Notice Regarding Postponement of the Date of Share Acquisition (Consolidation as a Subsidiary) of PFU Limited

Ricoh Company, Ltd. (“Ricoh”) today announced that it has recognized the planned date of share acquisition of Fujitsu Limited (“Fujitsu”) consolidated subsidiary, PFU Limited (“PFU”) to be changed. As initially announced in the “Notice Regarding the Conclusion of the Share Acquisition (Consolidation as a Subsidiary) of PFU Limited,” dated April 28, 2022, Ricoh is proceeding preparation to acquire 80% of PFU shares to make the company a subsidiary. The details of the change are as outlined below.

1. Reason for Change

Ricoh recognized that the planned date of share acquisition is expected to postpone in consideration of time needed for Review of Business Combination by the Japan Fair Trade Commission (JFTC). There is no change in executing share acquisition according to the agreement.

2. Content of Change

| | Before the change | After the change |
|---------------------------|------------------------|---|
| Date of share acquisition | July 1, 2022 (planned) | Immediately after Ricoh receives JFTC notification of this change not applicable of cease and desist order and acquisition preparation is completed |

3. Future Outlook

The impact towards our business performance for the fiscal year ending March 2023 is minimal. We will promptly announce the new date of share acquisition once agreed upon by Fujitsu and Ricoh.
