II. Business Overview

1. Management policies, management environment, and issues facing the Group

In the following, statements relating to the future are based on the judgment of the Group at the end of the fiscal year under review.

(1) Basic management policies

It is the Group's basic policy to conduct business activities with the aim of fulfilling its social responsibility and constantly striving for the creation of new value for stakeholders (customers, shareholders, clients, company employees and society). To achieve the aim, the Group has set forth a management philosophy "to contribute to creating a better quality of life for everyone by offering only the finest products and services to the market and customers, both at home in Japan and abroad."

(2) Target management indicators

The Group aims to create a foundation for sustainable growth and build a highly capital-efficient management structure that can beat the global competition, by advancing the continuous growth of sales, profit and ROE.

(3) Medium- to long-term management strategy

The Group is now implementing the 11th Medium-term Management Plan, which covers the three-year period from January 2021 to December 2023. The details of the plan are described in the Presentation Materials for the Fiscal Year Ended December 2020, which was released on February 15, 2021.

Said Presentation Materials can be viewed at the following URL.

The Company's website:

<https://www.unicharm.co.jp/english/ir/library/investors/index.html>

(4) Issues facing the Group

The COVID-19 pandemic has had a significant impact on economic activities both in Japan and overseas, and has brought about various changes in the way people behave, and uncertainty toward the future has not yet been resolved. As for overseas operations, the potential for high economic growth is expected to remain high in Asian countries, especially in emerging countries. Yet there is still uncertainty about the outlook for global economic and trade issues, such as those between the US and China, and about the impact of a shift away from easy-money policies in the US and other nations on the world economy, among others. This uncertainty, in addition to the impact of COVID-19, may affect geopolitical risks, economy, finance and fluctuations of exchange rates in some countries and regions where we are rolling out business; this may considerably impact business in these countries and regions, and cause stagnant sales, price fluctuations in imported raw materials and products. Meanwhile in Japan, although there is a strong demand for the wellness care and pet care products, in addition to a sense of uncertainty about the direction of the economy, the rising prices of imported raw materials resulting from exchange rates and the price of crude oil are causing anxiety in the fiercely competitive sales environment. The personal care business is also forecast to see a decline going forward in the target population for baby care and feminine care products.

In the midst of such issues, in accordance with the management philosophy of the Company and its group companies, the Group will strive to consistently create new markets and new value, and speedily promote the expansion of product line-ups in relation to infection prevention and meet customer insights by such means as maximizing demand for Japanese-made goods as well as responding to rapid aging in Asia. As for overseas operations, the Group will enhance its risk management while aggressively developing business areas and establishing a position as a category leader in growth markets; and in Japan, the Group will aim to realize a "Cohesive Society" and also expand total industrial assets by revitalizing the market. In these ways, the Group is striving to improve its business performance.

In order to further promote corporate reform in the future, in all businesses the Company will place greater emphasis on increasing value through continuous product innovation, and thoroughly pursue cost reduction and the efficient use of management resources.

Meanwhile, on the non-financial front, positioning environment (E), society (S), and governance (G) as important foundations for medium- to long-term sustainable improvement of corporate value, the Group will continue to promote policies, among other things, for environmental concerns and strengthening its governance system. Furthermore, to boost corporate management soundness and transparency, the Group will press forward with the improvement of procedures to verify the appropriateness of operation process concerning subsidiaries' internal controls in an effort to strengthen governance.

2. Business and other risks

The Group (hereinafter referred to collectively as the Company in this section) has positioned the prevention of risks and the minimization of their impact and prevention of recurrence as an important management issue by appropriately identifying various risks that may affect the performance and achievement of corporate activities as stated in the Company's basic management policy (please refer to "1. Management policies, management environment, and issues facing the Group (1) Basic management policies"). Based on this, we have established a risk management system for the Company as a whole and are implementing this system, as well as continuously reviewing and improving our business risk management.

The Board of Directors oversees the code of conduct and the code of ethics, and at the same time, deliberates and decides on improvement measures by analyzing and evaluating risks reported by the heads of each department. The Audit and Supervisory Committee Members fulfill their responsibilities by conducting various audits and other activities during their term of office as stipulated by law.

As of the end of the fiscal year under review, the ESG Committee has identified 12 main items that are considered to be potential business risks, and it discusses and takes appropriate action as necessary. In the event that urgent risks that do not fall under these items are identified, the ESG Committee will promptly discuss and take action. Furthermore, in the event that a material business risk arises, the Company will establish the Crisis Management Response Committee in accordance with the Crisis Communication Manual, which was established as rules for crisis management, and strive to take swift and appropriate action and achieve early recovery.

While the following 12 major risks are important business risks that we recognize as having the potential to affect our financial position and business performance as of the date of submission of this Annual Securities Report (March 28, 2022), due to the effectiveness of various countermeasures, none of these risks have materialized to the point of having a significant impact on our business. The degree and timing of the possibility of such risks materializing in the future are yet to be determined. In addition to the major risks listed below, there are other risks that may affect the Company in the future, and these risks are not limited to those listed here.

Risks	Details of risks and impact on the Company	Main measures taken by the Company
Risks regarding the competitive sales environment	Competition in markets for the Company's core products both in Japan and overseas may possibly become even more severe in both price and product line, depending on the economy and market environment. Given the nature of consumer products, the Company's core products are constantly exposed to fierce competition and successive new product releases by competitors. The selling environment depends on changes in customer consumption activity and responses from competitors, in spite of the Company's efforts in marketing or reducing production costs and expenses, etc. In the event that the Company cannot respond suitably to this sales environment, there is a possibility that sales and profits and losses will be negatively affected.	We conduct thorough research on the actual living and consumption conditions in each country and region, develop products that match the culture and living environment, and strive to provide products that are not easily affected by the economy. We are also utilizing these research and market analysis methods to expand the areas, countries and regions in which we operate, and achieve a stable business expansion. In addition to reducing the costs through reduction in the procurement costs and improving production efficiencies, in terms of production, as well as expanding our sales outlets, including online channels, in terms of sales, we are striving to strengthen our sales capabilities and maintain and improve our competitiveness by proposing to retailers ways to sell and buy products from the customer's perspective utilizing digital technology. Furthermore, we are delegating authority to our overseas subsidiaries to create a framework that can respond quickly to changes in customer consumption behavior.

Risks	Details of risks and impact on the Company	Main measures taken by the Company
Risks regarding changes in demographics	Due to Japan’s declining birth-rate which has been continuing for an extended period of time, the percentage of babies and menstruating women in the domestic population has been continuing to decrease. Such decrease is also seen in some overseas countries and regions in which the Company operates. Due to these kinds of demographic changes, there is a possibility that demand will decrease in such countries and regions for baby care related products and feminine care related products, which are the Company’s core business. In addition, the Company believes it necessary to continuously strive to secure and develop indispensable human resources for business execution. On the other hand, following the trend of aging population and a decreasing birthrate in society, it is becoming increasingly difficult to secure human resources. If human resources are not secured or developed as planned, there is a possibility that our business activities will be affected.	Our mission is to contribute to the realization of a “Cohesive Society,” a society in which all people around the world can live together as equals, without inconvenience, respecting each other’s individuality, and supporting each other with kindness, and we aim to conduct corporate activities that are less susceptible to the effects of demographics by developing products and services that contribute to the satisfaction of all people, from babies to the elderly, and their partner animals (pets), by freeing them from the various burdens they face and enabling them to enjoy life in a balanced manner in all countries and regions of the world. In addition, we are striving to maintain and expand demand by diversifying our product lineup and promoting product value even when the target population decreases through product strategies that match the growth stage of the market. As a countermeasure to the decline in the working population, we are promoting the creation of a work environment where diverse human resources, regardless of nationality, gender, age, or disability, can utilize their strengths to play an active role and feel a sense of purpose in work. Specifically, we aim to produce human resources who can set and solve their own problems by providing opportunities for growth through development plans based on individual career visions and career plans, the allocation of the right personnel to the right jobs, and the implementation of quarterly evaluations and training by job level. In addition, to encourage employees to decide for themselves how and why they want to work, we are introducing remote work and eliminating core hours, increasing the number of options for where and when to work, and promoting flexible work styles that increase creativity and productivity. Furthermore, we are actively working to revitalize our senior human resources and promote the activities of women.
Risks regarding overseas business	The Company manufactures products in China, Indonesia, Thailand, India, the Middle East, Brazil, etc. Expanding business overseas brings the possibility that raw material prices and equipment expenses will be considerably affected by changes in exchange rates. Depending on the regulations, economic environment, and situation for both society and politics in these countries and regions, there is a possibility that the markets will change greatly and the Company’s business activity and values of assets held will be affected. In addition, the financial statements of overseas consolidated subsidiaries denominated in the currency of each country or region are translated into Japanese yen in the consolidated financial statements; as such, the financial standing and business performance of the Company will be negatively affected at the time of stronger yen.	In trade transactions, the Company strives to secure stable imports and exports and profits by changing the shipping bases in some cases from the viewpoint of profitability due to the operating status of manufacturing bases and exchange rates. As for foreign exchange fluctuations, we strive to minimize risk by hedging foreign currency transactions, including raw material purchases, and by comprehensively taking into account the receivables and payables we hold. In addition, in order to contribute to the stable return of profits to shareholders and the internal circulation of funds, we have established a system to control the negative impact of the appreciation of the yen on overseas assets by proactively paying dividends from overseas consolidated subsidiaries that hold funds in excess of their planned investments.

Risks regarding raw material price fluctuations	As a manufacturer, the Company directly faces fluctuation risks in the price of raw materials. The Company currently purchases raw materials from numerous outside suppliers on a cross-border basis, and especially procures pulp and certain other raw materials predominantly from overseas sources. These transactions with overseas sources are generally conducted on a U.S. dollar basis. Depending on the extent of the exchange rate fluctuation, there is a risk that the Company's raw materials-related costs could significantly increase. Fluctuations in the market prices of crude materials such as oil, naphtha, and pulp can also have an impact on material prices.	We analyze trends in the prices of major raw materials and forecast future prices, and make adjustments to our purchases and revise our cost forecasts on a regular basis to reflect them in our earnings management. In order to prepare for unforeseen circumstances where imports are interrupted and to control the risk of exchange rate fluctuations in import prices, we constantly develop local and preferential tariff country suppliers and strive to purchase raw materials in a stable manner from a comprehensive perspective. In addition, we are prepared for an increase in raw material costs due to foreign exchange by currency hedges as described in the section on overseas business risks. We are also conducting research to reduce the amount of raw materials used and enhance the functionality of materials.
Environmental risks	Environmental concerns are increasing on a global scale, such as concerns about the depletion of resources, marine pollution caused by ocean plastics, etc., and the destruction of ecosystems, and efforts to protect the environment and reduce environmental impact are being promoted worldwide. For the Company, which manufactures disposable products such as disposable diapers and sanitary products, manufacturing in consideration of the global environment is an important issue that cannot be ignored. Although we strive to comply with environmental laws and regulations in Japan and overseas, inappropriate management of waste and other materials that violate laws, regulations, and rules may result in legal action such as production restrictions or affect our social credibility.	As a recycling model, we have been working on a project to recycle used disposable diapers since 2015, and have succeeded in recycling pulp and SAP (polymer absorbent material) and in a demonstration experiment of disposable diapers and other products using recycled pulp. The Company has also set numerical targets for environmental issues as to the key initiatives of "Safeguarding the well-being of our planet" specified in the "Kyo-sei Life Vision 2030," which is a mid-to-long term ESG goals announced in October 2020, along with those targets in "Eco Plan 2030," and formulated and implemented specific measures to achieve these targets. In addition, we have established the Basic Environmental Policy and Environmental Action Guidelines in the Company's charter of action and had all employees read through them, thereby strengthening our environmental activities and raising the environmental awareness of all employees, which will lead to compliance with environmental laws and regulations.
Risks regarding climate change	With the increasing severity of the effects of climate change, an agreement has been reached under the Paris Agreement to limit the rise in global average temperatures. The 26th session of the Conference of the Parties to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (COP 26), which was held in November 2021, set the 1.5°C target. In addition, the Task Force on Climate-related Financial Disclosure (TCFD) established by the Financial Stability Board (FSB) has made recommendations to encourage companies to disclose climate-related financial information. In Japan, when a company moves to the Prime Market, it must meet certain information disclosure requirements, including disclosure in line with the TCFD recommendations. In the event that mitigation and adaptation measures against climate change, such as curbing the rise in average temperatures, are not taken globally, it is predicted that the price of forest-derived raw materials, which are the main raw materials for the Company's products, will soar and energy prices will fluctuate significantly, and there is a possibility that Asia,	In order to contribute to the 2°C scenario of the Paris Agreement, in June 2018, the Company received certification from the SBT (Science-Based Targets) Initiative for its reduction plan by 2050. We have also expressed our support for the TCFD (Task Force on Climate-related Financial Disclosures) and are reporting in accordance with this framework. Meanwhile, the Representative Director, President & CEO will take the initiative in setting targets and managing progress toward the realization of a "Net Zero CO ₂ Emission Society by 2050," and the Company aims to achieve a 100% ratio of renewable electricity to all electricity used for business development, as set forth in the "Kyo-sei Life Vision 2030," our mid-to-long term ESG goals. In addition, the Company is actively encouraging all related persons in the supply chain to reduce emissions throughout the product life cycle.

	which the Company is focusing on, will be considerably affected. In addition, if the Company's efforts to reduce CO₂ emissions, etc., which will lead to the curbing of temperature rise, and its disclosure of such efforts are insufficient, it may lead to a decline in the Company's social credibility.
Risks regarding product reliability	As a manufacturer and distributor of consumer products, ever since the Company was founded, it has not experienced any substantial compensation claims which would greatly affect the Company's business in terms of product quality and safety. However, in the event that an unforeseen, serious problem occurs regarding quality or safety at the time of product manufacture or sale, there is a possibility that the reliability of the Company's products will decline significantly.	Because many of our products come into direct contact with the skin, we work on improving the quality and safety of our products and strive to properly describe them, in order to convey correct information so that our customers can use them with peace of mind. In addition, we not only comply with relevant laws and regulations but also set our own strict standards to check the quality and safety of our products in all processes from the procurement of raw materials to development, manufacturing, distribution, sales, and disposal of products after use. The Company has set up a framework to promptly investigate the cause of complaints on its products and address the problems, if any, regardless of its impact, to ensure reliability of its products are not affected.
Risks regarding failure to comply with laws and regulations	In the event that the Company or any of its employees violates domestic or overseas anti-monopoly laws, unfair competition prevention laws, tax laws, or other laws and regulations, and, for example, makes improper demand in carrying out a transaction or offers bribe to facilitate administrative procedures and receives punishment, etc. from a competent authority, it may affect business performance and/or social credibility of the Company.	The Company's charter of action describes compliance with the laws and regulations that apply to the actions to be taken in order to realize the pledge to each stakeholder, and raises awareness of compliance such as prevention of misconduct. We also monitor these issues through annual employee awareness surveys. In addition, for the purpose of raising awareness of compliance with laws and regulations and preventing the occurrence of problems, we have incorporated compliance-related themes into the curriculums of training for new employees and employees posted overseas. We also provide compliance workshops for directors and executive offices, along with e-learning compliance-related courses for all employees, in order to ensure thorough compliance with laws and regulations.
Risks regarding intellectual property rights such as patents and trademarks	Regarding the intellectual property rights in the Company's possession, in the event that it receives some sort of infringement by a third party, there is a possibility that it will suffer large damages such as losing expected income. At the same time, there is also the possibility that the Company may be unknowingly infringing upon the intellectual property rights of a third party, which may lead to large compensation claims or limitations imposed on the Company's business.	We take a firm stance against infringement or unfair exercise of rights by third parties, through lawsuits and other means, and we work closely within the Company as well as with the governments of other countries to eliminate infringing or counterfeit products. On the other hand, we have been promoting the protection of and respect for the intellectual property of the Company and other companies through a combination of off-the-job training, on-the-job training, and e-learning in our internal compliance education regarding patents, trademarks, and the Premiums and Representations Act.

Disaster and accident risk	To minimize losses due to interruption of production or marketing following a major earthquake or large-scale natural disaster, fire or accident, the Company lays out a system based on its business continuity plan (BCP) for coordinating manufacturing and distribution bases and for rapid recovery of information systems and administration functions. In the case of the fire at our plant in India in June 2020, the BCP functioned and we were able to minimize the drop in sales due to the fire by quickly establishing a supply system not only from our domestic plant in India but also from plants in other countries. However, unexpectedly severe disasters or accidents could jeopardize continued production, securing of raw materials or a stable supply of products.	A business continuity plan (BCP) consists of (1) basic requirements, (2) securing the safety and confirming the safety of employees and their families, (3) specific measures to continue business, (4) important matters to be addressed along with business continuity, and (5) necessary measures for operation. As part of the drills specified in (5), we continuously conduct evacuation drills assuming emergency situations based on scenarios. In addition, in Japan, the Company has newly constructed the Kyushu Plant as a risk diversification and alternative base, which has been in operation since the fiscal year ended December 31, 2019.
Risks related to business acquisitions, tie-ups, divestitures, integrations, and other measures	The Company continuously aims to maximize corporate value through the effective use of management resources. Based on this goal, there is the possibility that in the course of its corporate activities, the Company will engage in business acquisitions and capital subscriptions, tie-ups with other companies, business divestitures and integrations, and/or rationalizations and spin-offs. However, after execution, there is a risk of losses, etc., caused by falling values of risk assets held such as goodwill due to market changes or policy outcomes falling short of expectations.	When considering acquisitions, alliances, and business integrations, the Board of Directors makes decisions after gathering sufficient information, carefully planning for future recovery, and thoroughly confirming with the relevant departments that the possibility of future impairment of goodwill and other fixed assets to be recorded is small. After implementation, the Company assesses the risk of impairment by determining the signs of impairment in a timely manner, analyzes the causes for business companies underperforming with regards to the plan and, if necessary, revises the business plan to ensure that the planned earnings can be recovered.
Risks related to leakage of confidential information and knowhow	The Company is in possession of a variety of information that includes not only data generated within the Company but personal and other information gained through confidentiality agreements or with the consent of customers and clients. In the event of information leakage that calls into question the Company's legal responsibility with regard to information management, the Company may lose credibility and its business performance may be affected.	We have established the Information Security Policy and Information Management Security Rules, and for the personal information we have obtained, we have established Personal Information Protection Rules and Specific Personal Information Handling Rules to strictly manage and prevent leakage. In order to strictly enforce these rules, we have established the Information Security Committee, which plans cross-company information management and security measures, provides employee education, and conducts ongoing monitoring. On the other hand, as a physical measure to prevent information leakage due to the loss or theft of terminals, we have adopted personal computers that cannot store data, and we are fully equipped with a cloud environment where data and systems can only be used on servers. To prevent external cyber-attacks on public websites, we have taken various security measures in cooperation with outside experts, including appropriate server construction, anti-phishing measures, anti-virus measures, password and ID management, and introduction and monitoring of security devices. In addition, we have prepared for incidents such as information leaks by incorporating them into the company-wide crisis communication manual so that we can quickly identify the actual situation and respond to minimize the impact.

