Notice Regarding Exclusive Sales Agreement for DK MEDTECH's "Coronary Scoring Balloon Dilatation Catheter" in the Chinese Market

Asahi Intecc Group announces that its consolidated subsidiary, Asahi Intecc Scientific (Beijing) Co., Ltd. has concluded an exclusive sales agreement with Dingke Medical Technology (Suzhou) Co., Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as "DK MEDTECH"), for the "DK Score™ Coronary Scoring Balloon Dilatation Catheter" manufactured by Chinese medical device company DK MEDTECH.

1. Overview

In China, about 1.16 million cases of PCI (percutaneous coronary intervention) are performed in a year, and the number of cases is increasing over the medium to long term. In order to perform a large number of PCI procedures with a high success rate, proper pre-treatment of the stenosis becomes increasingly important.

The "DK Score™ Coronary Scoring Balloon Dilatation Catheter" manufactured by DK MEDTECH is a useful balloon catheter for pre-treatment of stenotic areas, featuring excellent passage performance and dilatation.

The Group has signed an exclusive sales agreement with DK MEDTECH for the "DK Score™ Coronary Scoring Balloon Dilatation Catheter" in the Chinese market from September 2022 to December 31, 2025. The Group has gained the top share of the global market for PCI guidewires. By providing more treatment options, the Group will contribute to the spread and development of minimally invasive treatment and solidify our overall number one position in the cardiovascular field.
