The corporate governance of Keio Corporation (the “Company”) is described below.

I. Basic Views on Corporate Governance, Capital Structure, Corporate Profile and Other Basic Information

I. 1. Basic Views

(Basic Views on Corporate Governance)

Aiming to secure a position as the “Top Brand in Trust,” as set forth in the “Keio Group Philosophy,” the Group is advancing the “creation of the preferred lifestyle, location and rail line” based on the “Keio Group Code of Conduct.” With our railway business in particular, we have formulated our “Basic Policy on Safety” and a “Code of Conduct for Employees in Regard to Safety” in order to become a trusted and much-loved railway, and all employees are working as one, striving to build a culture of safety.

As a railway business operator, the Company ensures safety and business continuity as it makes prompt and decisive decision making that ensures transparency and fairness pursuant to the “Keio Group Philosophy.” Through these efforts, in order to secure the trust of our shareholders and all other people with whom we have connections, and to achieve sustainable growth of the Group and greater mid- to long-term corporate value, the Company will strive to promote the enhancement and strengthening of its corporate governance based on the following basic policy.

(Basic Policy on Corporate Governance)

1. Ensuring the rights and equal treatment of shareholders

- To fully secure rights and fairness for various shareholders, the Company discloses necessary information in a timely and appropriate manner, and together with this, creates an environment which enables shareholders to properly execute such rights.

2. Appropriate cooperation with stakeholders other than shareholders

- The Company is fully aware that sustainable corporate growth and creation of corporate value are supported by all those who are involved with the Company. While striving to appropriately work together in sincerity with stakeholders, we endeavor to foster a corporate culture and atmosphere where sound business activity ethics are respected.

3. Ensuring appropriate information disclosure and transparency

- In line with its “Disclosure Policy,” the Company not only strives to make information disclosure in a timely and appropriate manner in compliance with laws and regulations, but to take the initiative in providing information beyond that required by laws and regulations, and improving the utility of such information.

4. Responsibilities of the Board of Directors

- The Company’s Board of Directors shapes the direction of the Group’s management strategy, and conducts highly effective management supervision within the defined scope of delegation to the senior management.
- Directors of the Company are constantly aware of their fiduciary responsibilities and accountability to shareholders, and conduct decision making pursuant to appropriate procedures that adhere to the “Management Judgment Principles” defined by the Company.
- As advisory bodies to the Board of Directors, the Company establishes its Governance Committee and Nomination and Compensation Committee so as to improve Group governance and ensure management transparency.

5. Dialogue with shareholders

- The Company regularly engages in constructive dialogue with shareholders, listening to them and paying due attention to their interests and concerns. In addition to this, the senior management clearly explains management policy to shareholders in an easy-to-understand manner, and strives to gain a balanced understanding with regard to the standpoints of all those with whom it has connections, including shareholders.

6. Formulation, amendment and abolition of this Basic Policy

- Formulation, amendment and abolition of the Basic Policy is conducted through resolution of the Board of Directors.

[Reasons for Non-compliance with the Principles of the Corporate Governance Code]

This report has been prepared based on the Corporate Governance Code revised in June 2021.

[Supplementary principle 2-3-1][Supplementary principle 3-1-3][Supplementary principle 4-2-2]
Sustainability initiatives

As a corporate group responsible for providing transportation services of a highly public nature and social infrastructure, the Company has dedicated its efforts to realizing a sustainable society through all aspects of its business activities, thereby contributing to regional development and creating a happy life for people.

In particular, based on the understanding that “safety is our greatest mission and our best service” in the railway business, we have established a company-wide safety management system to build railways with safety as a top priority, in accordance with the “Basic Policy on Safety” and “Code of Conduct for Employees in Regard to Safety.” Furthermore, the Company strives to ensure business continuity even in the event of emergency, including natural disasters, by developing its risk management system and BCP (business continuity plan).

On the social front, we carry out CSR activities under the concept of the “creation of the preferred lifestyle, location and rail line” as stated in the Group’s management vision. We fulfill our social responsibilities through our business activities for the child-rearing generation, housing for the elderly, livelihood support and other businesses, thereby contributing to the creation of railway lines that foster an environment where multiple generations can interact with each other and live harmoniously.

In terms of the environment, we have been continuously operating our environmental management system pursuant to the “Keio Group’s Basic Environmental Policy.” We have been proactively working to reduce the amount of power used to operate our trains, which accounts for the majority of our power consumption, and in fiscal 2012, we became the first major private railway company to achieve 100% VVVF inverter control for commercial train cars. We will continue to take action to achieve the CO₂ emissions reduction target set by the Japanese government, while paying close attention to the advancement of environmental technologies.