3. Management's analysis of financial position, operating results and cash flows

(1) Overview of operating results, etc.

The Group has adopted IFRS, replacing the previous Japanese accounting standards, in the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017, in order to improve the international comparability of financial information and the quality of business management.

Core operating income comprises gross profit less selling, general and administrative expenses. While this is not an indicator defined in IFRS, the Company voluntarily discloses this as it is believed to be a valuable benchmark for measuring the Group's recurring business performance.

1) Financial position and operating results

Net sales	727,475	782,723	55,248	7.6

The Company's net sales, core operating income, profit before tax, profit for the period, and profit attributable to owners of parent in the fiscal year under review reached ¥782,723 million (up 7.6% year on year), ¥122,482 million (up 6.7% year on year), ¥121,977 million (up 27.3% year on year), ¥83,605 million (up 33.6% year on year), and ¥72,745 million (up 39.0% year on year), respectively.

Operating results by segment are as follows.

(a) Personal Care Business

	Fiscal Year Ended Dec. 31, 2020 (Millions of Yen)	Fiscal Year Ended Dec. 31, 2021 (Millions of Yen)	Difference (Millions of Yen)	Rate of difference (%)
Net sales (Note)	624,758	672,039	47,281	7.6
Core operating income	100,005	107,322	7,317	7.3

● Wellness Care Business

In the overseas markets, as the boost in demand for adult excretion care products was expected in Asian regions including Thailand, Indonesia and Vietnam, as well as China where populations are aging even faster than in Japan, the Company formed a new Overseas Brand Management Department and promoted the spread of the care model established in Japan. As a result, the Company achieved high growth.

In the domestic market, which continues to grow as Japan's population of the elderly increases, an increased attention toward infection prevention caused people to refrain from going out, but the market was back on course for recovery partly because people have become accustomed to the living environment under the COVID-19 pandemic and more people received a vaccination. Amid the circumstances, the Company achieved stable growth from its expanded lineup of products, centered on mild and moderate products that help to extend healthy life-spans.

In addition, in response to consumers' increased attention toward infection prevention following the COVID-19 outbreak, as well as increased needs for products from Japanese manufacturers in terms of safety and security, the Company worked to bolster its supply and sales activities of the Cho-kaiteki and Cho-rittai mask brands, and the Silcot wet tissue brand, striving to expand market share. Net sales of the Silcot wet tissue brand were sluggish due to a pullback from the special demand related to COVID-19 last year, but have grown compared to pre-COVID-19 levels.

During this time when masks have become indispensable as an infection preventive measure, we released new see-through face masks, clear face mask, that allow a user's mouth and facial expressions to be seen, while preventing droplet infection. This product was designed for those who feel uneasy about communication as typical masks hinder their ability to read lips and see facial expressions. Through this release, the Company worked to create a "Cohesive Society" with social inclusion, as a society where all people are equal and can live without inconvenience.

In response to an expected increase in hygiene consciousness and infection prevention awareness in the future, not only in Japan but also worldwide, the Company will strive to further grow with a view to strengthening its overseas mask sales.

- Feminine Care Business

In China, the Company was temporarily affected by the spread of COVID-19, including a plant suspension. Despite such circumstances, the Company's high-quality products featuring charming designs remain highly popular with the younger generation. The Company continued to achieve high growth especially in shorts-shaped sanitary napkins and sanitary napkins using organic cotton as a result of continuously proposing new values. In addition, the Company took the initiative in expanding the sales areas and the number of stores handling its products, bolstering sales through utilizing new e-commerce platforms, and other activities. The Company also achieved stable growth in other Asian regions due to the steady sales of cooling sanitary napkins that give a feeling of freshness, etc. Moreover, in the Middle East, the Company achieved high growth as a result of steady exports from Saudi Arabia to neighboring Middle Eastern countries, as well as domestic sales in Saudi Arabia.

In Japan, as the market shrinks due to a decrease in the target population and fewer opportunities for going out, etc., the Company made continuous efforts to revitalize the domestic market by offering high value-added products and the like to cater to different lifestyles while calls for health and peace of mind grew. As a result, the Company realized stable growth.

- Baby Care Business

In Thailand and Indonesia, whose market polarization has been advancing since last year due to the impact of the spread of COVID-19, the Company achieved stable growth as a result of responding to a wide range of customers' needs by utilizing synergies with DSG (Cayman) Limited, a subsidiary the Company acquired in 2018. In India, the use of disposable diapers is still low even among emerging countries. In response to a supply shortage caused by a fire in a factory located in Western India last year, the Company imported disposable diapers from neighboring countries and increased production at its existing factories, striving to recover its sales area and market share while promoting pants-type disposable diapers. The Company has also responded to diversified needs of consumers in China, where the number of children and the demand for made-in-Japan products decline, through the efforts to strengthen sales of the high value-added moony series made in China, mainly through e-commerce channels and baby specialty stores. In the Middle East, the Company achieved stable growth by launching new products containing olive oil that cater to local cultures and customs.

In Japan, as the market shrinks with lower birth rate, the Company has strived to improve its brand value and worked to give parents more enjoyment as they raise their babies by way of its expanded lineup of products including high value-added products such as moony and Natural moony brands. However, net sales growth was sluggish due to the impact of decreasing sales in cross-border e-commerce with China, owing to the declining demand for made-in-Japan products.

As a result, net sales and segment profit (core operating income) for the personal care business for the fiscal year under review were ¥672,039 million (up 7.6% year on year) and ¥107,322 million (up 7.3% year on year), respectively.

(b) Pet Care Business

	Fiscal Year Ended Dec. 31, 2020 (Millions of Yen)	Fiscal Year Ended Dec. 31, 2021 (Millions of Yen)	Difference (Millions of Yen)	Rate of difference (%)
Net sales (Note)	95,693	104,541	8,848	9.2
Core operating income	14,174	14,619	445	3.1

Note: Net sales represent those to external customers.

In Japan, the spread of COVID-19 since last year increased the number of hours people spent at home, which in turn has increased the number of pets kept as well as opportunities for contact with pets. Amid such circumstances, in the pet food business, the Company bolstered the sale of products for dogs tailored to the physical characteristics and ages of each breed, food products for building bodies with a new concept of maintaining muscle health, and other products. The Company also worked to improve consumer satisfaction by providing products for cats meeting the demand for increased health consciousness and the like. Also, in the pet toiletry business, the Company achieved stable growth as a result of steady sales of pet sheets for dogs, toilet systems for cats, etc.

In the North American market, with the spread of COVID-19 leading to an increase in the number of pets living with humans and an increase of opportunities for consumers to have contact with pets, sales have remained steady in sheets for dogs equipped with Japanese technology, wet-type snacks for cats, a new concept that is new to the market, etc. The Company achieved high growth though there was some impact of a shortage of containers for maritime transportation mainly in the North American region.

As a result, net sales and segment profit (core operating income) for the pet care business for the fiscal year under review were ¥104,541 million (up 9.2% year on year) and ¥14,619 million (up 3.1% year on year), respectively.

(c) Other Businesses

	Fiscal Year Ended Dec. 31, 2020 (Millions of Yen)	Fiscal Year Ended Dec. 31, 2021 (Millions of Yen)	Difference (Millions of Yen)	Rate of difference (%)
Net sales (Note)	7,024	6,143	(882)	(12.5)
Core operating income	565	542	(23)	(4.1)

Note: Net sales represent those to external customers.

In the category of business-use products utilizing its core non-woven fabric and absorber processing and forming technology, the Company focused on promoting the sales of industrial materials.

As a result, net sales and segment profit (core operating income) in other businesses for the fiscal year under review were ¥6,143 million (down 12.5% year on year) and ¥542 million (down 4.1% year on year), respectively.

The overview of the financial position for the fiscal year under review is as follows.

	As of December 31, 2020 (Millions of Yen)	As of December 31, 2021 (Millions of Yen)	Difference (Millions of Yen)
Total assets	893,413	987,655	94,242
Total liabilities	330,760	352,217	21,457
Total equity	562,653	635,438	72,785
Ratio of equity attributable to owners of parent (%)	55.2	56.5	—

Total assets as of the end of the fiscal year under review amounted to ¥987,655 million, up ¥94,242 million over the end of the previous fiscal year. The major increases were ¥50,581 million in other current and non-current financial assets mainly due to investment securities, ¥28,194 million in inventories, and ¥16,669 million in trade and other receivables. Total liabilities were ¥352,217 million, up ¥21,457 million over the end of the previous fiscal year. The major increases were ¥21,925 million in trade and other payables and ¥5,137 million in borrowings, and the major decrease was ¥4,326 million in other current and non-current financial liabilities mainly due to lease liabilities. Total equity amounted to ¥635,438 million, up ¥72,785 million over the end of the previous fiscal year. The major increases were ¥72,745 million in profit attributable to owners of parent and ¥24,431 million in other components of equity mainly due to exchange differences on translation in foreign operations, and the major decrease was ¥20,308 million in dividends paid to owners of parent.

Consequently, the ratio of equity attributable to owners of parent increased from 55.2% as of the end of the previous fiscal year to 56.5% as of the end of the fiscal year under review.

2) Cash flows

(2) Analysis and assessment of operating results, etc. from a management's perspective

Recognition, analysis and assessment of the Group's operating results, etc. from a management's perspective are as follows.

In the following, statements relating to the future are based on the judgment at the end of the fiscal year under review.

1) Recognition, analysis and assessment of operating results, etc.

(a) Analysis of operating results

In the fiscal year under review, the operating environment of the Group remained tough partly due to supply chain disruptions and soaring resource prices under the impact of the spread of the novel coronavirus disease ("COVID-19"). In the overseas markets, each key target country such as Thailand, India, and Indonesia shows signs of recovery from economic deterioration caused by the COVID-19. Meanwhile, China continues to show uncertain economic conditions due to the COVID-19 resurgence. Against this backdrop, the Company took measures to maintain a stable supply of its products, as they are daily necessities, and met the demand.

In the domestic market, personal spending shows signs of recovery while the spread of COVID-19 slows, but there are growing concerns over the future due to the appearance of new variants. Amid such circumstances, the Company has been striving to expand its market share by continuously proposing new value to stimulate demand for high value-added products.

In these environments and under the banner "we constantly provide the world's No. 1 and unprecedented products and services to everybody around the globe, and deliver comfort, impression, and satisfaction," the Company and its group companies continued to develop unique non-woven fabric processing and forming technology, and products that meet the needs of consumers while working to create a "Cohesive Society" with social inclusion, as a society where people around the world are equal, unencumbered, respectful of each other's individuality, and support each other with kindness, making heart-to-heart connections.

As a result, the Company's net sales, core operating income, profit before tax, profit for the period, and profit attributable to owners of parent in the fiscal year under review reached ¥782,723 million (up 7.6% year on year), ¥122,482 million (up 6.7% year on year), ¥121,977 million (up 27.3 year on year), ¥83,605 million (up 33.6% year on year), and ¥72,745 million (up 39.0% year on year), respectively.

(b) Risks materially affecting operating results

See "2. Business and other risks."

(c) Analysis and assessment of the status of cash flows and information related to sources of capital and liquidity of funds

In the fiscal year under review, the Company's main source of funds was operating cash flow (inflow of ¥105,253 million in the fiscal year under review), except for external borrowing by some overseas consolidated subsidiaries to reduce foreign exchange risks. In addition, the Company strives to ensure sufficient liquidity of funds so that it can use its own funds as much as possible to meet the demand for funds for business activities, investments, and the return of profits to shareholders including purchase of treasury shares.

Please refer to “(1) Overview of operating results, etc. 2) Cash flows” for the cash flow analysis for the fiscal year under review.

Own funds will be appropriated for the funds for capital investment for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2022.

(d) Objective indicators, etc. to determine the achievement of management policies, strategies and targets

The status of key indicators targeted by the 11th Medium-term Management Plan, which was launched in the fiscal year under review, is as follows.

The fiscal year ended December 31, 2021, which was the first year of the Medium-term Management Plan, saw the impact of rising distribution cost and raw material prices. Nevertheless, the shift toward a more profitable product range and the effects of increased quantities owing to revenue growth overseas helped our core operating income margin to reach the target set in the Medium-term Management Plan. ROE dramatically improved compared to the previous fiscal year owing to decreases in other expenses and financial costs as well as an increase in core operating income. The fiscal year ending December 31, 2022 is expected to see further rises in raw material prices and changes in the market environment. The Company will strive to develop new products and to create markets that meet consumer needs in order to achieve sustainable high growth. We also intend to invest further management resources in wellness care and pet care, which are high profit and high growth markets, and will work to reform our business structure in order to achieve the goals set in the Medium-term Management Plan.

	Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2020	Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2021	Target under the 11th Medium-term Management Plan (Fiscal Year Ending December 31, 2023)
Net sales	¥727,475 million	¥782,723 million	¥888,000 million
Net sales growth rate	1.9% (YoY)	7.6% (YoY)	(Note) 6.9% Compound annual growth rate (CAGR)
Core operating income margin	15.8%	15.6%	15.5%
Return on equity attributable to owners of parent (ROE)	10.8%	13.8%	15.0%

Note: The target figure for the net sales compound annual growth rate (CAGR) in the 11th Medium-term Management Plan is set excluding impacts from foreign exchange rate fluctuations.

(e) Current state of and prospects for management strategy

Regarding the operating environment of the Group, the outlook remains uncertain due to factors such as geopolitical risk (e.g., the situation in Ukraine), trends in emerging economies, and volatility in financial markets. Under these conditions, the Company expects growth driven by domestic demand to recover in the Asian countries and regions where it operates its business if the effects of COVID-19 begin to subside. In Japan, the economy is also expected to turn to a recovery trend as consumption and private investment will be supported by the effects of the government’s continued financial support policies.

In overseas, within this environment, we intend to grow with a speed exceeding that of the market and strive for revitalization through offering products that meet individual needs in the target countries and regions and aggressive sales activities. In Japan, we continue to offer high value-added products reflecting consumer needs and lead the revitalization of the domestic market in the personal care business.

(f) Recognition, analysis and assessment of the financial position and operating results by segment

Please refer to “3. Management’s analysis of financial position, operating results and cash flows (1) Overview of operating results, etc.”

2) Significant accounting estimates and assumptions used in making such estimates

The Group’s consolidated financial statements are prepared in accordance with IFRS.

Significant accounting policies and estimates are presented in “V. Financial Information, 1. Consolidated financial statements, (1) Consolidated financial statements, Notes to the consolidated financial statements.”

4. Important business contracts

Not applicable.

5. Research and development activities

Based on the corporate philosophy of “Maintain our No. 1 position through continued and dedicated service” and focus on continued creation of new values from technology innovation, the research and development activities of the Group are centered on the Kagawa Technical Centre and Engineering Centre in Kanonji-shi, Kagawa. The Company is committed to fostering category-leading products and improving efficiency by shortening the time required from product development to market introduction, through steady development and improvement of expertise in non-woven fabric and super-absorbent polymer technologies as well as paper and pulp.

During the fiscal year under review, overall research and development expenses totaled ¥8,184 million (1.0% of consolidated net sales). Principal achievements were as follows.

(1) Personal Care

● Wellness Care Business

In the pad type category, the Company launched a new product from Lifree, our adult excretion care brand, Lifree Peace of Mind With My Normal Underwear - 100 cc/200cc Pads. This pad-shaped new product is about twice as absorbent as a comparable product^{*1}, offering as much peace of mind as disposable pants. Lifree is a brand for incontinence care for frail^{*2} older people. We believe that offering a product designed to fit regular undergarment for incontinence care helps older people feel energized each day to overcome frailty, and thus we have worked to create a product that will improve customer satisfaction.

In the light incontinence category, Charm Nap Absorbent Sarafi, a leading brand of light incontinence care products for women, launched a new product, Charm Nap Absorbent Sarafi (30 cc/50 cc), which uses an antibacterial sheet that contains natural catechin and has an extra deodorant function.

