore Cabinet, she was engaged in investment banking services at Swiss Bank Corporation and Jardine Fleming. She also served as Managing Director at Temasek Holdings, an investment company owned by the Singapore Government, where she oversaw restructuring and divestment of companies, realigned boards, established strategic relations with key foreign counterparts including China and Vietnam, and sat on the boards of investee companies. After retirement from politics in 2011, she has sat on the boards of directors of several financial institutions while engaging in private equity activity such as Kohlberg Kravis Roberts. Her post-politics career also included her academic posts as Distinguished Visiting Fellow of National University of Singapore at both the Business School and the Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy. The Nominating Committee of Nippon Paint Holdings judges that her experience and expertise are indispensable for establishing the corporate governance structure of the Company to pursue Maximization of Shareholder Value with a long-term perspective after fulfilling its obligations to its stakeholders, and nominates her as a candidate for Director of the Board. Masataka Mitsuhashi	○	○	○	(Concurrent Position) Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Member of Fujifilm Holdings Corporation and Integral Corporation, and an Outside Director of the Board of Skymark Airlines Inc. The Company has a trading relationship with the PwC Japan Group, which includes PwC Advisory LLC and PricewaterhouseCoopers Aarata LLC, where Masataka Mitsuhashi has previously served as a business executive; said trading relationship has included the receipt of support for corporate acquisitions and the construction of an internal audit system. In addition, Mr. Masataka Mitsuhashi worked as an advisor of the Governance Advisory Committee established as an advisory committee for the Board of Directors of the Company until December 31, 2019. However, as the amount of such transactions was less than the amount prescribed in the "Outside Director of the Board Independence Judgment Standards" of the Company, the Company has determined that there is no concern of a conflict of interest arising with general shareholders.	Masataka Mitsuhashi has many years of experience as a certified public accountant at PwC Japan Group, where he was engaged in accounting audit and M&A-related activities. He also has extensive experience in long-term value creation for companies from an ESG perspective as Representative Director of a consulting firm. He assumed the position of Advisor for the Company's Governance Advisory Committee in June 2019 and offered helpful advice to the Company's Board of Directors meeting in relation to the structural reform for the shift to a Company with Three Committees in March 2020. As a Special Committee Member, he provided objective advice from the perspective of protecting the interests of minority shareholders in making the Company's joint venture in the Asian region a wholly owned subsidiary and during the acquisition of the Indonesian business announced in August 2020, and in the share transfer of the European and Indian subsidiaries decided in August 2021. [Audit System]

Whether there are directors or employees to assist in the duties of the Audit Committee Updated	Yes

Matters concerning the independence of directors and employees from Executive Officers Updated

- The Company has established the Audit Department as an organization to assist in the duties of the Audit Committee. The Audit Department shall serve as secretariat of the Audit Committee, and furthermore, based on the instructions of the Audit Committee, investigate, analyze, and report on matters subject to auditing, and support the audit activities of the Audit Committee.
- Furthermore, in order to ensure independence from the Executive Officers of the Audit Department, the Company's Audit Committee rules stipulate that matters related to the personnel rights of the General Manager of the Audit Department, basic policy of the Audit Department, the Audit Committee's authority to consent to audit plan and budget, and the Audit Committee's instructions concerning audits take precedence over those of the Representative Executive Officer & Co-President.

Status of coordination among Audit Committee, the Accounting Auditor, and the Internal Audit Department Updated

- The Audit Committee is working to establish the framework of "Audit on Audit" system that relies on the results of internal audits conducted by each location, while holding the Group Audit Committee, which brings together the heads of the internal audit departments of the Audit Department and domestic and overseas partner companies to share best practices and exchange opinions on internal audits, thereby developing and strengthening the internal audit system for the entire Group and enhancing the internal audit system implemented by each site.

· In addition, the Audit Committee is making efforts to improve the effectiveness of audits through various activities, such as the holding of three-way audit meetings attended by the Accounting Auditor and the General Manager of the Audit Department, regular meetings with Audit & Supervisory Board Members of domestic partner companies, and interviews with local audit firms of overseas subsidiaries, and sharing information and exchanging opinions on issues identified through audits.

Disclosure of policy for determining the amount of remuneration or its calculation method

· With regard to the determination policies for the remuneration of Directors of the Board and Executive Officers, the Compensation Committee has stipulated the following remuneration philosophy and Design Policies for remuneration of Representative Executive Officers and Co-Presidents. The FY2022 remuneration system has been determined after fair and transparent deliberations in accordance with such determined policies.

[Remuneration Philosophy]

Overarching Principle

· In order to implement "Maximization of Shareholder Value" (MSV), to build a remuneration system that is transparent and satisfactory and to continue to provide appropriate motivation, incentives, etc., to key executives by implementing individual treatment based on the system.

Guiding Principles

- To be able to attract and keep management talent that excels at practicing MSV.
- To be able to continuously provide motivation so that maximum potential can be encouraged even under changing environment.
- To function effectively and in harmony with the current state of business development, level of maturity of organizational systems, organizational values, and the community.

In accordance with this remuneration philosophy, the design policies for the remuneration of the Representative Executive Officer and President has been determined to be the below.

[“Design Policies for the remuneration of the Representative Executive Officer and President]

- Compensation that contributes to MSV
- A total amount of remuneration that is commensurate with the performance of the Representative Executive Officer and Co-President
- A remuneration structure that promotes appropriate and decisive risk taking

The "Composition and Calculation Method of Directors' Remuneration, etc." determined in accordance with the above decision-making policy is disclosed in Securities Report.