We are currently reviewing our commitment to sustainability with reference to international frameworks and disclosure guidelines. We will lay out the significance of the Company’s existence and material issues and work toward the formulation of a basic policy on sustainability.

In addition, the Company has started to discuss information disclosure based on the TCFD framework. We aim for an earliest possible disclosure.

Please refer to the Company’s website for the progress of discussion.

[Disclosure Based on the Principles of the Corporate Governance Code]

[Principle 1-3] Basic strategy for capital policy

The Company strives to achieve sustainable growth and enhance corporate value over the medium to long term while maintaining and strengthening a sound financial position.

We will invest in projects that will contribute to improving safety and service in the railways business, and expand acquisition of turnover assets and purchases of real estate for sale, etc. in the real estate business. With regard to financing, in light of the characteristics of the Company's mainstay railway business, the Company will maintain financial discipline, focusing on long-term debt (bonds payable and long-term borrowings). With an eye on planned large-scale development projects in the future, we have set interest-bearing debt, net interest-bearing debt/EBITDA multiple, and equity ratio as management target indicators. Given the highly public nature of the railway business, which the Company positions as a core business, the Company considers it vital to secure business continuity in its capital policy.

For that reason, in preparation for continuing business operations by swiftly restoring services in the event of a disaster, etc., and to fulfill our responsibilities on our own resources, we post general reserve in its capital.

With regard to shareholder returns, the Company pays dividends by following its basic policy of returning profits to shareholders by taking into account business performance, etc., while enhancing internal reserves necessary to strengthen the management base to prepare for future business development and changes in the business environment.

[Principle 1-4] Cross-shareholdings

The Company engages in business of a highly public nature, primarily the railway business, and considers it important to grow based on a mid- to long-term perspective. For that reason, it holds the shares of other companies when it has been determined that such holding will contribute to the Group's business continuity and enhancement of its corporate value.

The shares that are held are comprehensively examined from qualitative and quantitative perspectives. The former includes how the possession contributes to stable business operations and potentially maintains and strengthens business relationships, and the latter includes risks of share price fluctuations. If, as a result of such examination, the Company determines that the holding of such shares is neither worthwhile nor economically rational, it will consider the sale of these shares, and will work to reduce the number of shares held.

The Board of Directors verifies every year, based on the Company's standards for holding listed shares, whether the listed shares held carry significance in terms of business continuity and improvement of corporate value.

In addition, in the exercise of voting rights, from the perspective of raising corporate value over the mid- to long-term, and after verifying on an individual basis that there will be no significant damage to shareholder value, we will make an overall decision to approve or disapprove.

[Principle 1-7] Related party transactions

With regard to Directors' competing transactions, and transactions involving conflicts of interest, the Company, pursuant to laws and regulations, approves upon confirming the details of the transaction at the Board of Directors' meeting, and reports following the transaction.

In addition, with regard to transactions, etc. made between the Company or its consolidated subsidiaries and officers, or those with close relationships to such officers, the Company performs regular confirmation of the existence of such transactions.

[Supplementary principle 2-4-1] Ensuring diversity in the core human resources

As part of our efforts to comply with the "Act on the Promotion of Female Participation and Career Advancement in the Workplace" enacted in April 2016, we have set numerical targets and action plans to empower female employees, many of whom have been playing active roles in various fields, including as presidents of group companies. We are working to increase the ratio of female hires so as to form a candidate group that can be promoted to managerial positions, and by promoting human resources development, we are striving to increase the number of female employees promoted. Our goal is to increase the number of women in managerial positions by 30% by March 2026, compared to that as of April 2021. To this end, we are committed to making ongoing efforts.

Although we have not set specific targets for mid-career recruitment, we will focus on securing professional human resources able to implement management strategies and address management issues. As for recruitment of foreign nationals, we will take action after confirming the post-COVID-19 recovery in inbound tourism.

<Policy on human resources development toward ensuring diversity>

The Group is engaged in a wide range of businesses related to lifestyle services for people living along local railway lines, centered on the railway business. As our Group engages in a variety of businesses, not limited to the railway and development businesses, we believe that securing and training personnel with expertise and experience in the respective fields is essential to the development of our business operations, and by continuing to do so, we seek to secure diverse and specialized human resources for the Group as a whole. Furthermore, for young employees who are conscious about their careers, in addition to identifying their characteristics and developing their careers accordingly, the Company will maintain and strengthen the system that allows them to change their careers according to their wishes as well as the system that provides external career experience for that purpose. Moreover, as a way to foster and balance expertise and diversity, we provide a training program that enables employees to accumulate skills that can be demonstrated within the Group, during the base period from the time an employee joins the Company until he/she becomes a manager.