Overseas, in Thailand, the Company launched Lifree Ultra Slim Pants (M/L/XL), Lifree Light Ptants (M/L/XL), and Lifree Rehabili Pants (M/L/XL). These new products are designed to absorb perspiration around the waist to offer improved comfort. In China, the Company launched a new night-use pad Lifree Nighttime Pad for Adults in the pad type category. In Indonesia, the Company launched new pads for paper pants, Lifree Pad Penghemat Pants for pants-type disposable diapers and Lifree Pad Penghemat Popok for tape-type disposable diapers. We have been working to revitalize the market by developing products that meet local needs and expanding product lineups in each country and region where we have a presence, mainly through our development bases in each country.

*2 A “frail” older person is in the stage between the state where he or she is in good health and the state where he or she needs nursing care.

In the face mask category, the Company launched a new product, clear face mask, which allows a user’s mouth and facial expressions to be seen while preventing droplet infection. In addition, from the Cho-kaiteki Mask[®] series, which enjoys an established reputation of feeling soft on the ears and comfortable to wear for long hours, the Company launched new products: Cho-kaiteki Mask[®] Pleated Type Slightly Large; Cho-kaiteki[®] Mask Feeling 2°C Cooler^{*1} (limited to certain companies), which is designed in such a way that the surface temperature of the mask drops as xylitol contained in the non-woven fabric reacts to exhaled air particularly when the skin under the mask is sweaty in hot weather; and Cho-kaiteki[®] Mask Feeling Gentle on Sensitive Skin^{*2} (limited to certain companies), which has microfibers in the non-woven fabric so that the mask feels gentle on the skin throughout long hours of use. We have been striving to improve customer satisfaction and expand the face mask market by enhancing the lineup of the Cho-kaiteki[®] Mask brand, which boasts No. 1 in annual sales and sales volume for 2020^{*3}.

Under the Silcot brand, in China, the Company launched a new product, Silcot Cleansing Sheet, makeup remover wipes containing roxburgh rose fruit (i.e., plant-based) essence that moisturizes the skin while makeup is removed and the skin is cleansed.

- Feminine Care Business

Sofy, the Company's feminine sanitary product brand, now has a new brand message: "can change the seven days." The brand launched Sofy® Soft Cup, its first menstrual cup available from the online shop and some physical stores. This new product was created so that women can choose feminine sanitary care that suits their own constitutions and lifestyles to feel comfortable throughout their periods. In the liner category, as new products in the Sofy® Hada Omoi Liner series, the Company launched Natural Kiwami Cotton Pantyliner with doubled air permeability and less irritation and Natural Kiwami Cotton Pantyliner for less friction against delicate skin, which are designed to be chosen according to the trouble women want to lessen. We also launched a new product, Sofy® Pantyliner Organic Cotton: Savon fragrance, which is made of carefully selected materials, including the surface sheet and fragrance, so that even women with sensitive skin can use pantyliners with fragrance.

Overseas, the Company launched Sofy Charcoal Fresh Slim (23 cm) and Sofy Charcoal Fresh Ultra Slim 0.1 (23 cm/29 cm) in Thailand. These new products contain charcoal sheets to deodorize menstrual blood. In Indonesia, the Company launched a new product, charm herbal ansept+ (23 cm with/without wings; 26 cm with wings), which is designed to reduce an odor caused by menstruation with the antibacterial effects of five herbal ingredients. In Vietnam, the Company launched a new product, Sensi Cool Fresh (23cm with wings, daytime use), for which the level of coolness felt is adjusted, in order to expand its product lineup. In India, the Company launched a new product in the liner category, Sofy Cool Freshness Panty Liner (155 mm), which has a cooling fragrance that gives a sense of freshness.

The Company also took measures to improve quality and functionality to revitalize the feminine sanitary product market in each country and region.

- Baby Care Business

The spread of COVID-19 prompted people to reconsider their lifestyles and ways of working and actively purchase products and services designed to prevent infections. Under these circumstances, the moony series has adopted the Company's first antibacterial packaging as part of its efforts to offer safe and reliable products for everyone looking after children.

From the Mamy Poko series, we launched improved version of Mamy Poko (M/L/XL) which is a line of widely popular products with an illustration of Doraemon printed on them, by making the waist and leg areas softer.

Overseas, in Thailand, the Company launched a new product, Mamy Poko Pants Premium Extra Dry (S/M/L/XL/XXL), which is designed to absorb perspiration around the waist. The new product has a sweat absorbent sheet around the waist where a baby perspires most when in a disposable diaper. The sheet releases sweat out of the pants so that the temperature inside the diaper drops by up to 2°C*¹, keeping the skin dry. In Saudi Arabia, the Company launched new disposable diaper products, BabyJoy Olive (Newborn/S/M/L/XL/XXL) (tape type) and BabyJoy Culottes Olive (M/L/XL/XXL) (pants type), that contain olive oil in the surface sheet of the inside of each diaper. We are the first company in Saudi Arabia to launch such disposable diaper products*². We made improvements in quality and functionality in line with the characteristics of the region where Arab culture, which believes that olive oil is gentle on the skin, is rooted. In addition to this, we have worked to improve customer satisfaction by developing products that meet local needs in each country and region where we have a presence, mainly through our development bases in each country.

- Research achievements

In collaboration with Kagawa University and Kagawa Prefectural University of Health Sciences, we examined the effects of "Warm sensation technologies"*¹ developed for women who suffer menstrual pain, on menstrual pain and psychological burdens that women undergo*². At the 49th Academic Conference of the Japanese Society of Psychosomatic Obstetrics and Gynecology, we presented the verified finding that the technologies reduced menstrual pain suffered by 74 percent of the surveyed women.

In addition, at the 32nd Japanese Society for Musculoskeletal Medicine, we presented the verified finding that Lifree Walking Assist Underwear, which is designed to support an older person's body trunk for ease of walking, reduced the number of times wearers tripped by almost half, compared to disposable diapers they usually wore. We worked to extend senior citizens' healthy life-spans through our products equipped with high value-added functions.

*1 "Warm sensation technologies" refers to a front pad that covers the lower abdomen, a body-warming agent, and a scent of felon herb, used for a standard sanitary napkin.

*2 The proportion of women who did not take any pain reliever and replied that the Warm sensation technologies applied to the napkins they used "significantly alleviated menstrual pain" and "alleviated menstrual pain."

As a result of the above, research and development expenses in the personal care business for the fiscal year under review totaled ¥6,675 million.

(2) Pet Care

As for research and development activities in the pet-care business, based on a business philosophy of “Supporting pets’ healthy and happy days for life,” the Company develops pet food products at the Itami Plant of the Company in Hyogo, while pet toiletry products are developed in Kanonji-shi in Kagawa.

Development in pet food focused on the realization of products that feature the nutritional balance needed to meet the particular needs of individual pets, depending on age and physique, ensuring a long and healthy life and that the food is tasty making the pets happy.

In the dog food, the Grand Deli brand of dog food, which focuses on high-quality ingredients with a well-balanced colors and a balance of flavor, taste and nutrition, we newly launched the Grand Deli Precious series, a series made of grains baked in far-infrared rays and freeze-dried ingredients packaged in an aluminum-metallized film package with deoxidizing agent to give a delicious taste dogs will always enjoy. From the Grand Deli Treat of the Day, Delicious, calorie-regulated series and the Grand Deli Tori Purun, Delicious and calorie-regulated series, we launched new tasty treats that are made with 100% domestic chicken and formulated to be about 1 kcal per kibble and 2 kcal per stick, respectively, as part of efforts to expand the market for gourmet dog food.

In the cat food category, we launched For cat obesity concerns from the All Well brand that is free of colorants and flavors and supports health with seven functions centered on the reduction of food regurgitation in an effort to enhance the lineup. From the Silver Spoon Three-Star Gourmet Snacks Rich Grain series, we launched new products, Nyan Spoon, a spoon-type wet-type treat that is hard to spill and easy for cats to eat, and Fish-flavored cookie sandwich, a treat with layers of fish flavor in a cookie sandwich form.

In the dog and cat food category, we launched the Physicalife series in pursuit of foods that help dogs and cats achieve free physical movements and abundant lives, thereby supporting pets’ health and happy days.

In the field of pet toiletry products, we launched Deo-Toilet Coniferous deodorizing and antibacterial chips that does not scatter as part of the replacement litter series for the Deo-Toilet, a popular toilet system for cats. This new product uses only wood chips to deodorize a urine odor unique to cats. As for the pet sheet products, dog owners who let their pets urinate on the same sheet several times have a growing need for scented sheet with a deodorizing feature on which dogs’ feet remain dry after urinating. To meet this need, we launched a new product, Deo Sheet Reliable super-absorption, Scented deodorizer type, white floral & green grass fragrance (Regular/Wide). The super absorbent polymer traps a urine odor in an instant and retains it for hours, so that the scent containing natural plant ingredients designed based on an analysis of dog urine continuously deodorizes the urine-soaked sheet. We have been working on proposing products that offer long-lasting deodorizing effects so that people live comfortably indoors with their pets, which are members of the family.

As a result of the above, research and development expenses in pet care business for the fiscal year under review totaled ¥1,506 million.

(3) Other

The Company expanded product lines for business-use featuring non-woven fabric and absorbent material technologies.

As a result of the above, research and development expenses in other businesses for the fiscal year under review totaled ¥3 million.

Conditions for the exercise of the share acquisition rights*	(1) Any person who has been allotted the share acquisition rights may not exercise such rights unless the closing price of the Company's common shares at the Tokyo Stock Exchange is ¥4,030 per share ("condition price") or over on at least one occasion during the period from the allotment date through February 28, 2021. In cases where the exercise price is adjusted, the condition price shall be also adjusted in a uniform manner. (Note 3) (2) Any person who has been allotted the share acquisition rights must be, even at the time of exercise of such rights, a Director who is not an Audit and Supervisory Committee Member or an employee of the Company or a Director or an employee of the Company's subsidiary, except in cases where he or she has resigned from the position as Director who is not an Audit and Supervisory Committee Member of the Company or Director of the Company's subsidiary due to expiration of term of office or retired as employee of the Company or its subsidiary due to reaching the mandatory retirement age. (3) Notwithstanding (2) above, in the event that any person who has been allotted the share acquisition rights passed away, his/her successor may exercise the rights.
Matters relating to transfer of share acquisition rights*	Any and all transfers of share acquisition rights must be approved by the Board of Directors of the Company.
Matters relating to the issuance of share acquisition rights as a result of organizational restructuring action*	—

* Presented are the details as of the last day of the fiscal year under review (December 31, 2021). Changes during the period from the last day of the fiscal year under review to the end of the month prior to the filing date of this Annual Securities Report (February 28, 2022) are stated in the parentheses with the details as of the end of the month prior to the filing date, and other matters have not changed since the last day of the fiscal year under review.

Notes: 1. Number of shares to be issued per share acquisition right is 100.

2. In the case that the Company conducts a share split or a reverse stock split after the allotment date, the exercise price shall be adjusted by applying the following formula with the resulting fractions of less than ¥1 to be rounded up.

$$\text{Adjusted exercise price} = \text{Exercise price before adjustment} \times \frac{1}{\text{Ratio of stock split / reverse stock split}}$$

If the Company issues shares or disposes of its treasury shares at prices less than the then-current market price (excluding cases of the exercise of share acquisition rights) after the allotment date, the exercise price shall be adjusted by applying the following formula with the resulting fractions of less than ¥1 to be rounded up.

$$\frac{\text{Paid-in amount after adjustment} = \text{Paid-in amount before adjustment} \times \frac{\text{Number of shares already issued} + \frac{\text{Number of shares to be issued} \times \text{Paid-in amount per share}}{\text{Market price per share}}}{\text{Number of shares already issued} + \text{Number of shares to be increased due to issuance}}}{}$$

“Number of shares already issued” in the above formula is the figure after deduction of treasury shares from the total number of shares issued. In case of disposal of treasury shares, “Number of shares to be issued” is considered to be replaced by “Number of treasury shares to be disposed of.”

In addition to the above, in any event adjustment to the exercise price is indispensable, including a merger or company split the Company carries out after the allotment date, the Company may adjust the exercise price within a reasonable range.

3. On March 30, 2020, the closing price of one share of the Company’s common shares in regular trading on the Tokyo Stock Exchange was higher than the condition price, and the relevant exercise conditions were met and the rights were exercised.

3. Dividend policy

The Company recognizes that one of its most important management policies is to return profits to shareholders, and it is striving to increase corporate value by generating cash flows to achieve this goal. In addition, by expanding the scale of our business and improving profitability through aggressive capital investments, and investment in research and development for sustainable growth, we have set the goal of achieving 15% ROE (return on equity attributable to owners of parent) in our 11th Medium-term Management Plan, which covers the three-year period ending in 2023. We will increase dividends in a stable and continuous manner using ongoing gains in free cash flow, and work to augment profit return with the goal of a total payout ratio (by dividends and share repurchase) of 50%.

Based on Article 459, Paragraph 1, Item 4 of the Companies Act, the details of distribution of surplus, etc., are decided by resolution of the Board of Directors, as provided in the Articles of Incorporation, and the Board of Directors handles decision-making regarding dividend payments. The basic policy of the Company is to pay dividends from surplus twice annually, at the end of the second quarter and the end of the fiscal year.

The annual dividend for the fiscal year under review was ¥36, comprising a year-end dividend of ¥18 per share, in addition to an ¥18 per share dividend for the end of the second quarter. This is the 20th consecutive period of an increase in dividends, with a dividend on equity attributable to owners of parent (DOE) being 4.1%.

Note: Dividends from surplus based on a resolution approved by the Board of Directors for which the record date belongs to the fiscal year ended December 31, 2021 are as follows:

Date of resolution	Total dividend amount (Millions of Yen)	Dividend per share (Yen)
August 4, 2021	10,723	18.0
February 24, 2022	10,731	18.0

4. Corporate governance

(1) Overview of corporate governance

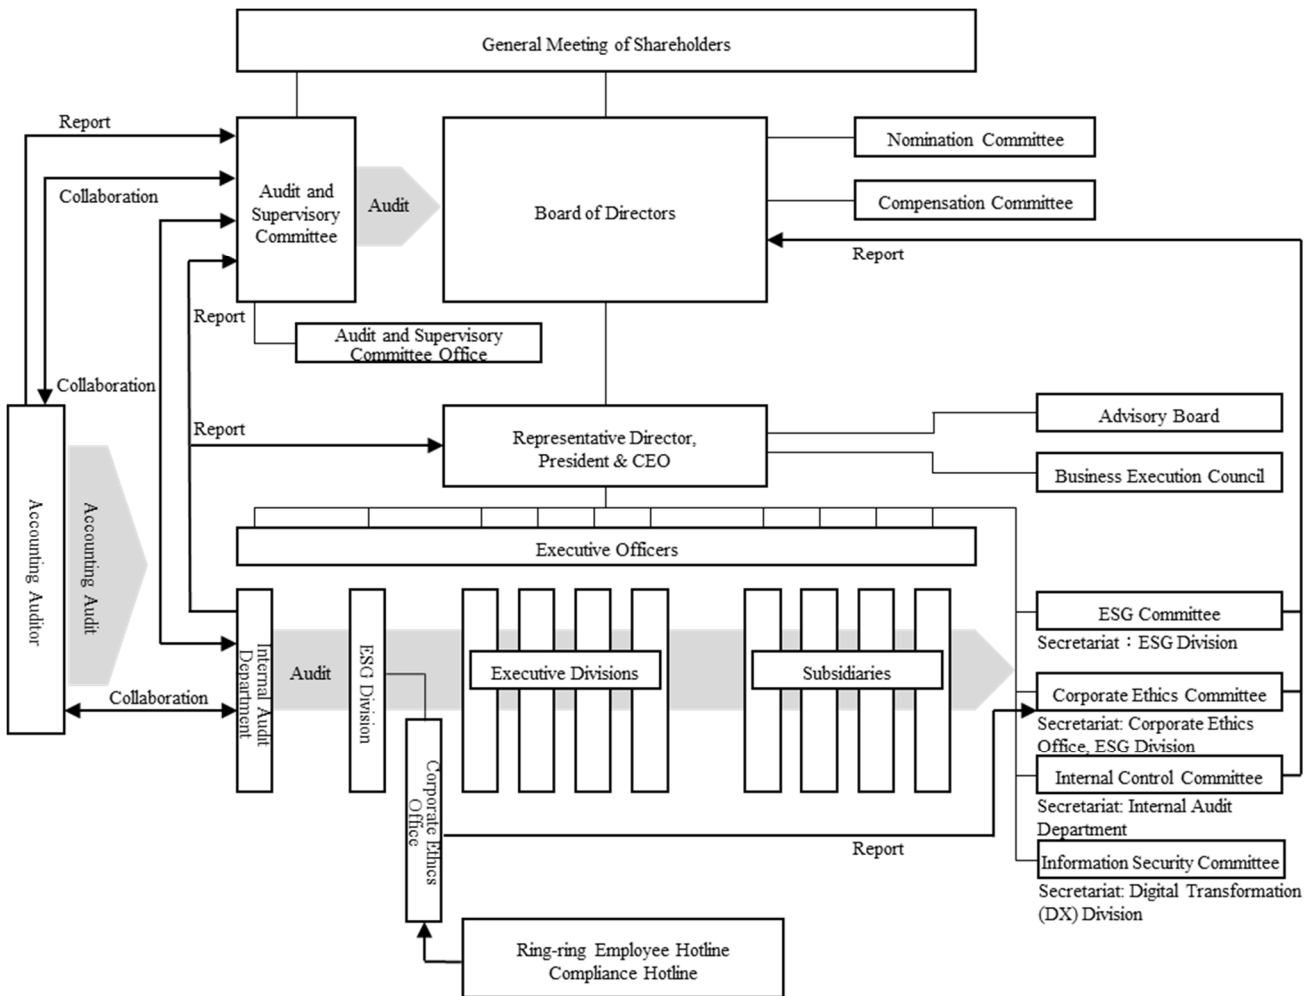

1) Basic corporate governance policy

The Group strives to achieve “sound corporate management” through its commitment to Unicharm Ideals. We aim to achieve sustainable growth and create medium and long-term corporate value through appropriate collaboration with stakeholders and secure the esteem and trust of society.

