June 2022 Monthly YoY Change in Sales and Number of Company-owned Stores

Monthly review

A recovery in people's mobility continued to be seen in June. Meanwhile, the rainy seasons ended late in the month, earliest since record-keeping began, and then temperatures surged to record highs for the time of year at many places in Japan.

As a result, in June, all stores sales increased by 25.6% and same stores sales including period with shorter business hours and excluding it increased by 6.6% and decreased by 4.9%, respectively year on year.

*We planned a 14.4% increase of same stores sales including the period on an annual basis at the time of formulation of forecast of the fiscal year ending October 31, 2022.