<Efforts to foster an environment conducive to human resources development and utilization>

In order to increase the engagement of employees with diverse values and lifestyles, we are working on the following initiatives for environmental improvement.

- Assign an employee in charge of promoting diversity in the Personnel Department to motivate employees with diverse perspectives to demonstrate their abilities.

- Promote diverse work styles, including the establishment of satellite offices and teleworking system free from location constraints, and flextime system unconstrained by fixed working hours.
- Develop a mechanism for facilitating women's empowerment, including systems for fertility treatment and maternity leave, childcare and nursing care leave, and leave of absence, as well as a rehiring system for employees who left the Company due to his/her spouse's career change.
- Encourage male employees to take childcare leave to achieve work-life balance.

[Principle 2-6] Roles of corporate pension funds as asset owners

The Company has established the Pension Committee with regard to the operation and management of the pension assets of corporate pension funds. The Company has formulated a basic policy that defines the principles and basic portfolio pertaining to pension asset management, and by utilizing a pension consultant, evaluates the asset managers from both an objective perspective as well as in quantitative and qualitative terms, and regularly conducts monitoring. In addition, the Company also ensures that conflicts of interest that may arise between a corporate pension beneficiary and the Company are properly managed.

[Principle 3-1] Full disclosure

The Company strives to provide information proactively, and discloses information as follows.

- Corporate Philosophy, Management Plan

Please refer to the information disclosed on the Company's website.

- Corporate Philosophy, Keio Group Code of Conduct

- Basic views and basic policy on corporate governance

Please refer to "I.1. Basic Views" in this report.

- Policies and procedures in determining the remuneration of senior management and Directors

Following the resolution made at the 99th Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 26, 2020, the Company overhauled the executive compensation system.

Compensation for Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members and Outside Directors) is categorized into base salary and annual performance-linked compensation that is linked to the Company's performance in each business year. In addition, we introduced a stock-based compensation plan.

Outside Directors and Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members are only paid base salary, taking into account their duties and other relevant factors.

The Company has set an appropriate level of compensation for each officer based on their responsibilities, taking into account each officer's position and other relevant factors. The Company has also adopted annual performance-linked compensation that is linked to the Company's performance in each business year, whereby a part of remuneration reflects the status of progress toward business results, in comprehensive consideration of consolidated operating profit and other factors in each fiscal year. Furthermore, a stock-based compensation plan has been introduced to raise the motivation of Directors to contribute to enhancing medium- to long-term performance and to maximizing shareholder value.

The Nomination and Compensation Committee deliberates on compensation amounts and submits its opinions to the Board of Directors to ensure management transparency. While respecting what has been discussed by the Nomination and Compensation Committee, the Board of Directors leaves it to the discretion of the President and Representative Director to determine compensation amounts for each Director (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) within the range not exceeding the total amount of compensation for Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members), which is set by a resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Compensation for Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members is determined through their discussions within the range not exceeding the total amount of compensation set by a resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

The Nomination and Compensation Committee, which is a voluntary advisory body to the Board of Directors and consists of members including Outside Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members), deliberates on executive compensation and verifies the appropriateness of compensation amounts.

The resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders regarding the Company's executive compensation was made on June 26, 2020. It set the amount of compensation for Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) at no greater than 420 million yen a year (of which, up to 40 million yen shall be allocated to Outside Directors), and the amount of compensation for Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members at no greater than 130 million yen a year. At the Board of Directors meeting held on March 1, 2021, the Company determined the "policy on determination of the content of individual remuneration for officers."

- Policies and procedures in the appointment/dismissal of senior management, the nomination of candidates for Director, and the appointment of Executive Officers

Nomination of candidates for Directors and appointment of Executive Officers is premised on candidates possessing qualities and insights suitable to that of an officer. For the positions of Directors (excluding Outside Directors and Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) and Executive Officers, an individual shall have a wealth of experience and capability that will enable contribution to increased corporate value, and for the positions of Directors who are full-time Audit and Supervisory Committee Members, the candidate shall have the ability to appropriately audit and supervise business executors. In addition, from the perspective of strengthening governance, the Company appoints Outside Directors (excluding Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) who possess experience and insights as corporate managers, and Outside Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members who have specialized knowledge with regard to finance, accounting, and legal affairs. In addition, if it is objectively deemed reasonable that an officer should be dismissed due to serious violation of laws and regulations, and the Articles of Incorporation, etc., the Nomination and Compensation Committee will deliberate, and then submit recommendations to the Board of Directors.