In order to realize these objectives, we have established a basic policy of corporate governance that achieves transparent, fair, expeditious and decisive management by conducting honest and active dialogue to obtain support from various stakeholders and work to improve ESG and a corporate environment where management can make appropriate decisions at the right time.

2) Overview of corporate governance system and reasons for adopting thereof

As a company with audit and supervisory committee, the Company has established the Board of Directors and the Audit and Supervisory Committee. In addition, the Company has voluntarily established the Nomination Committee and the Compensation Committee. Indicated below is a diagram of the corporate governance system of the Company.

Board of Directors

The Board of Directors of the Company comprises one Representative Director, three non-executive Directors who are not Outside Directors, and two Outside Directors. The Board of Directors has the authority on such matters as decisions on the basic management policies, establishment of internal control systems and other major decision-making in business execution and establishes an environment where management can make appropriate decisions at the right time by playing the functions such as decisions on the medium- to long-term direction and the supervision on execution.

Members	Representative Director	Takahisa Takahara	(Chairperson)
	Director	Shinji Mori
	Director	Toshifumi Hikosaka
	Outside Director	Hiroko Wada
	Outside Director	Hiroaki Sugita
Director	Shigeru Asada

Audit and Supervisory Committee

The Audit and Supervisory Committee of the Company comprises one non-executive Director who is not Outside Director and two Outside Directors. The one non-executive Director is a full-time Audit and Supervisory Committee Member. The reason for the appointment of a full-time Audit and Supervisory Committee Member is that the effectiveness of audits carried out by the Audit and Supervisory Committee will be enhanced based on information obtained through having someone well-versed in internal matters participate in major meetings, etc. other than the Board of Directors meetings, and closely cooperate with the internal auditing department, etc.

Members	Outside Director	Hiroko Wada	(Chairperson)
	Outside Director	Hiroaki Sugita
	Director	Shigeru Asada

Nomination Committee

The Company has voluntarily established the Nomination Committee for the purpose of ensuring transparency and objectivity of the nominations of Director candidates and the appointments of Executive Officers. The Nomination Committee has the authority to deliberate on (1) proposals concerning appointment and dismissal of Directors to be submitted to General Meetings of Shareholders, (2) appointment and dismissal of Representative Directors, and (3) proposals concerning appointment and dismissal of Executive Officers and appointment and dismissal of Senior Executive Officers.

Members	Representative Director	Takahisa Takahara	(Chairperson)
	Outside Director	Hiroko Wada
	Outside Director	Hiroaki Sugita
	Director	Shigeru Asada

Compensation Committee

The Company has voluntarily established the Compensation Committee for the purpose of ensuring transparency and objectivity of remuneration of Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) and Executive Officers. The Compensation Committee has the authority to deliberate on (1) proposals concerning remuneration, etc. of Directors to be submitted to General Meetings of Shareholders, (2) policies concerning decisions on remuneration, etc. for individual Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) and Executive Officers, and (3) evaluation indicators and evaluation results concerning decisions on remuneration, etc. for individual Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) and Executive Officers.

Members	Representative Director	Takahisa Takahara	(Chairperson)
	Outside Director	Hiroko Wada
	Outside Director	Hiroaki Sugita
	Director	Shigeru Asada

<Reasons for adopting the system>

In May 2015, the Company adopted a “company with audit and supervisory committee” structure to meet expectations of stakeholders worldwide from a global perspective by strengthening oversight of the executive functions of the Board of Directors and increasing transparency and efficiency of processes through involvement of Outside Directors in management.

Independent Audit and Supervisory Committee Members have voting rights at meetings of the Board of Directors, and the Audit and Supervisory Committee performs audits by proactively utilizing the internal control system. This will enable the Company not only to comply with the laws and regulations, but also to strengthen audit and supervisory functions of management monitored by the Outside Directors with aims to maintain appropriate collaborative relationships with stakeholders, and to foster organizational culture and climate that respects healthy and ethical business practices.

In addition, the Company voluntarily established the Nomination Committee and the Compensation Committee in December 2015 to ensure transparency and objectivity in the nomination of candidates for Directors and Executive Officers and in the determination of their compensation.

II Overview, etc. of a liability insurance contract for directors and officers, etc.

The Company has entered into a liability insurance contract for directors and officers, etc. that insures Directors, Audit and Supervisory Committee Members (Audit & Supervisory Board Members), and Executive Officers of the Company and the Group, as well as employees who are employed by the Group and assigned to businesses other than the subsidiaries as officers. The Company pays all insurance premiums. The insurance contract covers damages (e.g., compensation for damage, legal costs) claimed against an insured that have arisen from the execution of duties by the insured (including omission). However, it contains certain exclusions, such as that the coverage excludes the events of the insured receiving private profits or benefits illegally, or damages caused by the insured's criminal acts or acts carried out with recognition of a violation of a law.

III Number of Directors

The Company stipulates in its Articles of Incorporation that the number of Directors of the Company (excluding Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) shall be fifteen or less and Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members of the Company shall be three or less.

IV Requirement of a resolution for electing Directors

The Company stipulates in its Articles of Incorporation that a resolution for the election of Directors, in distinction between Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members and Directors who are not, shall be adopted by a majority vote of shareholders present holding not less than one-third (1/3) of the shares with voting rights held by shareholders entitled to exercise their voting rights. In addition, the Company stipulates in its Articles of Incorporation that a resolution for the election of Directors shall not be adopted by a cumulative vote.

V Requirement of a special resolution at the General Meeting of Shareholders

For the purpose of ensuring that the General Meeting of Shareholders is operated smoothly, the Company stipulates in its Articles of Incorporation that a special resolution at the General Meeting of Shareholders, stipulated in Article 309, Paragraph 2 of the Companies Act, shall be adopted by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of shareholders present holding not less than one-third (1/3) of the shares with voting rights held by shareholders entitled to exercise their voting rights.

VI Decision-making body for dividend of surplus, etc.

To ensure flexible capital and dividend policy, the Company stipulates in its Articles of Incorporation that dividends from surplus and other matters laid down in Article 459, Paragraph 1 of the Companies Act are subject to resolution of the Board of Directors, not of the General Meeting of Shareholders, except where special provisions laid down by laws and regulations apply.

 10. Even if the person falls under any of the Paragraphs 3 through 8 above, when the Company believes that he or she is appropriate for Independent Director in light of the personality, insight, etc. of the said person, the Company may designate the said person as Independent Director of the Company on the condition that the said person satisfies the requirements for outside directors stipulated in the Companies Act and the Company publicly explains the reasons why it believes that he or she is appropriate for Independent Director of the Company.
 11. When an incumbent Independent Director of the Company to be reappointed as Independent Director, his or her cumulative total term of office needs to be 10 years or less.

The Company has appointed Outside Directors with insight into and experience of corporate management, and believes that they play an effective role.

- 3) Mutual collaboration between supervision and internal audit by Outside Directors, audit by the Audit and Supervisory Committee, and accounting audit, as well as the relationship with internal control departments

The Outside Directors of the Company are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members and carry out their role as auditors, etc. as part of Audit and Supervisory Committee. In addition, the Outside Directors of the Company play a role in supervising the performance of duties by Directors and in major decision-making, etc. in business execution, as members of the Board of Directors. Please refer to "(3) Audit 2) Internal audit" for mutual collaboration between internal audit and accounting auditor and the relationship with internal control departments.

(3) Audit

1) Audit by the Audit and Supervisory Committee

I Organization and personnel

The Audit and Supervisory Committee of the Company comprises three members, one full-time Audit and Supervisory Committee Member who is a non-executive Director and two Audit and Supervisory Committee Members who are Outside Directors.

Chairperson of the Audit and Supervisory Committee, Outside Director Hiroko Wada has years of experience in the use of financial and accounting knowledge such as serving as an officer at the headquarters of major foreign firm Procter & Gamble, as well as the president of Japanese subsidiaries of foreign-owned enterprises, and has ample insight into financial and accounting matters.

Audit and Supervisory Committee Member, Outside Director Hiroaki Sugita has long-standing experience in the use of corporate finance and accounting knowledge such as serving as Japan Co-chair of the Boston Consulting Group, a leading foreign consulting firm, and has ample insight into financial and accounting matters.

Full-time Audit and Supervisory Committee Member Shigeru Asada has experience as Executive Officer, General Manager of Accounting Control and Finance Division of the Company, in addition to the experience as the head of the internal audit department and the tax department of global headquarters, and as an officer in charge of accounting of overseas subsidiaries, at Panasonic Corporation, and has ample insight into finance and accounting matters.

Based on reporting from the Internal Audit Department and other internal control systems, the Audit and Supervisory Committee systematically organizes audits, including requests for separate reports and expressions of opinions.

II Activities of the Audit and Supervisory Committee

1. Frequency of meetings

The Audit and Supervisory Committee of the Company basically meets once a month, and also meets as needed.

2. Main items for discussion

The following resolutions and reports were made during the fiscal year under review.

Resolutions: Audit plan and division of duties of the Audit and Supervisory Committee, evaluation and reappointment/non-reappointment of the Accounting Auditor, agreement on compensation, etc. of the Accounting Auditor, draft audit report, etc.

Reports: Prior confirmation of the draft of the Board of Directors' meeting, audit plan report, internal control and audit report by the Audit & Supervisory Management Department, report on the business restructuring of subsidiaries, report on the financial status of domestic and overseas subsidiaries, report on overseas subsidiaries' strategies, etc.

3. Attendance at meetings of the Audit and Supervisory Committee Member

Attendance at meetings of the Audit and Supervisory Committee held during the fiscal year under review is as follows.

The average time required for the Audit and Supervisory Committee meetings is approximately 60 minutes.

Name	Number of meetings held (Note)	Number of meetings attended (Note)
Hiroko Wada	11 times	11 times (100%)
Hiroaki Sugita	9 times	9 times (100%)
Shigeru Asada	9 times	9 times (100%)

Note: Based on the number of meetings held during their terms of office.

4. Activities of full-time Audit and Supervisory Committee Members

The full-time Audit and Supervisory Committee Members of the Company make efforts to collect information within the Company, monitor the dissemination of information by the management, attend regular meetings of the Business Execution Council and Advisory Board, which deliberates on the Company's corporate strategy and the management plans of each domestic and overseas subsidiary, audit business reports, financial statements, consolidated financial statements and supplementary schedules, inspect important approval documents and contracts, and listen to the reports from the Internal Audit Department. Through regular meetings with the Accounting Auditor, members confirm whether the methods and results of the Accounting Auditor's audit are appropriate and whether the Accounting Auditor's internal control system is in place. They also examine the status of the internal control system to audit its appropriateness while sharing the information with part-time Outside Audit and Supervisory Committee Members.

2) Internal audit

The Company has established the Internal Audit Department comprising seven members directly under the Representative Director, President & CEO as its internal auditing department. The Internal Audit Department, in cooperation with the Audit and Supervisory Committee, conducts internal audits of business divisions and creates internal audit reports in which findings and necessary remedial measures are described. These reports are submitted to the Company's Representative Director, President & CEO, the Audit and Supervisory Committee, and the business divisions that have been audited. In the event that issues requiring remediation and/or deficiencies are identified, remedial measures are formulated and implemented. The Internal Audit Department monitors the outcomes of the remedial measures.

The Internal Audit Department, Audit and Supervisory Committee and Accounting Auditor hold regular meetings for exchange of information and opinions, etc. Audits carried out by these units also cover establishment and operational status of internal control systems by internal control departments.

V The Audit and Supervisory Committee's reason for agreeing to the remuneration, etc. for Accounting Auditor

The Audit and Supervisory Committee conducted necessary examination on whether the contents of the audit plan, performance of accounting audit services, the basis for the calculation of remuneration estimates, etc. of Accounting Auditor are appropriate. As a result, the Audit and Supervisory Committee determined that the independence, audit quality, and effectiveness of Accounting Auditor are secured, and agreed to the amount of remuneration, etc. for Accounting Auditor.

(4) Remuneration paid to Executives

1. Method of deciding policies for determining individual executive remuneration

With the objective of ensuring transparency and objectivity of determination processes, the Company's policies for determining individual executive remuneration are decided by the Board of Directors, based on deliberations by the Compensation Committee comprising one Representative Director, one non-executive Director, and two Independent Outside Directors, a majority of which is comprising Independent Outside Directors and chaired by an Independent Outside Director.

[Basic policies]

Remuneration, etc. for Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) and Executive Officers of the Company and policies thereof shall be determined, comprehensively considering the motivation for improvement of performance and corporate value and securing excellent human resources, etc., which shall be a level appropriate to their roles and responsibilities.

Basic policies on remuneration to promote growth-oriented management and to accomplish management strategy and fulfill management plan are as follows.

[Basic executive remuneration principles]

- 1) Remuneration contributable to the sustainable growth and medium to long-term increase of corporate value
- 2) Remuneration plan that is linked closely with performance and motivates the fulfillment of management plans and the achievement of results of the Company
- 3) Remuneration level which attracts and retains “talented personnel” who are capable of company management
- 4) Highly transparent and objective process for determining remuneration

[Executive remuneration levels]

1)	In order to swiftly cope with the changes in external and market circumstances, the Company benchmarks the remuneration levels of executive members of other domestic and foreign companies in the same and different industries with the size equivalent to the Company and sets remuneration standard based on the Company’s financial condition.
2)	The Company sets the target value for monetary remuneration as top 25% and the target value for monetary remuneration with the addition of share-based payments from a medium- to long-term perspective as top 10%.

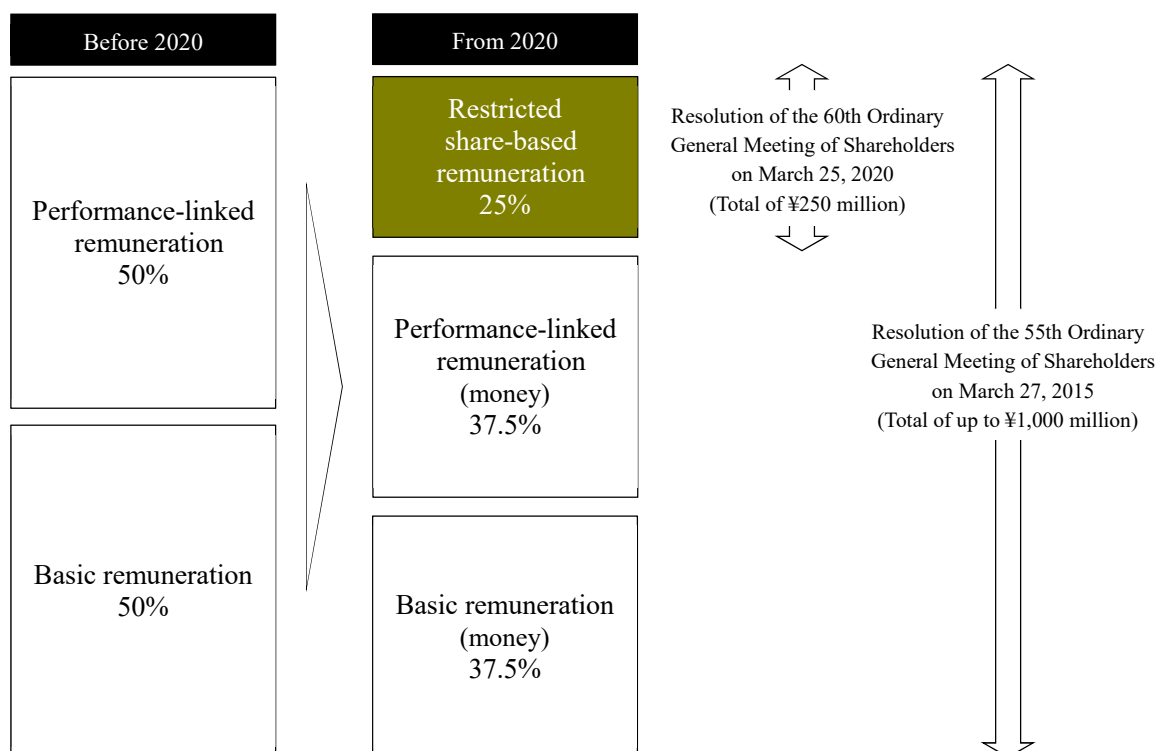

2. Overview of the policies for determining individual executive remuneration

The overview of the policies for determining remuneration for individual Directors of the Company are as follows.

1) Overview of the executive remuneration plan

The remuneration for Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) and Executive Officers of the Company comprises basic remuneration (money) and performance-linked remuneration, and the performance-linked remuneration comprises monetary remuneration which is a short-term incentive and restricted share-based remuneration which is a medium- to long-term incentive. In addition, the basic remuneration is determined for each managerial position according to the magnitude of their job responsibilities. Remuneration for Independent Outside Directors and Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members who are independent from business execution comprises fixed remuneration only, taking into consideration their supervisory and advisory roles on management of the Company from an objective standpoint. In addition, at the 55th Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held on March 27, 2015, the proposal that the maximum amount of remuneration, etc. for Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) of the Company (total amount) is to be in the amount of ¥1,000 million per year, which would apply to eight Directors, and that the maximum amount of remuneration, etc. for Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members (total amount) is to be in the amount of ¥100 million per year, which would apply to three Directors, was approved, and at the 60th Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held on March 25, 2020, the proposal that the total maximum amount of restricted share-based remuneration is to be in the amount of ¥250 million per year (however, the amount is included in the aforementioned ¥1,000 million), which would apply to three Directors, was approved.