(3) Executive Officers

As of March 31, 2022, there are 3 Executive Officers, and the Executive Officers make decisions on the execution of business of the Company that they have been delegated by resolution of the Board of Directors, and execute such business (2 males, 1 female).

The company has established a Co-President system with the aim to further accelerate global business growth to pursue Maximization of Shareholder Value on April 28, 2021. Yuichiro Wakatsuki, Representative Executive Officer & Co-President, oversees back-office operations including promotion of M&A, financial policies, and fund procurement. Wee Siew Kim, Representative Executive Officer & Co-President, takes charge of all the operations of the Group.

(4) Execution Structure

Under the Co-Presidents' system, the Company has simplified the rules of delegation of authority, standardized it among domestic partner companies and adopted a system that enables flexible business execution by discussing issues related to management, human resources, risk management, compliance, governance, ESG, and responsible care with the necessary parties to resolve specific issues before final decision-making by the Representative Executive Officer & Co-President.

(5) Corporate Officers

The Company has introduced a Corporate Officer system, and as of March 31, 2022, there are 2 Corporate Officers (1 male, 1 female) engaged in the execution of the specified businesses.

2. The situation of audits is as set forth below.

(1) Situation of Audit Committee audits

- As of March 31, 2022, the Audit Committee is composed of three Audit Committee Members, of which three are Independent Directors of the Board, they include a person holding a CPA qualification, who can perform audits from a specialized perspective, and a person with international experience and abundant international experience as a manager.
- The main items to be considered are the formulation of audit policy and audit plan, confirmation of the execution of duties by Directors and Executive Officers, confirmation of the establishment and operation of internal control systems, evaluation of the effectiveness of the Audit Committee, confirmation of the appropriateness of the methods and results of the audit by the accounting auditors, evaluation of the Accounting Auditors and decision on their reappointment or non-reappointment, and appropriateness of major audit considerations (Key Audit Matters : KAM) and so on. In particular, in FY2021, the Audit Committee focused its deliberations on the ideal form of audits under the Co-President structure, strengthening of the group audit system, strengthening of internal control systems (such as the development of a global whistleblowing system and IT governance and so on), and the risks and other issues related to overseas business operations, and so on.
- Aside from the deliberation of the above agenda, etc., the Audit Committee actively exchanges opinions with other directors and Executive Officers and, when necessary, attends important meetings of the Company with the General Manager of the Audit Department to confirm the status of issues to be addressed by the Company and the execution of duties.
- In addition, regular meetings are held with Representative Executive Officer and Co-President, and views are exchanged with regard to issues that the Company should deal with, the status of the audit environment, important audit issues, etc.
- The Audit Committee has been conducting an effectiveness evaluation since its establishment in FY2020 in order to improve audit quality by reviewing annual audit activities, identifying issues, and reflecting them in the audit plan for the following year. In FY2021, it conducted the effectiveness evaluation of the audit activities and reflects the results in the audit plan for FY2022.

(2) Situation of Internal Audits

- On January 1, 2022, the Audit Department was split between the Company and Nippon Paint Corporate Solutions Co., Ltd. The Audit Department of the Company continues to assist the Audit Committee in its audit activities, and is also responsible for J-SOX assessments and the establishment of a global internal audit system. On the other hand, Audit Department of NPCCS (consisting of the General Manager and 24 other members) specializes in internal audits of subsidiaries in Japan, and conducts thematic and operational audits that contribute to management risk and business improvement, while also incorporating data analysis methods.

- In FY2021, we conducted a risk-based operational audit utilizing data analysis methods to evaluate the effectiveness of the Group's internal control systems, including governance, processes, and risk management. The results were reported to the Audit Committee and Representative Executive Officer and Co-President, and feedback was given to audited companies and departments to share issues and to consult on future policies.

(3) Situation of Accounting Auditors

- Audit duties are performed by 3 companies (all of which are designated limited liability employees and business execution employees): Certified Public Accountant Motohiro Tanaka, Certified Public Accountant Shimpei Takeshita, and Certified Public Accountant Akishige Nanbara, who are affiliated with KPMG AZSA LLC.
- These audit firms have taken measures with regard to their executive employees such that such employees are not involved in the accounting audits of the Company for longer than a certain period.
- The assistants for the audit duties are comprised of 23 certified public accountants and 27 others.

3. Liability limitation agreements are as described below.

- The Articles of Incorporation of the Company contain provisions relating to the agreements prescribed in Article 427 Paragraph 1 of the Companies Act (liability limitation agreements) with Outside Directors of the Board (Article 24 of the Articles of Incorporation).

- An overview of the liability limitation agreements executed by the Company with Outside Directors of the Board based on the Articles of Incorporation is provided below.

(Liability Limitation Agreements with Non-Executive Directors of the Board)

- If a Non-Executive Director of the Board, after the execution of this agreement, has performed their duty in regard to the liability to compensate of Article 423 Paragraph 1 of the Companies Act in good faith and there is no gross negligence, such liability shall be limited to the minimum amount of liability prescribed in Article 425 Paragraph 1 of the Companies Act, and the Company will exempt the Non-Executive Director of the Board from liability for the portion in excess of this as a matter of course.

3. Reasons for adopting the current corporate governance system

The Company, in order to improve the transparency, objectivity, and fairness of management, as well as to separate and strengthen functions of business execution and supervision of management, with the approval of the 195th Annual General Meeting held on March 26, 2020, transitioned to a Company with a Nominating Committee, etc.