- Individual reasons for the appointment of Directors

The information is disclosed in Reference Documents (proposal for election) in the “Notice of the 101st Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders.”

<https://www.keio.co.jp/company/stockholder/shareholdersmeeting/index.html>

[Supplementary principle 4-1-1] Scope of matters delegated to the senior management

Pursuant to the Standard for Submitting Proposals for Meetings, the Company specifies the scope of matters to be delegated to the Board of Directors and the Management Committee made up of full-time Directors and full-time Executive Officers, making appropriate management decisions that adhere to standards. Matters addressed by the Management Committee are reported to the Board of Directors. In addition, the Company established new provisions in the Articles of Incorporation regarding the delegation of decision-making authority on the execution of important operations to the Company’s Directors in order to allow for swift decision-making.

[Principle 4-9] Criteria for determining the independence and qualifications of Independent Outside Directors

With regard to the Company’s “Criteria for Determining the Independence of Outside Officers,” please see “II. 1. [Independent Directors/Audit & Supervisory Board Members] Matters relating to Independent Directors/Audit & Supervisory Board Members” in this report.

[Supplementary principle 4-10-1] Utilization of the Nomination and Compensation Committee

It has been 16 years since the Nomination and Compensation Committee of the Company was established. As an advisory body to the Board of Directors, the Committee, in the process of deliberation on the nomination of and compensation for Directors, respects the opinions of Independent Outside Directors who are its members. The Committee submits its opinions on draft nomination and compensation plans after obtaining the approval of all members.

The Company believes that the independence and authorities of the Committee are clearly established for the role it plays in the deliberation on nomination and compensation.

[Supplementary principle 4-11-1] Views on the balance between knowledge, experience and skills of the Board of Directors as a whole, and on diversity and appropriate scale

In order to make appropriate management decisions as a business company, the Company considers it vital that persons well versed in each business field participate in decision making as Directors, and based on this belief, appoints full-time Directors and part-time Directors who serve concurrently as presidents of major Group companies.

In addition to the aforementioned Directors, the Company appoints Outside Directors who have experience and insights as corporate managers at major financial institutions or expertise in finance, accounting, and legal affairs. By having them properly perform monitoring functions, we strive to strengthen governance. Through this structure, we supervise management, check the direction of the entire Group, and strive to strengthen Group management.

From the above, we believe that the Board of Directors is sufficiently fulfilling its function as a management decision making body and that the current condition is of an appropriate scale.

In addition, the directors' skills matrix is described in the Notice of the 101st Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders. Given that the Group provides transportation services, the skills listed in the matrix include safety management.

[Supplementary principle 4-11-2] Status of concurrently serving officers

We believe that officers who serve concurrently at other companies are appropriately fulfilling their respective roles and responsibilities at the Board of Directors of the Company and are devoting the required amount of time and effort to the Company.

For information on the status of concurrent service, please refer to the "Notice of the 101st Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders," which is disclosed on the Company's website.

[Principle 4-11-3] Ensuring effectiveness of the Board of Directors as a whole

We use surveys on decision-making processes, etc. conducted with each of the Directors as well as quantitative analyses on the operational status, etc. of the Board of Directors to evaluate the effectiveness of the Board of Directors. The Governance Committee, a voluntary advisory body to the Board of Directors, which is composed of members that include Outside Directors, analyzes, conducts assessments, and reports to the Board of Directors.

As a result of the analysis and assessments for fiscal 2021, which examined the Board of Directors based on the perspectives of Board of Directors' composition, operational status, decision-making processes, and a support structure for Outside Directors, the Company recognizes that the effectiveness of the Board of Directors of the Company is ensured.

In fiscal 2021, information based on multifaceted analysis was presented at the Board of Directors in response to changes in the business environment under the COVID-19 pandemic and occurrence of risk incidents, and the Audit and Supervisory Committee reviewed and commented on the agenda. We thus worked to improve the effectiveness of the Board of Directors by enhancing deliberation.

For fiscal 2022, we will continue to expand methods of proposal that lead to enhanced deliberation by the Board of Directors and aim to improve the effectiveness of the Board of Directors.

[Supplementary principle 4-14-2] Training policy for Directors

In consideration of individual experience, etc., the Company provides Directors (including Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) with the opportunity to obtain necessary training and other learning to carry out their roles and responsibilities. In addition to this, ongoing training is conducted so that they can gain an understanding of economic conditions, revisions to laws and regulations, and the business environment in which the Group operates.