[Composition of executive remuneration]

- Basic remuneration (money): The objective of this basic remuneration is to ensure that the Company remains competitive in the market. The remuneration is determined according to the benchmark for each position in line with responsibilities and paid as a fixed monthly remuneration.
- Performance-linked remuneration (money): As a short-term (one year) incentive, performance-linked remuneration amounts are set in the range of 0% to 200% (on a scale of 1 to 10) of the basic remuneration amount depending on performance results for the period. An amount based on the performance during an evaluation year (January - December) will be paid in monthly installments over the period from April the next year to March the following year.
- Restricted share-based remuneration: As an incentive to increase corporate value over the medium to long term, the Company allocates restricted shares equivalent to 33% to 100% of the basic remuneration amount according to the performance results of an evaluation year (January - December) in the April of the following year. There will be a transfer-restriction period of three years.

[Evaluation indicators and basic approaches to the executive remuneration and targets and results for the fiscal year under review]

Evaluation indicators (four items and eight initiatives that include ESG evaluation) and the targets and results for the fiscal year under review concerning the performance results, which are used to determine the performance-linked remuneration (money) and restricted share-based remuneration for Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) and Executive Officers of the Company, are as follows.

The evaluation weight is set for each managerial position according to the magnitude of their job responsibilities. For example, the weight for Representative Director is company-level performance of 50% and company-level focal strategies of 50%, and for Senior Executive Officer in charge of front-line divisions, company-level performance and department-level performance of 30% each and company-level focal strategies and department-level focal strategies of 20% each.

As for ESG evaluation, which was newly added to our index from the fiscal year ended December 31, 2020, we are striving to evaluate ESG quantitatively as much as possible by adopting the FTSE Blossom Japan Index and improving the ESG score. We believe that these efforts led to diverse success in the fiscal year ended December 31, 2021, including designation of FTSE4Good Index Series for the third consecutive year, reception of the Special Prize in the Environment Sustainable Corporate Segment of the ESG Finance Awards Japan hosted by the Ministry of the Environment (MOE), reception of the highest rank of four stars in the Nikkei Smart Work Management Survey, designation of the Bloomberg Gender-Equity Index, and reception of the Award under the Excellent Green Logistics Commendation Program from the Green Logistics Partnership Conference. Starting from the fiscal year ending December 31, 2022, we will assign each of our Executive Officers to some of the 20 initiatives specified in “Kyo-sei Life Vision 2030” announced in November 2020, which sets the Company’s mid-to-long term ESG goals. The progress they have made as they work on their assigned initiatives will be reflected in their performance evaluation.

[Details of an agreement on the allotment of restricted shares]

“Restricted share-based remuneration” is a system in which Eligible Directors and Executive Officers shall pay all monetary claims to be provided to them by the Company, in the form of property contributed in kind, and shall, in return, receive common shares of the Company that shall be issued or disposed of by the Company. The Company and each of Eligible Directors and Executive Officers shall sign an agreement on the allotment of restricted shares.

1	Restricted Period	The Eligible Directors and Executive Officers shall be prohibited from transfers, creation of security interest, or any other disposal (hereinafter “Transfer Restrictions”) of the allotted shares of the Company (hereinafter “Allotted Shares”) for three years from the date of the allotment (hereinafter “Restriction Period”).
2	Treatment on retirement from the position	If an Eligible Director or Executive Officer resigns or retires from the position of Director or Executive Officer of the Company or other positions prescribed by the Board of Directors before the Restriction Period expires, the Company shall automatically acquire such Allotted Shares without contribution unless there are justifiable reasons for the retirement or resignation from office, such as expiration of the term of his or her office or death.
3	Lifting of Transfer Restrictions	The Company shall lift the Transfer Restrictions of all of the Allotted Shares upon the expiration of the Restriction Period, on the condition that the Eligible Directors and Executive Officers have remained in the position of Director or Executive Officer of the Company or other positions prescribed by the Board of Directors during the Restriction Period. However, if an Eligible Director or Executive Officer resigns or retires from the position of Director or Executive Officer of the Company or other positions prescribed by the Board of Directors before the expiration of the Restriction Period due to expiration of the term of his or her office, death, or other justifiable reasons specified in 2 above, the Company shall rationally adjust the number of the Allotted Shares for which the Transfer Restrictions are to be lifted and the timing of lifting as necessary. In addition, immediately after the Transfer Restrictions are lifted in accordance with the above provisions, the Company shall automatically acquire the Allotted Shares whose Transfer Restrictions have not been lifted without contribution.
4	Clawback provision	The Eligible Directors and Executive Officers shall return all or part of the Allotted Shares without contribution in the event of material accounting frauds or substantial losses, to take responsibility for such occurrences.
5	Other items	Other matters concerning an agreement on the allotment of restricted shares shall be determined by the Board of Directors of the Company.

2) Method of determining the amount of remuneration for each individual Director

The amount of remuneration for each individual Director is determined by the Representative Director (Takahisa Takahara), who is entrusted with the resolution by the Board of Directors, after reporting the results of evaluation based on each index to the Compensation Committee for deliberation, with the aim of ensuring correct evaluation based on the actual contribution result of each Director.

3) Policies for determining the ratios and amounts of fixed remuneration, bonuses, and restricted share-based remuneration

At the Compensation Committee meeting held on February 22, 2021, the calculation method and ratio of fixed remuneration, performance-linked remuneration and share-based payments for the fiscal year under review, timing of granting each type of remuneration, and decision delegator and details were designated as matters to be decided by the Board of Directors, and the details were resolved at the Board of Directors meeting held on the same day.

In addition, at the Compensation Committee meeting held on February 24, 2022, calculation method of remuneration for each first-year Director and Executive Officer as well as the previous year’s evaluation of Directors and Executive Officers were discussed, and the proposal for the election of Directors to be submitted to the General Meeting of Shareholders was resolved at the Board of Directors meeting held on the same day.

3. Reason for the Board of Directors’ decision that the details of remuneration for individual Directors for the fiscal year under review are in line with the policies for determining the details of remuneration for individual Directors

The Board of Directors confirmed that the method of determining the details of remuneration for individual

Directors for the fiscal year under review, along with the details of the remuneration determined, are consistent with the policies for determining remuneration resolved by the Board of Directors, and that the report from the Compensation Committee is respected. Thus, the Board of Directors decided that the remuneration is in line with the said policies for determining remuneration.

4. Total amount of remuneration and remuneration by type and number of recipients, by class of executive

Category	Total remuneration (Millions of Yen)	Total remuneration by remuneration type (Millions of Yen)			Number of Executives (Persons)
		Basic remuneration	Performance-linked remuneration	Non-monetary remuneration

Note: At the 47th Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 26, 2007, in line with the enactment of the Companies Act, a resolution was passed to incorporate executive bonuses within remuneration, with abolition of retirement benefits for Directors, and to only pay an annual remuneration total.

(5) Status of shares held

1) Criteria for and basic approaches to the classification of shares for investment

As for classification of shares for investment, the Company classifies shares for investment held solely for the purpose of obtaining profits from the fluctuation of share value or the receipt of dividends as shares for investment for pure investment purposes, and shares for investment for the other purposes as shares for investment for purposes other than pure investment purposes.

2) Shares for investment held for any purposes other than pure investment purposes

- I Method of examining the rationality of the holding policy and the holding, and the details of the examination by the Board of Directors, etc. concerning the appropriateness of the holding of individual securities
 The Company holds minimum necessary shares of other companies, comprehensively taking into consideration dividends, benefits and risks that can be obtained or arising from the maintenance and strengthening of the trade relations, etc. and capital costs, among other things, from a perspective of whether the holding would contribute to an increase in corporate value of the Company. In addition, the Board of Directors examines the rationality of the holding of individual securities every year from the perspectives of whether the holding purpose is diluted and whether the benefits and risks resulting from the holding are proportionate to the capital cost. The shares determined to have no rationality in the holding as a result of the examination will be sold appropriately according to the overall judgment on market impact, etc.

V. Financial Information

1. Basis of preparation of the consolidated and non-consolidated financial statements

- (1) The consolidated financial statements of the Company are prepared in conformity with IFRS in accordance with Article 93 of the Ministry of Finance Ordinance No. 28, 1976 “Regulations Concerning the Terminology, Forms and Preparation Methods of Consolidated Financial Statements” (hereinafter “Regulations for Consolidated Financial Statements”).
- (2) The non-consolidated financial statements of the Company are prepared in accordance with the Ministry of Finance Ordinance No. 59, 1963 “Regulations Concerning the Terminology, Forms and Preparation Methods of Non-Consolidated Financial Statements” (hereinafter “Regulations for Non-Consolidated Financial Statements”).

As the Company falls under the category of a company filing financial statements prepared in accordance with special provisions, the non-consolidated financial statements of the Company are prepared in accordance with Article 127 of the Regulations for Non-Consolidated Financial Statements.

2. Auditing and certification

The consolidated and the non-consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2021 (January 1, 2021 – December 31, 2021) were audited by PricewaterhouseCoopers Aarata LLC, in accordance with Article 193-2, Paragraph 1 of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act.

3. Particular efforts to secure the appropriateness of the consolidated financial statements and establishment of system that enables preparation of appropriate consolidated financial statements in conformity with IFRS

The Company is making particular efforts to ensure the appropriateness of the consolidated financial statements while developing systems to prepare those documents in conformity with IFRS as follows.

- (1) The Company has become a member of the Financial Accounting Standards Foundation (hereinafter “Foundation”) and participates in seminars and other programs sponsored by the Foundation in order to have an appropriate understanding about the contents of the accounting standards, etc., and establish a system so that the Company might be able to properly respond to the changes in the accounting standards, etc.
- (2) In order to prepare appropriate consolidated financial statements, the Company develops group accounting policies and guidelines in conformity with IFRS and applies them in its accounting treatment.

Notes to the consolidated financial statements

1. Reporting entity

The Group is engaged in the manufacture and sale of wellness care, feminine care, baby care and other products of personal care business, and pet care products, which are its mainstay business lines, with core operations in the Asian markets. The Group is strengthening its global production facilities in response to growing demand for feminine napkins and disposable diapers for babies in emerging regions, notably in Asia, the Middle East, North Africa, and South America.

The Company is headquartered in Japan and is listed on the Tokyo Stock Exchange. The registered location of its head office is Shikokuchuo-Shi in Ehime Prefecture.

2. Basis of preparation

(1) Conformity with IFRS

The Group's consolidated financial statements meet the requirements for a "Specified Company under Designated International Accounting Standards" as stipulated in Article 1-2 of the Regulations for Consolidated Financial Statements. Hence, they are prepared in conformity with IFRS in accordance with Article 93 of the Regulations. The Group's consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year under review were approved at the Board of Directors meeting held on March 25, 2022.

(2) Basis of measurement

The Group's consolidated financial statements are prepared using the historical cost basis except for financial instruments and other items measured at fair value, as presented in Note 3 "Significant accounting policies."

(3) Functional currency and presentation currency

Items in the financial statements of each of the Group companies are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment where the companies operate (hereinafter "functional currency"). The Group's consolidated financial statements are presented in Japanese yen, which is the Company's functional currency. Amounts of less than one million yen are rounded to the nearest million yen.

(4) Early adoption of new accounting standards

There are no accounting standards, etc. early adopted.

3. Significant accounting policies

Significant accounting policies applied to the consolidated financial statements are as follows. Unless otherwise noted, the policies are applied continuously to all the periods presented.

(1) Basis of consolidation

1) Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are entities over which the Group has control.

The Group controls an entity when the Group is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to influence those returns through its power over the entity. Decisions as to whether or not the Group has power are based on a consideration of various elements, including the existence of potential voting rights that are exercisable at the present point in time. Financial statements of the subsidiaries are consolidated into the Group's consolidated financial statements from the date of acquisition of control to the date of loss of control. Adjustments to the financial statements of subsidiaries are made as necessary to bring them into conformity with the Group's accounting policies. When the fiscal closing date of subsidiaries is different from that of the Company for consolidation, provisional closing is made at the consolidated closing date for such subsidiaries.

When the ownership interest in a subsidiary changes and the control over the subsidiary is maintained, any difference between the amount by which non-controlling interests are adjusted and the fair value of the consideration paid or received is recognized as equity transactions directly in equity attributable to owners of the parent.

All intra-group transactions, balances, and unrealized gains and losses are eliminated in consolidation.

2) Associates

An associate is an entity over which the Group has significant influence on the entity's decisions related to operational and financial policies, but does not have control. Significant influence is presumed to exist when the Group has 20% or more but 50% or less of the voting rights of the entity concerned.

Investments in associates are initially recognized at cost on acquisition and are subsequently accounted for using the equity method from the date when the Company obtains significant influence to the date when such influence is lost.

(2) Business combinations

The Group applies the acquisition method to business combinations. The consideration transferred in a business combination includes the fair value of the assets transferred by the Company to former owners of the acquiree, the liabilities incurred, the equity interests issued by the Company, and the liabilities resulting from a contingent consideration arrangement. Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred. The identifiable assets acquired and the liabilities assumed as a result of the business combination are measured at fair value on the acquisition date. The amount of non-controlling interests in the acquiree is recognized either at fair value or based on the proportionate share of the non-controlling interests in the identifiable net asset amounts for each business combination transaction.

(3) Foreign currency translation

1) Transactions denominated in foreign currencies

Transactions denominated in foreign currencies are translated into the functional currency of the Group using the exchange rate as of the date of the transaction, or in cases in which items in the financial statements are to be remeasured, the exchange rate at the date of such evaluation. Exchange differences arising from the settlement of these transactions, exchange differences arising from translation of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at the closing rate at the end of the fiscal period, and exchange differences arising from translation into functional currency of non-monetary assets and liabilities carried at fair value at the rate prevailing on the date when the fair value was measured, are recognized in profit or loss.

2) Foreign operations

Assets and liabilities of foreign operations are translated into Japanese yen at the closing rate at the end of the fiscal period. Revenues and expenses are translated into Japanese yen using the average rate for the fiscal period unless there are significant changes in the exchange rate. Resulting exchange differences are recognized in other comprehensive income.

(4) Financial instruments

1) Non-derivative financial assets

(a) Initial recognition and measurement

The Group classifies financial assets which it holds into the following categories: (i) financial assets measured at amortized cost, (ii) debt instruments measured at fair value through other comprehensive income, (iii) equity instruments measured at fair value through other comprehensive income and (iv) financial assets measured at fair value through profit or loss. This classification is determined at initial recognition of the financial assets.

The Group initially recognizes trade and other receivables on the date of occurrence. Other financial assets are recognized initially on the trade date at which the Group becomes a party to the contract. At initial recognition, all financial assets are measured at fair value. However, in the case of a financial asset that is not classified as a financial asset measured at fair value through profit or loss, it is measured at the fair value plus any transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset. The transaction costs of financial assets measured at fair value through profit or loss are recognized in profit or loss.

(i) Financial assets measured at amortized cost

Of the financial assets held by the Group, those that meet both of the following conditions are classified as financial assets measured at amortized cost:

- The financial asset is held within a business model whose objective is to hold financial assets in order to collect contractual cash flows.

- The contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

Subsequent to initial recognition, financial assets are measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method. Amortization using the effective interest method and gains or losses arising in the event of derecognition are recognized in profit or loss of the reporting period.

(ii) Debt instruments measured at fair value through other comprehensive income

Financial assets that meet both of the following conditions are classified as debt instruments measured at fair value through other comprehensive income.

- Financial assets are held in a business model where the objective is achieved through both the collection and sale of contractual cash flows.
- The contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

Subsequent to initial recognition, the financial assets are measured at fair value and changes in the fair value excluding impairment loss are recognized in other comprehensive income. In the event of derecognition of the relevant financial asset, the cumulative amount of gains or losses recognized through other comprehensive income is directly transferred to profit or loss.

Interest income based on the effective interest method related to the relevant financial asset are recognized in profit or loss.

(iii) Equity instruments measured at fair value through other comprehensive income

Of the financial assets other than those measured at amortized cost, equity instruments for which the Group made an irrevocable election at initial recognition to present subsequent changes in the fair value in other comprehensive income are classified as equity instruments measured at fair value through other comprehensive income.

Subsequent to initial recognition, the financial assets are measured at fair value and changes in the fair value are recognized in other comprehensive income. In the event of derecognition of the relevant financial asset, the cumulative amount of gains or losses recognized through other comprehensive income is directly transferred to retained earnings.

Dividends from the relevant financial asset are recognized in profit or loss.

(iv) Financial assets measured at fair value through profit or loss

Financial assets, other than financial assets measured at amortized cost, debt instruments measured at fair value through other comprehensive income, and equity instruments measured at fair value through other comprehensive income are classified as financial assets measured at fair value through profit or loss.

Subsequent to initial recognition, the financial assets are measured at fair value and changes in the fair value are recognized in profit or loss.

(b) Derecognition of financial assets

The Group derecognizes financial assets when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the financial assets expire, or when the contractual rights to receive the cash flows from the financial assets are assigned and substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial assets are transferred.

(c) Impairment of financial assets

With respect to impairment of financial assets that are measured at amortized cost and debt instruments, etc. that are measured at fair value through other comprehensive income, allowance for doubtful accounts are recognized for expected credit losses on the relevant financial assets.

At the end of each reporting period, the Group assesses whether there has been any significant increase in credit risk associated with the financial assets since initial recognition.

If credit risk of a financial instrument has not increased significantly since initial recognition, the allowance for doubtful accounts associated with the relevant financial instrument is measured at an amount equal to twelve-month expected credit losses. If credit risk of a financial instrument has increased significantly since initial recognition, the allowance for doubtful accounts associated with the relevant financial instrument is measured at an amount equal to lifetime expected credit losses.

