Regarding Some News Reports Today

Today some news media reported that the Securities and Exchange Surveillance Commission conducted a compulsory investigation of IR Japan Holdings, Ltd. (the “Company”).

We sincerely apologize for any concerns and inconvenience caused to our customers and other stakeholders.

It is true that a compulsory investigation was conducted of the Company as some media reported. Because we are currently under further investigation by the Securities and Exchange Surveillance Commission, we will refrain from commenting in detail. However, we understand that a former executive of the Company is under investigation. We will fully cooperate with the investigation.