[Principle 5-1] Policy for constructive dialogue with shareholders

The Company has the following organizational structures and initiatives aimed at promoting constructive dialogue with shareholders and investors.

(1) For dialogue with shareholders and investors, the Director in Charge of Finance and Information Disclosure shall have responsibility.

(2) In the conduct of dialogue, the Finance and Accounting Department with person in charge of IR will play a central role in providing assistance.

The Finance and Accounting Department acts as the Disclosure Committee's secretariat, and collects information from the Group Business Management Department that aggregates information from Business Departments, General Administration Departments, and each Group company, in addition to the information obtained from internal meetings.

(3) As to dialogue other than individual meetings, in addition to holding twice-yearly briefings for analysts and institutional investors, we hold company briefings for individual investors, primarily in the Company's business area. In this manner, through promoting understanding, we strive to further enhance IR activities.

(4) While reporting to the senior management in a timely manner the opinions and other comments from shareholders and investors obtained through dialogues, by conveying the contents to respective departments, we strive to properly share these opinions company-wide and reflect them to management.

(5) The Company will properly manage insider information in accordance with the internal regulation, "Regulations on Prevention of Insider Trading."

In addition, the Company is determined to consistently enhance its systems and initiatives to facilitate constructive dialogues with shareholders.

Appointment of Directors and/or Employees to Support the Audit and Supervisory Committee

Appointed

Matters Related to the Independence of Such Directors and/or Employees from Executive Directors

To increase the effectiveness of audits by the Audit and Supervisory Committee and to carry out audit operations smoothly, the Company assigns dedicated employees. In performing their duties, these employees abide by directions and orders of Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members. For the transfer, personnel evaluation and disciplinary action on these employees, a consent from the Directors who are full-time Audit and Supervisory Committee Members delegated by the Audit and Supervisory Committee is required.

Cooperation among Audit and Supervisory Committee, Accounting Auditors and Internal Audit Departments

Outside Directors supervise and audit the execution of operations based on reports on the status of internal audits, audits by the Audit and Supervisory Committee, accounting audits, and on the status of execution of operations by the internal control section, which are provided through meetings of the Board of Directors, etc.

The Audit and Supervisory Committee has deepened cooperation with the Internal Audit Department, which is the internal audit section, through regular meetings on matters including audit plans and reporting of results, as well as discussions on issues such as the way audits should be, on a monthly basis, while jointly considering issues such as sharing of information on risks and the way to handle it, as necessary, thereby further enhancing internal control.

In addition, the Audit and Supervisory Committee exchanges opinions with the Accounting Auditor in charge of the accounting audit after receiving reports from the Accounting Auditor on audit plans, the progress of audits during the fiscal year and the audit results, and receives a briefing on a summary of the audit results under the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act. In this manner, the Audit and Supervisory Committee strives to collaborate with the Accounting Auditor.

Furthermore, in order to ensure that internal audits, audits by the Audit and Supervisory Committee, and audits by the Accounting Auditor are conducted efficiently and effectively, the Internal Audit Department, Audit and Supervisory Committee Members, and the Accounting Auditor hold a Three-Pillar Audit Liaison Committee regularly to exchange and share information and exchange opinions about respective audit plans and audit results, thereby strengthening collaboration.

Supplementary Explanation

Following the resolution made at the 99th Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 26, 2020, the Company overhauled the executive compensation system.

Compensation for Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members and Outside Directors) is categorized into base salary and annual performance-linked compensation that is linked to the Company's performance in each business year. In addition, we introduced a stock-based compensation plan.

Outside Directors and Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members are only paid base salary, taking into account their duties and other relevant factors.

The Company has set an appropriate level of compensation for each officer based on their responsibilities, taking into account each officer's position and other relevant factors. The Company has also adopted annual performance-linked compensation that is linked to the Company's performance in each business year, whereby a part of remuneration reflects the status of progress toward business results, in comprehensive consideration of consolidated ordinary profit and other factors in each fiscal year. Furthermore, a stock-based compensation plan has been introduced to raise the motivation of Directors to contribute to enhancing medium- to long-term performance and to maximizing shareholder value.

The Nomination and Compensation Committee deliberates on compensation amounts and submits its opinions to the Board of Directors to ensure management transparency. While respecting what has been discussed by the Nomination and Compensation Committee, the Board of Directors leaves it to the discretion of the President and Representative Director to determine compensation amounts for each Director (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) within the range not exceeding the total amount of compensation for Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members), which is set by a resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Compensation for Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members is determined through their discussions within the range not exceeding the total amount of compensation set by a resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

The Nomination and Compensation Committee, which is a voluntary advisory body to the Board of Directors and consists of members including Outside Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members), deliberates on executive compensation and verifies the appropriateness of compensation amounts.