However, with respect to trade receivables etc. that do not contain significant financing component, allowance for doubtful accounts are always measured at an amount equal to lifetime expected credit losses.

Estimation of expected credit losses on financial instruments is calculated using a method that reflects the following:

- An unbiased and probability-weighted amount that is determined by evaluating a range of possible outcomes;
- The time value of money;
- Reasonable and supportable information about past events, current conditions and forecasts of future economic conditions, where such information is available without undue cost or effort at the end of a reporting period

The amount relating to such measurement is recognized in profit or loss. If an event occurs after recognition of an impairment loss that results in a decrease of the impairment loss, such decrease is reversed in profit or loss.

2) Non-derivative financial liabilities

Non-derivative financial liabilities that the Group holds include interest-bearing debts and trade and other payables, which are initially recognized on the transaction date on which the Group becomes a party to the contract. These financial liabilities are initially recognized at fair value net of direct transaction costs, and subsequent to initial recognition, are measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method.

The Group derecognizes financial liabilities when the obligation is satisfied, or when the contractual obligation is discharged, canceled, or expires.

3) Offsetting financial assets and financial liabilities

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount is presented in the consolidated statement of financial position when the Group has a legally enforceable right to set off the recognized amounts and intends either to settle on a net basis or to realize the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously.

4) Derivatives and hedge accounting

(a) Derivatives

The Group utilizes primarily foreign exchange forward contracts, non-deliverable forwards and currency swaps for hedging foreign exchange fluctuation risk. Derivatives are initially recognized at fair value on the date when the derivative contracts are entered into and are subsequently measured at fair value at the end of each fiscal period. Changes in the fair value of a derivative are recognized in profit or loss immediately unless the derivative is designated as a hedging instrument or the hedging is effective.

(b) Hedge accounting

The Group designates certain derivative transactions as hedging instruments and accounts for them as cash flow hedges.

At the inception of the hedge, the Group documents the hedge relationship qualifying for hedge accounting, as well as its risk management objectives and strategies for undertaking hedge transactions. Additionally, at the inception of the hedge and on an ongoing basis, the Group evaluates whether an economic relationship exists between the hedging instrument and the relevant hedged item to offset changes in the fair value or cash flows of the hedged item during the underlying period.

The effective portion of changes in the fair value of derivatives that are designated and qualify as cash flow hedges is recognized in other comprehensive income and accumulated in other components of equity. The amounts related to hedging instruments that are recognized in other components of equity are reclassified to profit or loss in the same period when the hedged items affect profit or loss.

When the hedged forecast transaction subsequently results in the recognition of a non-financial asset or a non-financial liability, the associated gains or losses previously recognized in accumulated other comprehensive income are reclassified and included in measuring the cost of the non-financial asset or the non-financial liability at initial recognition.

The application of hedge accounting is discontinued in cases where the hedging instrument expires, is sold, terminated, or exercised, or in cases where the hedge ceases to meet the hedge effectiveness requirement. When hedge accounting is discontinued, any gains or losses recognized in accumulated other comprehensive income remain in equity and are reclassified to profit or loss when the forecast transaction is ultimately recognized in profit or loss. When a forecast transaction is no longer expected to occur, the amount related to the hedging instrument recognized in other components of equity is immediately recognized in profit or loss.

(5) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash on hand, demand deposits, and other highly liquid short-term investments with original maturities of three months or less.

(6) Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or net realizable value. Costs are calculated by the gross average method for merchandise, finished goods, work in process, and supplies, and by the moving-average method for raw materials. The cost of finished goods and work in process is comprised of costs of raw materials, direct labor and other direct costs, and related manufacturing overhead (based on normal capacity of production facilities). Net realizable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less related estimated selling expenses.

(7) Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost, net of accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses. Cost includes costs directly attributable to the acquisition of qualifying assets and borrowing costs directly attributable to acquisition, construction, and production of qualifying assets.

Expenses subsequent to acquisition are included in the carrying amount of the relevant asset or are separately recognized as an asset where appropriate, if it is highly probable that associated future economic benefits will flow into the Group and if such expenditures can be estimated reasonably. The carrying amount of the replaced portion is derecognized.

Except for land and other assets that are not depreciated, depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method, with the depreciable amount, which is the cost less its residual value, allocated over the asset's useful life as given below.

Buildings and structures	2 – 50 years
Machinery, equipment and vehicles	2 – 20 years

The depreciation method, residual value, and useful life of an asset are reviewed at the end of each fiscal year and revised as necessary.

(8) Goodwill and intangible assets

1) Goodwill

Goodwill is the excess of the cost of acquisition over the fair value, on the acquisition date, of the Group's share of the identifiable net assets of the acquiree. Goodwill arising from acquisition of subsidiaries is included in intangible assets and is recorded at cost less accumulated impairment losses. Goodwill is not amortized and is allocated to each group of cash-generating unit that is identified based on the region or category of operations.

2) Intangible assets

Intangible assets acquired separately are measured at cost at initial recognition.

Development expenditures directly related to designing and testing of identifiable original software products managed by the Group are recognized as intangible assets only if they can be reliably measured, it is technically and commercially feasible to complete the product or the process, it is highly probable that future economic benefits will be generated, and the Group has the intention and adequate resources to complete the development and to use or sell the assets.

Intangible assets acquired in a business combination and recognized separately from goodwill at initial recognition are measured at fair value on the acquisition date.

Major intangible assets with finite useful lives are amortized using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives as given below.

Software	5 years
Trademarks (with finite useful lives)	10 – 30 years
Customer-related assets (with finite useful lives)	20 years

The amortization method, residual value, and useful life of an asset are reviewed at the end of each fiscal year and revised as necessary.

(9) Leases

At the lease commencement date, the right-of-use asset is measured at acquisition cost and the lease liability is measured at the present value of the lease payments not paid as of the lease commencement date.

Right-of-use assets are depreciated over the useful life of the right-of-use asset or the period of the lease, whichever is shorter, from the lease commencement date, and are included in property, plant and equipment or intangible assets in the consolidated statement of financial position.

Lease liabilities are measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method and are shown in other financial liabilities in the consolidated statement of financial position. Lease payments are allocated between financial costs and the amount of the lease liability remaining to be repaid, so that there is a fixed interest rate on the balance of the lease liability. Financial costs are shown separately from depreciation of right-of-use assets in the consolidated statement of income.

At the start of the contract, the Group identifies whether a contract meets the definition of a lease or includes a lease, based on the substance of the contract. If the contract transfers the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for a consideration, the contract is deemed to be a lease or to contain a lease.

In the case of short-term leases and leases of low value underlying assets with lease terms of less than twelve months, the Group does not recognize right-of-use assets and lease liabilities. The Group recognizes the total lease payments in profit or loss using the straight-line method over the lease term.

(10) Impairment of non-financial assets

An impairment assessment is performed for property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets, and intangible assets when there are any events or changes in circumstances indicating that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. The excess of the carrying amount of an asset over its recoverable amount is recognized as impairment losses. The recoverable amount is the higher of the fair value less costs to sell or value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a discount rate that reflects the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. In performing impairment assessments, the assets are grouped together into the smallest identifiable group of assets that can generate cash flows (cash-generating unit).

Goodwill, intangible assets with indefinite useful lives, and intangible assets that are not yet available for use are not amortized, but are assessed for impairment at a certain time each year and whenever there is an indication of impairment by estimating the recoverable amount of the asset and comparing it to the carrying amount.

For non-financial assets other than goodwill for which impairment losses were recognized in prior periods, a re-assessment is performed at the end of each fiscal period for any possibility that the impairment may be reversed.

Any impairment losses for goodwill are recognized in profit or loss and are not reversed in subsequent periods.

(11) Employee benefits

1) Short-term employee benefits

Short-term employee benefits are recognized as an expense when the employees render the related service. For bonus payments and cost of compensated absences, a liability is recognized for the amount expected to be paid under the relevant benefit plan if the Group has legal or constructive obligations to make the payments as a result of past service rendered by the employees, and if the obligations can be estimated reliably.

2) Retirement benefits

The Group has adopted defined contribution plans and defined benefit plans for its current and retired employees.

Defined contribution plans are retirement benefit plans under which an employer pays fixed contributions into an independent entity and will have no legal or constructive obligations to pay further contributions. For defined contribution plans, the Group pays contributions to publicly or privately administered pension insurance plans. As long as the contributions are paid, the Group will not be subject to any additional obligations. Contributions are recognized as employee benefit expenses during the period in which the employees render the related service.

Defined benefit plans are retirement benefit plans other than defined contribution plans. Liabilities recognized in respect of the defined benefit plans are the present value of the defined benefit obligations less the fair value of plan assets after adjusting for the effect of asset ceiling, as necessary, considering available economic benefits. The defined benefit obligations are calculated each year using independent actuaries and the projected unit credit method. The discount rate used in the calculation is determined by reference to market yields of high quality corporate bonds at the end of each fiscal year consistent with the discount period. The discount period is determined based on the term to the estimated dates of future benefit payments.

Of retirement benefit expenses, service cost and net interest on net defined benefit liabilities (assets) are recognized in profit or loss. Remeasurements, which include actuarial gains and losses in experience adjustments as well as actuarial gains and losses due to changes in actuarial assumptions, are recognized in other comprehensive income for the period of occurrence and are transferred to retained earnings immediately from other components of equity. Past service cost is recognized in net profit or loss at the earlier of the date when a plan amendment or curtailment occurs and when the Group recognizes any related restructuring costs or termination benefits.

(12) Share-based payments

As equity-settled share-based compensation, the Group has introduced a stock option plan and restricted share-based remuneration plan, as well as cash-settled share-based compensation. Equity-settled share-based compensation is measured at fair value at the date of grant. The fair value of stock options is calculated using the Black-Scholes model, and the fair value of restricted stock is calculated using the stock price on the date of grant. The fair value determined at the date of grant is recognized as an expense over the vesting period based on an estimate of the number of stock options or restricted stock that are expected to be ultimately vested, and an equal amount is recognized as an increase in equity. The terms and conditions are reviewed periodically and the estimate of the number of vested options is revised as necessary. Cash-settled share-based compensation is measured at the fair value of the liability incurred. The fair value of such liabilities is remeasured at the end of the period and at the settlement date, with changes in fair value recognized in profit or loss.

(13) Equity

Common shares are classified as equity.

Costs directly attributable to the issuance of new shares (common shares) or stock options, net of tax effects, are recognized as a deduction from equity.

In case of purchasing treasury shares, the consideration paid, including any directly attributable transaction costs (net of tax), is deducted from equity until disposal or cancellation of the shares. The difference between the carrying amount and the consideration at sale is recognized as share premium.

(14) Revenue recognition

The Group recognizes revenue based on the following five step approach.

- Step 1: Identify the contract(s) with a customer
- Step 2: Identify the performance obligations in the contract
- Step 3: Determine the transaction price
- Step 4: Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract
- Step 5: Recognize revenue when the entity satisfies a performance obligation

The Group is mainly engaged in the manufacture and sale of products for personal care, which includes wellness care business, feminine care business, baby care business, and for pet care business. For the sale of such products, because the customer obtains control of the products at the time of delivery, the Group judges that its performance obligation is satisfied and recognizes revenue at the time of product delivery. Revenue is recognized at the amount of consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for transfer of goods to customers, and is measured at the amount after deduction of trade discounts, rebates, value-added tax, or other taxes. Variable consideration in the form of discounts and rebates is included in the transaction price only to the extent that it is highly probable that a subsequent resolution of the uncertainty relating to such variable consideration will not result in a material reversal of the accumulated amount of revenue recognized. The consideration for performance obligations is received within one year from the fulfillment of the obligations and does not contain any significant financing component.

(15) Income taxes

Income tax expenses comprise current tax expenses and deferred tax expenses. These are recognized in the consolidated statement of income except for those recognized in relation to business combinations, recognized in other comprehensive income, or recognized directly in equity.

Current income tax expenses are measured at the amount expected to be paid to or refunded from the tax authorities, using the tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted as of the end of each fiscal period in the countries or regions in which the Company and its subsidiaries operate and in which taxable income is generated.

Temporary differences between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the consolidated financial statements, based on the asset liability approach, and tax loss and tax credit carryforwards, are recognized as deferred tax assets and liabilities.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the period when the relevant deferred tax asset is realized or the deferred tax liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of each fiscal period. A deferred tax asset is recognized only if it is likely to generate future taxable profit. However, deferred tax assets and liabilities are not recognized in the following circumstances.

- Temporary difference arising from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction other than a business combination which, on the transaction date, affects neither the accounting profit and loss nor the taxable profit (loss);
- Taxable temporary difference arising from the initial recognition of goodwill;
- Taxable temporary difference associated with investments in subsidiaries and associates of which the Group is able to control the timing of the reversal and which is unlikely to reverse in the foreseeable future;
- Deductible temporary difference associated with investments in subsidiaries and associates that is not likely to generate sufficient future taxable profit against which the temporary difference may be utilized, or that is not likely to reverse in the foreseeable future

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset if the Group has a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets against current tax liabilities, and if the deferred tax assets and liabilities relate to income taxes imposed by the same tax authorities on the same taxable entity or different taxable entities that intend to make a settlement on a net basis.

(16) Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share are calculated by dividing profit or loss attributable to owners of parent by the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding for the period, after adjusting for treasury shares. Diluted earnings per share are calculated by adjusting for the impact of all dilutive potential shares.

4. Significant accounting estimates and judgments

In preparing the Group's consolidated financial statements, the management makes judgments, estimates, and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues, and expenses. However, actual results may differ from these estimates. The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Impacts of the revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimate is revised and the future periods affected by such revisions.

Estimates and judgments made by the management as having a significant effect on the amounts reported in the Group's consolidated financial statements are as follows:

(1) Valuation of goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite useful lives

With regard to goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite useful lives, the recoverable amounts of the assets are estimated for comparison with the carrying amounts thereof at a certain time each year and whenever there is an indication of impairment. Recoverable amounts are measured by value in use in the group of cash-generating unit that includes goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite useful lives. Value in use is calculated as the present value of estimated future cash flows. Estimated future cash flows are based on a three-year business plan approved by the management and, for the period after the three years, they are estimated on the assumption that they will gradually increase at a certain growth rate, taking into account average growth rates forecast in each market.

The major assumptions used to estimate value in use are estimates of future cash flows during the period covered by the business plan, the growth rate after the period, and the discount rate calculated based on the weighted-average capital cost.

While the management uses their best judgment to estimate future cash flows in the business plan for the next three years and a growth rate used for the period beyond the years covered by the business plan, these estimates may differ from actual results due to changes in economic conditions given future uncertainties.

(2) Income taxes

The Group is engaged in business operations in many countries and regions around the world. Amounts that are estimated to be paid to the respective country's and region's tax authorities are assessed reasonably in accordance with the related laws and regulations, and are recorded as income tax payables and income tax expenses.

In the calculation of income tax payables and income tax expenses, estimates and judgments are required on various factors, including interpretation of the provisions of tax statutes by both the entities subject to taxation and the tax authorities, as well as circumstances of past tax examinations. Consequently, the amounts of income tax payables and income tax expenses that have been recorded may differ from the actual payment amounts.

Also, deferred tax assets are provided within the extent of taxable profit likely to be generated against which deductible temporary differences may be utilized. In the judgment on the possibility of taxable profit, the timing at which such taxable profit will be generated and the amount are estimated based on the business plans. Whilst these estimates are made using the management's best judgment, they may differ from actual results due to changes in economic conditions given future uncertainties.

(3) Retirement benefits

The Group operates defined contribution plans and defined benefit plans for its current and retired employees. In regard to defined benefit plans, the present values of defined benefit obligations, service cost, and other items are calculated based on various actuarial assumptions. The actuarial assumptions include estimates based on various factors, such as the discount rate, future payments, future plan leavers, and the average life expectancy of plan participants. While these estimates are made using the management's best judgment, they may differ from actual results due to such factors as changes in economic conditions given future uncertainties, and amendments to and publication of related laws and regulations.

5. New accounting standards and interpretations not yet adopted

New accounting standards and new interpretations that have been established or revised by the date of approval for the consolidated financial statements and that have not been adopted by the Group as of December 31, 2021 are mainly as follows. The impact of the adoption of IAS 12 on the Group is being assessed.

Standards	Title	Timing of mandatory adoption (Fiscal year starting on or after)	Timing of adoption by the Group	Overview of new and revised standards
IAS 12	Income taxes	January 1, 2023	Fiscal year ending December 31, 2023	To clearly define how to account for deferred tax related to assets and liabilities arising from a single transaction

6. Segment information

(1) Overview of reportable segments

The Group's reportable segments are part of its organizational units whose financial information is individually available, and are subject to regular review by its Board of Directors, the chief operating decision maker, for the purpose of deciding the allocation of its managerial resources and evaluating its business performance.

The Group is composed of three businesses, namely the personal care business, the pet care business and other businesses as its basic units, and has been engaged in its business activities by comprehensively developing domestic and overseas strategies by business unit.

Therefore, the "personal care business," the "pet care business," and "other businesses" constitute the Group's reportable segments.

In the personal care business, the Group manufactures and sells wellness care products, feminine care products, and baby care products. In the pet care business, the Group manufactures and sells pet food products and pet toiletry products. In other businesses, the Group manufactures and sells industrial materials related products, etc.

The accounting policies for the reportable segments are the same as for the consolidated financial statements. The segment profit is the core operating income (comprising gross profit less selling, general and administrative expenses), which is the key performance indicator based on which the Board of Directors evaluates the performance of business segments.

(2) Sales and results by reportable segment

Sales and results by reportable segment are as follows.

13. Impairment of non-financial assets

The details of assets by type for which impairment losses are recognized are as follows.

The details of impairment losses by segment are presented in Note “6. Segment information.”

(Millions of Yen)

	Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2020 (January 1, 2020 – December 31, 2020)	Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2021 (January 1, 2021 – December 31, 2021)
Goodwill	–	4,757
Total impairment losses	–	4,757

(1) Cash-generating unit

The Group categorizes cash-generating units into the smallest units that have individually identifiable cash flows, while idle assets are grouped by individual asset.

(2) Impairment loss

Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2020 (January 1, 2020 – December 31, 2020)

None.

Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2021 (January 1, 2021 – December 31, 2021)

As the excess earnings power assumed at the time of the acquisition declined for the business belonging to the personal care segment of Unicharm Australasia Holding Pty Ltd., a subsidiary of the Company, partly due to soaring raw material prices and worsening foreign exchange rates, the carrying amount of “goodwill” related to the business in the country was reduced to the recoverable amount, and a reduction of ¥4,757 million was recorded as an impairment loss in “other expenses.”

The recoverable amount of such asset group of ¥3,675 million is measured by the value in use. Value in use is obtained by discounting the future cash flows based on the business plan approved by the management and a growth rate to the present value using the discount rate calculated based on the pre-tax weighted average cost of capital (7.3%). The growth rate is estimated as 2.0% by taking into account the assumed average growth rates in each market.

(3) Impairment assessments on goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite useful lives

The details of goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite useful lives by group of cash-generating unit are as follows (after impairment loss recognition). They are allocated to the personal care segment.

(Millions of Yen)

	Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2020 (as of December 31, 2020)		Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2021 (as of December 31, 2021)
	Goodwill	Intangible assets with indefinite useful lives	Goodwill	Intangible assets with indefinite useful lives
Thailand	20,340	–	20,281	–
Vietnam	12,234	–	13,596	–
Australia	6,366	1,350	1,609	1,428
Malaysia	4,748	–	5,113	–
Other	1,846	–	1,846	–
Total	45,535	1,350	42,446	1,428

Recoverable amounts used for impairment assessments on goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite useful lives are calculated based on value in use. Value in use is calculated by discounting estimated future cash flows for three years, which are based on the business plans approved by the management, to their present value at a discount rate calculated based on the pre-tax weighted-average capital cost (previous fiscal year: 6.9%-8.5%, fiscal year under review: 6.2%-11.6%). Business plans are created based on the evaluation of future projections of the business by the management and the past results, upon aligning external information and internal information.

Cash flows for a period exceeding the period of business plans are estimated by taking into account average growth rates forecast in each market (2.0%-4.4%), and other factors.

Impairment losses on goodwill or intangible assets with indefinite useful lives were not recognized in the previous fiscal year. The Group considers that significant impairment losses are unlikely to be incurred even if major assumptions used for impairment assessments change within a reasonably foreseeable range.

Please refer to Note “13. Impairment of non-financial assets (2) Impairment loss” for the details of goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite useful lives recognized in the fiscal year under review. If future cash flows which are the major assumptions used for impairment assessments decrease or if the discount rates increase, additional impairment losses may arise. As for other groups of cash-generating unit for which impairment losses on goodwill or intangible assets with indefinite useful lives were not recognized, the Group considers that significant impairment losses are unlikely to be incurred even if major assumptions used for impairment assessments change within a reasonably foreseeable range.

14. Income tax

(1) Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities

Net deferred tax assets (liabilities)	(8,038)	(3,392)	1,653	(597)	(10,373)

Differences between total amounts recognized as profit or loss and deferred tax expenses are attributable to the effect of exchange rate changes.

In evaluating the recoverability of deferred tax assets, the Group takes into account the scheduled reversal of deferred tax liabilities, estimated future taxable profit, and tax planning. As a result of evaluation on the recoverability of deferred tax assets, deferred tax assets are not recorded for part of deductible temporary differences and tax loss carryforwards.

Deductible temporary differences and tax loss carryforwards for which deferred tax assets are not recognized are as follows.

(Millions of Yen)

	Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2020 (as of December 31, 2020)	Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2021 (as of December 31, 2021)
Deductible temporary differences	3,230	4,338
Tax loss carryforwards	37,846	28,972
Total	41,076	33,310

The details of expiration of tax loss carryforwards for which deferred tax assets are not recognized are as follows.

(Millions of Yen)

	Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2020 (as of December 31, 2020)	Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2021 (as of December 31, 2021)

After one year through five years	4,573	3,662
After five years	31,871	24,289
Total	37,846	28,972

Total temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries which are not recognized as deferred tax liabilities were ¥8,129 million and ¥8,190 million at the end of the previous fiscal year and the end of the fiscal year under review, respectively.

Deferred tax liabilities are not recognized for these temporary differences since the Group is able to control the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences and the reversal is unlikely to occur in the foreseeable future.

(2) Income tax expenses

The details of income tax expenses are as follows.

(Millions of Yen)

	Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2020 (January 1, 2020 – December 31, 2020)	Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2021 (January 1, 2021 – December 31, 2021)
Current tax expenses	31,415	34,542
Deferred tax expenses	1,853	3,830
Total income tax expenses	33,268	38,372

Current tax expenses include benefits arising from previously unrecognized tax losses, tax credits, and temporary differences for prior periods. A decrease in current tax expenses due to the above factor was ¥260 million and ¥9 million for the previous fiscal year and the fiscal year under review, respectively.

The relationship between the effective statutory tax rate and the actual effective tax rate of the Group is as follows. The effective statutory tax rate is calculated based on a national corporate tax, an inhabitant tax, and an enterprise tax of Japan. Overseas subsidiaries are subject to local corporate and other taxes.

	Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2020 (January 1, 2020 – December 31, 2020)	Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2021 (January 1, 2021 – December 31, 2021)

18. Employee benefits

(1) Overview of retirement benefit plans

The Company and some of its subsidiaries have defined benefit corporate pension plans and lump-sum benefit plans (funded and unfunded) as defined benefit plans. The amounts of benefits are determined based on evaluation factors, including the number of years of service, ability and job grades, and position.

The Company's defined benefit corporate pension plans are managed by the Unicharm corporate pension fund (hereinafter "pension fund") that is separate from the Company in accordance with relevant laws and regulations. The administrative board of the pension fund and the pension management entrusted organization are required by laws and regulations to take actions by giving top priority to the interests of plan participants, and bear the responsibility to manage plan assets based on given policies. Employers are obliged to make contributions to the fund.

The pension fund outsources the management of plan assets to a financial institution and prepares a portfolio for the purpose of securing stable returns under acceptable risks in order to ensure future payments based on retirement benefit corporate pension plans. The portfolio is reviewed if necessary when the original premises or other items change significantly.

The Company's lump-sum benefit plans may pay retirement benefits from trust assets mainly based on retirement benefit trust contracts. They outsource liquid and low risk management centered on debt securities to a financial institution in order to make payments according to funding needs for future lump-sum benefit payments.

Plan assets are exposed to investment risk relating to financial instruments, and defined benefit obligations, which are measured based on various actuarial assumptions, such as discount rates, are exposed to risk resulting from changes in these assumptions.

In addition to defined benefit plans, the Company and some of its subsidiaries have defined contribution plans.

(2) Defined benefit plans

1) Amounts recognized in the consolidated statement of financial position

The relationship between defined benefit obligations and plan assets, and amounts recognized in the consolidated statement of financial position is as follows.

	(Millions of Yen)
	Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2020 (as of December 31, 2020)	Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2021 (as of December 31, 2021)

20. Equity

(1) Capital stock and share premium

Changes in the total number of shares authorized and the number of outstanding shares are as follows.

	Total number of shares authorized (Thousands of Shares)	Number of outstanding shares (Thousands of Shares)
Balance at January 1, 2020	827,779	620,834
Increase during the period	—	—
Decrease during the period	—	—
Balance at December 31, 2020	827,779	620,834
Increase during the period	—	—
Decrease during the period	—	—
Balance at December 31, 2021	827,779	620,834

All shares issued by the Company are no-par common shares. All outstanding shares were fully paid in.

Share premium consists of legal capital surplus and other capital surplus. The Companies Act of Japan prescribes that at least 50% of the payment in or delivery relating to the issuance of shares must be incorporated into capital stock and the remaining amount must be incorporated into legal capital surplus.

The Act also prescribes that legal capital surplus may be incorporated into capital stock upon resolution at the General Meeting of Shareholders.

If share premium is negative due to a difference between additional equity in subsidiaries and additional investment, share premium is treated as zero and the remaining amount is reduced from retained earnings.

(2) Retained earnings

Retained earnings consist of legal retained earnings and other retained earnings. The Companies Act prescribes that 10% of any appropriation to shareholders from retained earnings must be set aside as legal capital surplus or legal retained earnings until the total amount of legal capital surplus and legal retained earnings reaches 25% of capital stock.

Legal retained earnings set aside may be appropriated for deficit disposition. Moreover, legal retained earnings may be reversed upon resolution at the General Meeting of Shareholders.

(3) Treasury shares

Changes in treasury shares are as follows.

	Number of shares (Thousands of Shares)	Amount (Millions of Yen)
Balance at January 1, 2020	24,605	58,769

22. Revenue

(1) Breakdown of revenue

Net sales of the Group comprise revenue generated from goods transferred to a customer at a certain point in time. Net sales of each reportable segment are broken down based on the locations of consolidated companies. The breakdown of the net sales is as follows.

(Millions of Yen)

	Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2020 (January 1, 2020 – December 31, 2020)	Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2021 (January 1, 2021 – December 31, 2021)

Other (Note 2)	7,024	6,143
Total	727,475	782,723

Notes: 1. Net sales for the pet care business are mainly those in Japan and the North American region (the region categorized into Other).

2. Net sales for the other businesses are mainly those in Japan.

(2) Receivables, contract assets and contract liabilities that arise from contracts with customers

Receivables that arise from contracts with customers are notes and account receivables - trade included in "Trade and other receivables." At the end of the previous fiscal year and in the fiscal year under review, the amounts of contract assets and contract liabilities as well as the amount of revenue recognized upon fulfillment of performance obligations during prior periods have no materiality. The contract assets and contract liabilities are included in "Trade and other receivables" and "Other current liabilities," respectively.

(3) Transaction prices allocated to remaining performance obligations

The Group has no material transactions whose expected agreement period each is more than one year. Hence, a practical expedient is applied so that information about remaining performance obligations is omitted. There is no material amount of a consideration arising from a contract with a customer that is not included in transaction prices.

(4) Assets recognized from costs needed to secure or fulfill contracts with customers

At the end of the previous fiscal year and in the fiscal year under review, the amounts of assets recognized from costs needed to secure or fulfill contracts with customers have no materiality. When the amortization period for assets that should be recognized is one year or less, a practical expedient is applied so that the increase in the cost of securing a contract is recognized as an expense as incurred.

(2) Restricted share-based remuneration plan

1) Outline of the restricted share-based remuneration plan

The Group has introduced a restricted share-based remuneration plan for the purpose of providing incentives for the sustainable enhancement of corporate value and sharing shareholder value.

Under this plan, monetary compensation claims are granted to allocate restricted shares to Directors of the Company other than Outside Directors and Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members, Executive Officers and Associate Officers who do not concurrently serve as Directors (hereinafter the “Eligible Directors, etc.”), and employees of the Group (hereinafter the “Eligible Employees”), and the Company issues or disposes of the Company’s common shares to the Eligible Directors, etc. and the Eligible Employees through the contribution in kind of such monetary compensation claims, and allows them to hold such shares.

The Company has entered into an allotment agreement of restricted shares with the Eligible Directors, etc. and the Eligible Employees, which includes that the Eligible Directors, etc. and the Eligible Employees may not transfer, grant security interests or otherwise dispose of the Company’s common shares delivered under the allotment agreement (hereinafter the “Allotted Shares”) during the transfer restriction period stipulated in the allotment agreement and that the Company will acquire the Allotted Shares without consideration if certain events occur.

Restrictions on transfer of all of the Allotted Shares will be lifted at the expiration of the restriction period, provided that the eligible Director continues to hold the position of Director of the Company during the period from the disposal date to the time immediately preceding the conclusion of the first Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders thereafter (hereinafter the “Service Period”). Restrictions on transfer of all of the Allotted Shares will be lifted at the expiration of the restriction period, provided that the eligible Executive Officers and Associate Officers continuously hold the position of Director, Executive Officer and Associate Officers who do not concurrently serve as Directors of the Company during the period of the mandate agreement (hereinafter the “Mandate Agreement Period”) for the fiscal year to which the disposal date belongs. Restrictions on transfer of all of the Allotted Shares will be lifted at the expiration of the restriction period, provided that the eligible employee continues to hold one of the positions of employee of the Company or its subsidiaries or any other equivalent position during the restriction period.

However, the Company will acquire the Allotted Shares whose transfer restrictions have not been lifted at the expiration of the restriction period, without contribution.

2) Number and fair value of shares granted during the period

	Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2020 (January 1, 2020 – December 31, 2020)	Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2021 (January 1, 2021 – December 31, 2021)
Date of grant	March 25, 2020	March 26, 2021
Number of shares granted	1,641,900	106,080
Restricted period	Of the number of restricted shares allocated, 80,800 shares will be restricted from the date of allocation until April 23, 2023, and 1,561,100 shares will be restricted from the date of allocation until July 1, 2025. (Note 1) (Note 3)	Of the number of restricted shares allocated, 64,000 shares will be restricted from the date of allocation until April 22, 2024, and 42,080 shares will be restricted from the date of allocation until July 1, 2025. (Note 2) (Note 3)
Fair value at grant date (Yen)	3,631	4,609

- Notes: 1. As a general rule, if an eligible Director, etc. resigns or retires from the position of Director, etc. of the Company due to expiration of the Service Period, expiration of term of office, mandatory retirement age or any other justifiable reason (except in the case of resignation or retirement due to death), the restrictions on transfer will be lifted at the time immediately after the resignation or retirement of the eligible Director, etc. or on April 1, 2021, whichever is later. In the case of retirement or resignation due to death, the restrictions on transfer will be lifted at a time separately determined by the Board of Directors after the death of the eligible Director, etc. However, notwithstanding the above provisions, if the eligible Director, etc. resigns or retires due to death by the time immediately preceding April 1, 2021, the Company will naturally acquire all of the Allotted Shares held at that time for no consideration.
2. As a general rule, if an eligible Director, etc. resigns or retires from the position of Director, etc. of the Company due to expiration of the Service Period, expiration of term of office, mandatory retirement age or any other justifiable reason (except in the case of resignation or retirement due to death), the restrictions on transfer will be lifted at the time immediately after the resignation or retirement of the eligible Director, etc. or on April 1, 2022, whichever is later. In the case of retirement or resignation due to death, the restrictions on transfer will be lifted at a time separately determined by the Board of Directors after the death of the eligible Director, etc. However, notwithstanding the above provisions, if the eligible Director, etc. resigns or retires due to death by the time immediately preceding April 1, 2022, the Company will naturally acquire all of the Allotted Shares held at that time for no consideration.
3. If an eligible employee retires (including retirement due to death) due to mandatory retirement age or other legitimate reasons, even from the position of employee of the Company or its subsidiaries or any other equivalent position, the restriction on transfer of all of the Allotted Shares will be lifted as of the time immediately following the eligible employee’s retirement.

(3) Share-based payment expenses

Return on equity attributable to owners of parent (ROE) (%)	10.8	13.8

(4) Financial risk management

The Group's activities are exposed to various financial risks, such as market risk (including foreign exchange risk, price risk, and interest rate risk), credit risk, and liquidity risk. The Group uses derivative transactions in order to hedge foreign exchange risk. Derivative transactions consist of foreign exchange forward contracts, non-deliverable forwards and currency swaps for hedging exchange rate change risk related to foreign currency-denominated receivables and obligations. These transactions are executed and managed in accordance with internal rules and limited to transactions based on actual demand.

The Group is not exposed to material concentration risk in relation to financial instruments.

1) Market risk

(a) Foreign exchange risk

The Group manufactures and sells products overseas and engages in foreign currency transactions for the import of materials and products and export of products. The Group is exposed to foreign exchange risk as a result of its overseas business operations. Foreign exchange risk arises from forward exchange transaction and recognized assets and liabilities.

The Group uses foreign exchange forward contracts, non-deliverable forwards and currency swaps for hedging cash flow exchange rate change risk captured by currency.

Derivatives

The outline of major derivatives executed by the Group for controlling exchange rate change risk is as follows. Derivative assets or liabilities are included in other financial assets or liabilities in the consolidated statement of financial position.

Foreign exchange sensitivity analysis

The foreign exchange sensitivity analysis indicates the impact of a 10% appreciation of the Japanese yen on profit before tax in the consolidated statement of income with respect to net foreign exchange risk exposures as of the reporting date. This analysis assumes that all the other variables are constant. The major exposures are to the U.S. dollar and the Chinese yuan. If the Japanese yen were to depreciate by 10%, it would have the opposite effect in the same amount as shown in the table below.

(Millions of Yen)

	Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2020 (January 1, 2020 – December 31, 2020)	Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2021 (January 1, 2021 – December 31, 2021)

(b) Price risk

Equity instruments held by the Group are mainly shares related to businesses or capital alliances with business partners and shares acquired as part of management of surplus funds under the low interest rate environment, and include no equity instruments held for short-term trading. Equity instruments include listed and unlisted shares and are exposed to market price fluctuation risk. The Group periodically captures fair values, financial conditions of issuers, and other factors, and manages its holdings by reviewing them in consideration of its relationships with counterparties.