Disclosure of Policy on Determining Remuneration Amounts and Calculation Methods

[Details of the resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders regarding remuneration, etc. for Directors]

At the 99th Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 26, 2020 (hereinafter, the “Meeting”), the Company resolved that the amount of remuneration for Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) shall be no more than 420 million yen per year, of which no more than 40 million yen shall be for Outside Directors, and the amount of remuneration for Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members shall be no more than 130 million yen per year.

[Policy on determination of the content of individual remuneration for officers]

1. Basic composition

Remuneration, etc. of Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members and Outside Directors) shall consist of base salary, annual performance-linked compensation linked to business performance for each business year, and stock-based compensation. Regarding remuneration for Outside Directors and Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members, only base salary shall be paid, taking into consideration the nature of their duties.

2. Policy on determination of individual remuneration of base salary

The base salary for Directors of the Company shall be a monthly fixed remuneration and shall be set at an appropriate level corresponding to their responsibilities, taking into consideration their position, etc.

3. Policy on determination of the content of performance indicators for annual performance-linked compensation and the calculation method of the amount or number of such performance-linked compensation

Annual performance-linked compensation shall be calculated by comprehensively taking into account consolidated operating profit, etc. for the relevant fiscal year as indicators linked to business performance for each business year, reflecting the achievement status of business performance, and shall be paid in addition to base salary. In calculating the amount, the Nomination and Compensation Committee shall be consulted, and the amount shall be determined after deliberation.

4. Policy on determination of the content of stock-based compensation and the calculation method of the amount or number

As to stock-based compensation, the number of the Company shares equivalent to the number of points granted to each Director shall be delivered, using a trust set by monetary contribution by the Company, in order to improve the motivation to contribute to the improvement of medium- to long-term business performance and the maximization of shareholder value.

Points shall be granted in accordance with the position, etc., based on the share delivery regulations determined by the Board of Directors. The delivery of the Company shares corresponding to the granted points shall be made, in principle, at the time of retirement of the Director.

5. Policy on determination of the ratio of the amount of base salary, annual performance-linked compensation, and stock-based compensation to the amount of individual remuneration, etc. for Directors

The amount and ratio of basic salary, annual performance-linked compensation, and stock-based compensation shall be determined in accordance with the policies described in the above items 2, 3, and 4, as well as in consideration of the fact that the Company is engaged in a business with a highly public nature centered on the railway business.

6. Matters concerning determination of the content of individual remuneration for Directors

The amount of individual remuneration shall be left to the discretion of the President and Representative Director in accordance with the resolution of the Board of Directors, after deliberation by the Nomination and Compensation Committee, a voluntary advisory body to the Board of Directors.

While respecting the deliberation by the Nomination and Compensation Committee, the President and Representative Director shall determine compensation amounts for each Director (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) within the range not exceeding the total amount of compensation for Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members), which is set by a resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Compensation for Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members shall be determined through their discussions within the range not exceeding the total amount of compensation set by a resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

7. Policy on determination of individual remuneration for Executive Officers

The policy regarding Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members and Outside Directors) described in this policy shall apply mutatis mutandis to the determination of individual remuneration for Executive Officers.

[Supporting System for Outside Directors (Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Members)]

- In convening the Board of Directors' meeting, proposal documents are distributed in advance to all Directors including Outside Directors. In addition, explanations are provided in advance as needed.
- Support including the provision of information to Outside Directors (excluding Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) is offered by the Secretariat and the Management Planning Department.
- Support including the provision of information to Outside Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members is provided by the Office of Audit and Supervisory Committee.

II. 2. Matters on Functions of Business Execution, Auditing, Oversight, Nomination and Remuneration Decisions (Overview of Current Corporate Governance System)

1. Business execution and supervision

(1) The Company's Board of Directors is currently comprised of 15 members (there are four Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members), including five Outside Directors and three presidents of major Group companies. The Board of Directors meeting is held once a month, in principle, to resolve important management matters as well as matters stipulated by laws and regulations, and supervise business execution.

(2) By delegating decision-making authority on the execution of important operations to the Company's Directors, we aim to enhance management efficiency and achieve swift decision-making.

(3) The Management Committee made up of full-time Directors and full-time Executive Officers makes deliberation and decision on important management matters based on the policies determined by the Board of Directors.

(4) The Group Management Council made up of full-time Directors, Executive Officers, and presidents of Group companies, etc. discusses the management issues of the entire Group to strengthen and promote the Group management.

(Status of the major meetings in fiscal 2021)

Board of Directors meetings: 11 times

Management Committee: 24 times

Group Management Council: 2 times

2. Audits by the Audit and Supervisory Committee

(1) The Audit and Supervisory Committee audits the execution of duties of Directors based on the basic policy determined by the committee, pursuant to laws and regulations, Articles of Incorporation, rules for the Audit and Supervisory Committee, Standards for the Audit and Supervisory Committee Audit, and other rules. In addition to this, Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members attend the Board of Directors meetings and other important meetings and have voting rights at the Board of Directors as Board members, while being entrusted with the audit function and endeavoring to raise the effectiveness of the Board's supervision function of business execution.

The Audit and Supervisory Committee closely cooperates with the Internal Audit Department, which is the internal audit section, to carry out organizational audits, and when it deems necessary, requests investigations from the Internal Audit Department and provides instructions.

Furthermore, the Audit and Supervisory Committee strengthens cooperation with the Accounting Auditor by having it attend the meetings of the Audit and Supervisory Committee and exchanging opinions.

(2) The Audit and Supervisory Committee meets more than once a month, in principle. The Audit and Supervisory Committee mainly considers important matters related to audits, including the analysis and evaluation of the committee's audit plans, appropriateness of the Accounting Auditors' auditing method and results, development and operational status of the internal control system, and the effectiveness of the Audit and Supervisory Committee. The Audit and Supervisory Committee receives preliminary briefings from responsible departments on major agenda items among matters presented to the Board of Directors.

(3) Full-time Audit and Supervisory Committee Members attend important meetings, inspect important approval documents, etc., hold regular meetings with Representative Directors, and conduct interviews with General Managers of major responsible departments regarding the status of business execution and risk recognition. Part-time Audit and Supervisory Committee Members, together with full-time Audit and Supervisory Committee Members, hold meetings with Director and Senior Managing Executive Officers and Director and Managing Executive Officers.

(4) Standards for the Audit and Supervisory Committee Audit, etc. stipulate cooperation between the Company's Audit and Supervisory Committee and Audit & Supervisory Board Members of Group companies. Full-time Audit and Supervisory Committee Members have established a system for exchanging information when needed, such as holding regular meetings of the Group Audit & Supervisory Board consisting of Audit & Supervisory Board Members of the Group companies, and receiving reports from Audit & Supervisory Board Members of the Group companies on the status of audits during and at the end of each fiscal year, in principle.

Furthermore, part-time Audit and Supervisory Committee Members, together with full-time Audit and Supervisory Committee Members, exchange opinions with Representative Directors of Group companies to enhance and strengthen audits of the entire Group.

In addition, full-time Audit and Supervisory Committee Members share the responsibility to concurrently serve as Audit & Supervisory Board Members of important subsidiaries, thereby having an organizational structure that take into consideration the perspective of the corporate group.

(5) To support the duties of the Audit and Supervisory Committee, the Office of the Audit and Supervisory Committee assigns four dedicated employees.

(Status of meetings in fiscal 2021)

Audit and Supervisory Committee meetings: 16 times

3. Deliberation on corporate governance

As a voluntary advisory body to the Board of Directors, the Governance Committee, which is composed of Outside Directors (excluding Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) and Outside Directors who are full-time Audit and Supervisory Committee Members, is established to deliberate on the Group corporate strategies and governance system by bringing views of Outside Directors into the discussion. In addition, collaboration among Representative Directors and Outside Directors is strengthened, thereby achieving sustainable growth of the Group and greater mid- to long-term corporate value.

(Status of meetings in fiscal 2021)

Governance Committee: 3 times

4. Decision on nomination and remuneration

As a voluntary advisory body to the Board of Directors, the Nomination and Compensation Committee, which is composed of members that include Outside Directors (excluding Audit and Supervisory Committee Members), deliberates on executive appointments and remuneration, and then submits recommendations to the Board of Directors, thereby ensuring management transparency.