Sensitivity analysis

The following table shows the impact on other comprehensive income (before tax effect) in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income of a 10% decline in the share price of listed shares held by the Group.

This analysis assumes that the other variables are constant.

Other comprehensive income, before tax effect	(2,344)	(3,112)

(c) Interest rate risk

In conducting business activities, the Group pays interest accrued for raising working capital and funds necessary for capital investments and others. Part of the interest is exposed to interest rate fluctuation risk because it is subject to variable interest rates. However, cash and cash equivalents exceeding interest-bearing debts are maintained. Interest rate risk is small since the impact of interest payments on the Group is currently immaterial.

2) Credit risk

Credit risk is financial loss risk to be taken by the Group if a customer or a financial instruments business partner fails to perform its contractual obligations.

The Group determines whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk based on changes in the risk of default occurring, and in making this determination, the Group considers factors such as deterioration in the business performance of the counterparty and information on the passage of due dates.

With respect to cash and cash equivalents, derivatives, financial assets measured at amortized cost, debt instruments measured at fair value through other comprehensive income, etc., the credit risk is minimal because the Company only transacts with financial institutions that it judges to have high creditworthiness.

Trade and other receivables are exposed to customer credit risk. With respect to such risk, the sales administration department is monitoring major business partners' status periodically, controlling collection due dates and outstanding balances per business partner in order to identify and reduce doubtful receivables resulting from deterioration of business partners' financial positions at an early stage in accordance with the Sales Administration Regulations. Credit risk is not concentrated on any particular business partner.

These financial assets are considered to be credit-impaired financial assets when they are considered to be in default, such as when they are significantly past due.

When all or part of a financial asset is assessed to be uncollectible and the Group determines that it is appropriate to amortize the asset as a result of a credit check, the Group directly amortizes the carrying amount of the financial asset.

The carrying amount of financial assets presented in the consolidated financial statements after impairment is the Company's maximum credit risk exposures without considering the valuation of collateral acquired.

3) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk refers to the risk that the Group will not be able to fulfill its obligations related to financial liabilities such as trade payables and borrowings.

To address this liquidity risk, the Group invests temporary surpluses in low risk financial assets for fund management. It raises funds through measures selected based on financial conditions and market environments. Moreover, the Group manages liquidity risk by maintaining liquidity on hand, as well as having the Accounting Control & Finance Division timely prepare and update cash management plans based on reports, etc. from each department.

Financial liabilities by maturity are as follows. The amounts presented are contractual non-discounted cash flows.

(5) Fair value of financial instruments

1) Financial assets and financial liabilities measured at fair value

The Group categorizes the fair value hierarchy into the following three levels according to the observability of inputs used for fair value measurements in the market.

- Level 1: Unadjusted quoted price of identical assets or identical liabilities in an active market
- Level 2: Directly or indirectly observable input which does not belong to Level 1
- Level 3: Unobservable input

Financial assets and financial liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis by the Group are as follows.

Total	–	59	–	59

The Group transfers the fair value hierarchy between levels when it recognizes an event or a change in conditions which causes the transfer.

In the third quarter of the previous fiscal year, a transfer from Level 1 to Level 2 had been made due to the delisting (as of September 29, 2020) of stocks held by the Company in connection with the transition to a holding company structure (as of October 1, 2020), and as of the end of the previous fiscal year, a transfer from Level 2 to Level 1 had been made due to the listing of the holding company (as of October 1, 2020).

In the third quarter of the fiscal year under review, a transfer from Level 1 to Level 2 had been made due to the delisting (as of September 29, 2021) of stocks held by the Company in connection with the acquisition of 100% ownership (as of October 1, 2021), and as of the end of the fiscal year under review, a transfer from Level 2 to Level 1 had been made due to the allotment of shares in the wholly owning parent company through a share exchange in connection with the acquisition of 100% ownership (as of October 1, 2021).

Fair value calculation methods are as follows.

Debt securities

The fair value of debt securities is calculated using valuations presented by creditor financial institutions.

The quoted valuations are calculated using the discounted cash flow method with discount rate inputs that take into account market interest rates and credit spreads.

Derivative assets and derivative liabilities

The fair value of foreign exchange forward contracts and non-deliverable forwards is calculated based on the forward exchange rate at the end of each fiscal period. The fair value of currency swaps is calculated based on observable market data, such as interest rates presented by creditor financial institutions and other parties.

Shares

The fair value of marketable shares is calculated based on the market price at the end of each fiscal period. The fair value of unlisted shares is calculated using appropriate valuation techniques, such as the comparable company analysis method.

Changes in financial instruments categorized in Level 3 during each fiscal year are as follows.

(Millions of Yen)

	Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2020 (January 1, 2020 – December 31, 2020)	Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2021 (January 1, 2021 – December 31, 2021)

Profit or loss (Note 1)	(4)	(5)
Other comprehensive income (Note 2)	149	(404)
Purchase	6,103	13,003
Sale and settlement	(3,000)	(5,000)
Balance at end of period	7,615	15,209

- Notes: 1. Gains or losses included in profit or loss pertain to financial assets measured at fair value through profit or loss. The profit and loss are included in “Financial income” and “Financial costs.”
2. Gains or losses included in other comprehensive income pertain to equity instruments measured at fair value through other comprehensive income, and are included in “Net changes in equity instruments measured at fair value through other comprehensive income” and “Exchange differences on translation in foreign operations” in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income.

Financial instruments categorized in Level 3 are mainly composed of debt securities and unlisted shares.

Significant unobservable inputs for financial instruments categorized in Level 3 are mainly credit risk and illiquidity discounts, and the fair value decreases (increases) with higher (lower) credit risk or illiquidity discounts. Changes in the fair value in the case where unobservable inputs are replaced by reasonably possible alternative assumptions are not material.

The department in charge determines the valuation methods for each asset and measures fair value in accordance with valuation policies and procedures for fair value measurements. The results of fair value measurements are approved by the appropriate person in charge.

2) Carrying amount and fair value of financial assets and financial liabilities measured at amortized cost

The carrying amount and fair value of financial instruments measured at amortized cost as of each closing date are as follows. The following table does not include financial instruments whose carrying amount reasonably approximates their fair value (mainly trade and other receivables, time deposits with maturities over three months, and trade and other payables).

	Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2020 (as of December 31, 2020)		Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2021 (as of December 31, 2021)
	Carrying amount	Fair value	Carrying amount	Fair value
<Financial assets>
Debt securities	–	–	8,320	8,322
<Financial liabilities>
Borrowings	33,176	33,169	38,314	38,314

Note: The fair value of debt securities and borrowings is Level 2 and Level 3.

Fair value calculation methods are as follows.

Debt securities

The fair value of debt securities is calculated using valuations presented by creditor financial institutions.

The quoted valuations are calculated using the discounted cash flow method with discount rate inputs that take into account market interest rates and credit spreads.

Borrowings

The fair value of borrowings is estimated by discounting future cash flows to the present value with an interest rate applicable to similar new borrowings by the Group. Borrowings with variable interest rates have a carrying amount which approximates their fair value since the interest rates are revised periodically.

35. Contingent liabilities

Unicharm India Private Ltd., a subsidiary of the Company, is subject to import tariff exemption applied under the Export Promotion Capital Goods (EPCG) scheme set forth in the foreign trade policy of the Indian Government. However, the said scheme requires achievement of exports calculated by multiplying the amount of exempted tariffs by a certain rate within a set period of time and we are required to pay later the amount of exempted tariffs, etc. corresponding to any portion of the said requirements that is not achieved.

The Company believes that it is highly likely that it will be able to achieve the requirements over the period between 2023 and 2025 according to the projected export volume of products based on the business plan. The Company estimates that the potential amount of customs duty reductions and exemptions and interest on overdue payments to be paid in the event that the requirements are not achieved will be ¥1,795 million.

36. Additional information

(Impact of the spread of COVID-19)

With regard to the impact of the spread of COVID-19, although it is difficult to predict how it will spread going forward, when it will come under control, etc., the Group has prepared accounting estimates based on information available as of the end of the fiscal year under review, and judged that the impact on the fiscal year under review will be insignificant.

37. Subsequent events

Notes to Non-consolidated Financial Statements

(Significant accounting policies)

1. Valuation standards and methods for securities
 - (1) Held-to-maturity debt securities
Amortized cost method (straight-line method)
 - (2) Shares of subsidiaries and associates
Cost method by the moving-average method
 - (3) Available-for-sale securities
Those with market value:
Market value method based on the market price, etc. as of the fiscal closing date
(the valuation difference is directly included in net assets, and cost of sales is determined by the moving-average method.)
Those without market value:
Cost method by the moving-average method
2. Valuation methods for derivative financial instruments
Market value method
3. Valuation standards and methods for inventories
Inventories held for ordinary selling purpose:
Valuation standard is cost method (carrying amount is written down due to decreased profitability)
 - (1) Merchandise and finished goods
Gross average method
 - (2) Supplies
Specific identification method
 - (3) Raw materials
Moving-average method
4. Depreciation of non-current assets
 - (1) Property, plant and equipment (excluding leased assets)
Straight-line method
Major useful lives are as follows:

Buildings and structures	2 – 50 years
Machinery, equipment and vehicles	2 – 17 years
 - (2) Intangible assets (excluding leased assets)
Straight-line method
As major useful lives, goodwill is amortized within 20 years after incurred, trademarks are amortized over 10 years, and software (for internal use) is amortized over the internally estimated useful lives (5 years).
 - (3) Leased assets
Leased assets related to finance lease transactions which do not transfer ownerships to the lessee
Leased assets are depreciated over the lease terms as useful lives using the straight-line method without any residual value.
5. Translation of foreign currency denominated assets and liabilities into Japanese yen
Foreign currency denominated monetary receivables and payables are translated into Japanese yen using the spot exchange rate on the closing date and the translation difference is charged or credited to income.

6. Accounting standards for reserves and allowances

(1) Allowance for doubtful accounts

In order to prepare for possible credit losses on receivables, the Company records the estimated amount of non-recoverable receivables based on the historical loss rate for general receivables and specific collectability for specific doubtful receivables.

(2) Allowance for loss on valuation of investments in subsidiaries and affiliates

In order to provide for a decline in the value of investments in subsidiaries and affiliates, an amount according to the decline in actual value is recorded.

(3) Provision for bonuses

In order to prepare for payments of bonuses to the employees, the estimated payable amount attributable to the fiscal year under review is recorded as provision for bonuses.

(4) Provision for retirement benefits

In order to prepare for employees' retirement benefits, provision for retirement benefits is recorded based on the retirement benefit obligations and estimated plan assets as of the current fiscal year-end.

1) Period attribution method for estimated retirement benefits

In calculating retirement benefit obligations, the method of attributing the estimated amount of retirement benefits to the periods up to the end of the fiscal year under review is based on the benefit formula basis.

2) Accounting method for actuarial difference and past service cost

Past service cost is expensed at the amount divided proportionally using the straight-line method over a period of definite years (5 years) within the employees' average remaining service years when incurred.

Actuarial difference is expensed at the amount divided proportionally using the straight-line method over a period of definite years (10 years) within the employees' average remaining service years in each fiscal year when it is incurred, commencing from the fiscal year following the fiscal year in which the difference is incurred.

7. Other significant accounting policies concerning the preparation of financial statements

(1) Accounting for retirement benefits

The accounting methods of unrecognized actuarial gain and loss and unrecognized past service cost differ from those of the consolidated financial statements.

(2) Accounting for consumption taxes

Transactions subject to consumption taxes and local consumption taxes are recorded at amounts exclusive of consumption taxes.

(Significant accounting estimates)

Valuation of investments in shares and capital of subsidiaries and affiliates

(1) Amounts recorded in the non-consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year under review

Investments in shares and capital of subsidiaries and affiliates	¥192,615 million
Allowance for loss on valuation of investments in subsidiaries and affiliates	¥5,475 million
Loss on valuation of investments in shares and capital of subsidiaries and affiliates	¥8,184 million

Of the above amounts, the major losses on valuation of investments in shares and capital of subsidiaries and affiliates that were recorded for the fiscal year under review are as follows.

(Millions of Yen)
	Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2021
Shares of Unicharm Australasia Holding Pty Ltd. (after recording of loss on valuation)	723
Loss on valuation of shares of Unicharm Australasia Holding Pty Ltd.	8,184
Reversal of allowance for loss on valuation of investments in shares of subsidiaries and affiliates pertaining to shares of Unicharm Australasia Holding Pty Ltd.	1,919
Investments in capital of UNICHARM DO BRASIL INDÚSTRIA E COMÉRCIO DE PRODUTOS DE HIGIENE LTDA. (after recording of loss on valuation)	7,497
Reversal of allowance for loss on valuation of investments in shares of subsidiaries and affiliates pertaining to UNICHARM DO BRASIL INDÚSTRIA E COMÉRCIO DE PRODUTOS DE HIGIENE LTDA.	15,062
Gain on reversal of allowance for loss on valuation of investments in subsidiaries and affiliates that resulted from the reversal of allowance for loss on valuation of investments in shares of subsidiaries and affiliates pertaining to investments in capital of UNICHARM DO BRASIL INDÚSTRIA E COMÉRCIO DE PRODUTOS DE HIGIENE LTDA.	163

With regard to the shares of ¥723 million in Unicharm Australasia Holding Pty Ltd., a subsidiary that sells mainly personal care products in Australia, we considered that the excess earnings power expected at the time of share acquisition had decreased. Since the actual value that reflects the decrease in excess earnings power has significantly declined, the allowance for loss on valuation of investments in subsidiaries and affiliates of ¥1,919 million was reversed, and the loss on valuation of investments in shares and capital of subsidiaries and affiliates of ¥8,184 million was recorded, with the amount based on the net assets per value as the actual value.

With regard to the investments of ¥7,497 million in capital of UNICHARM DO BRASIL INDÚSTRIA E COMÉRCIO DE PRODUTOS DE HIGIENE LTDA., a subsidiary that manufactures and sells mainly personal care products in Brazil, the allowance for loss on valuation of investments in subsidiaries and affiliates of ¥15,062 million was reversed since the actual value has significantly declined and future business plans will unlikely help it recover. With the reversal of the allowance for loss on valuation of investments in subsidiaries and affiliates, a gain on reversal of allowance for loss on valuation of investments in subsidiaries and affiliates of ¥163 million was recorded.

(2) Information about the details of significant accounting estimates pertaining to identified items

Investments in shares and capital of subsidiaries and affiliates with no market price are the value at acquisition cost presented on the balance sheet. If the actual value calculated based on net assets significantly declines due to deterioration of the financial position of the company that has issued these shares, the value of these investments are considerably reduced so that the valuation difference is recognized as a loss for the fiscal year under review, except when the possibility of recovery is supported by ample evidence such as business plans. As for shares acquired at a value higher than the net assets per share that are obtained from the financial statements as a reflection of excess earnings power, if the excess earnings power is considered to have been decreased, the actual value reflects the said decrease.

When the actual value dropped to a certain extent while it has not significantly declined, and when a significant decline in the actual value was not recorded as impairment because the value is expected to recover, an amount that is equivalent to the decline is processed as an allowance for loss on valuation of investments in subsidiaries and affiliates. When investments in shares and capital of subsidiaries and affiliates are valued, certain assumptions, such as net sales growth rate, are set for estimates in business plans, among others.

As for the valuation of investments in shares and capital of subsidiaries and affiliates, whether the actual value will likely recover is judged and excess earnings power is assessed based on an analysis that is grounded on a comparison between business plans and actual results. The valuation may be affected by changes in economic conditions given future uncertainties. If the business environment of subsidiaries and affiliates worsens due to unforeseen circumstances, the amounts of investments in shares and capital of subsidiaries and affiliates and of allowance for loss on valuation of investments in subsidiaries and affiliates in the financial statements for the following fiscal year may be materially affected.

(Accounting standards but not yet adopted)

- Accounting Standard for Revenue Recognition (ASBJ Statement No. 29, March 31, 2020)
- Implementation Guidance on Accounting Standard for Revenue Recognition (ASBJ Guidance No. 30, March 31, 2020)

(1) Overview

This is a comprehensive accounting standard related to revenue recognition. The following five steps are applied when revenue is recognized.

- Step 1: Identify the contract(s) with a customer
- Step 2: Identify the performance obligations in the contract
- Step 3: Determine the transaction price
- Step 4: Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract
- Step 5: Recognize revenue when or as the entity satisfies a performance obligation

(2) Scheduled date of adoption

This standard will be adopted starting from the beginning of the fiscal year ending December 31, 2022.

(3) Impact of the adoption of the accounting standard, etc.

The adoption of the Accounting Standard for Revenue Recognition, etc. will have no material impact on the financial statements.

(Changes in the presentation method)

(Adoption of the Accounting Standard for Disclosure of Accounting Estimates)

The Accounting Standard for Disclosure of Accounting Estimates (ASBJ Statement No. 31, March 31, 2020) has been adopted starting from the financial statements as of the end of the fiscal year under review, so that the financial statements include notes regarding significant accounting estimates. However, these notes do not include details pertaining to the previous fiscal year in accordance with the transitional treatment specified in the proviso to paragraph 11 of the Standard.

(Non-consolidated statement of income)

The account title that was presented as “Loss on valuation of shares of subsidiaries and affiliates” in extraordinary losses in the previous fiscal year is presented as “Loss on valuation of investments in shares and capital of subsidiaries and affiliates” starting from the fiscal year under review so that the title more faithfully reflects the reality.

(Additional information)

(Impact of the spread of COVID-19)

With regard to the impact of the spread of COVID-19, although it is difficult to predict how it will spread going forward, when it will come under control, etc., the Group has prepared accounting estimates based on information available as of the end of the fiscal year under review, and judged that the impact on the fiscal year under review will be insignificant.