(Status of meetings in fiscal 2021)

Nomination and Compensation Committee: 4 times

5. Internal audits

- (1) Internal audits are performed for the purpose of verifying the compliance with laws and regulations and internal regulations, and appropriateness and effectiveness of management. Recommendations are made for management rationalization, business improvement, greater efficiency and sound development of business operations.
- (2) To maintain independence and objectivity of internal audit, the Internal Audit Department is an organization under the direct control of the President. As of March 31, 2022, the Internal Audit Department has 28 members, including General Manager of Internal Audit Department.
- (3) In accordance with the Internal Audit Ethics Code and the Internal Audit Regulations, thematic audits and special-purpose audits are performed on the Company and its Group companies, in addition to general audits focusing on accounting and overall business operations.
- (4) Internal audit plan for each fiscal year is reported to the Audit and Supervisory Committee and the Board of Directors upon obtaining approval of the President. An outline of audit result is also reported to the Audit and Supervisory Committee and the Board of Directors, in addition to the President.
- (5) Audited parties are requested to submit improvement plans and the status of improvement is confirmed as needed.
- (6) Full-time Audit & Supervisory Board Members of the Group companies belong to the Internal Audit Department, in principle. They are enhancing and strengthening the audit system of the Group as a whole through mutual collaboration.

II. 3. Reasons for Adoption of Current Corporate Governance System

We are a company with an audit and supervisory committee, the objective of which is to ensure that Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members have voting rights at the Board of Directors as Board members, while being entrusted with the audit function and endeavoring to raise the effectiveness of the Board's supervision function of business execution, in order to increase the transparency and fairness of the Board of Directors.

Furthermore, we have introduced an executive officer system to build a structure that can swiftly respond to changes in the business environment surrounding the Group, by achieving more flexible decision-making and business execution.

To strengthen supervisory functions towards management, the Company appoints two Outside Directors (excluding Audit and Supervisory Committee Members), who possess experience and insight as corporate managers of major financial institutions, as well as three Outside Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members. In addition, as advisory bodies to the Board of Directors, the Company has established the Governance Committee and the Nomination and Compensation Committee so as to improve management transparency and fairness.

To enhance the effectiveness of audits performed by the Audit and Supervisory Committee, the Company appoints Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members, with considerable knowledge in finance, accounting and legal affairs. In addition, the Company ensures a cooperation system between the Audit and Supervisory Committee and Accounting Auditor, and between the internal audit section and the sections in charge of internal control.

Furthermore, the Company aims to exert comprehensive capability through diversified business development centered on railway lines. As such, we include presidents of major Group companies as the members of the Board of Directors, and hold the Group Management Council comprised of members including the presidents of Group companies, the Keio Group Presidents Council, and the Group Audit & Supervisory Board meeting, etc., thereby enhancing its Group governance system.

From the above, we believe that the Company's corporate governance system is functioning sufficiently.

In addition to the foregoing, the Company implements action plans in accordance with the “Act on Advancement of Measures to Support Raising Next-Generation Children,” and promotes measures to support employees in balancing their work and family life. These efforts led the Company to acquire the next generation certification mark “Kurumin.”

Going forward, based on the belief that fostering a better working environment will lead to the enhancement of individuals’ work and social life, as well as to the invigoration of a company, we will promote work-life balance initiatives and other various measures related to further promotion of women’s advancement.

IV. Matters Related to the Internal Control System

IV. 1. Basic Views on Internal Control System and the Progress of System Development

[Keio Group Basic Policies on Internal Control System]

Keio Corporation (hereinafter, the “Company”) and its Group companies develop and operate internal control systems pursuant to these basic policies, in order to conduct business activities properly and continuously based on the “Keio Group Philosophy,” while conforming to laws and regulation as well as the Articles of Incorporation.

1. System for ensuring that the execution of business by Directors, Executive Officers and employees complies with laws and regulations as well as the Articles of Incorporation

- (1) To ensure that the execution of business by officers and employees of the Group complies with laws and regulations as well as the Articles of Incorporation, and is conducted in a sound manner, the Company ensures that the entire Group is thoroughly informed of the “Keio Group Code of Conduct,” which was formulated based on the “Keio Group Philosophy.” Directors and Executive Officers make decisions properly pursuant to the “Management Judgment Principles” established by the Company.
- (2) At the Company, the Compliance Committee composed of members including external experts takes a central role in the development of the Group-wide compliance system. Important matters are reported to the Board of Directors on a regular basis.
- (3) To address and resolve compliance-related issues, the Company operates “Keio Helpline,” a dedicated consultation counter for the entire Group pursuant to the Whistleblower Protection Act.
- (4) Through continuously holding a compliance training, etc., the Company raises employees’ awareness of compliance and thereby strengthens the Group-wide compliance system.
- (5) The Company has in place the Internal Audit Department, which is an internal audit section under direct control of the Representative Director President and CEO, and performs internal audits of the Company and the Group companies for the purpose of verifying the compliance with laws and regulations as well as internal rules and other standards, and appropriateness and effectiveness of the management. The Audit and Supervisory Committee may request and instruct the Internal Audit Department to conduct an investigation when it deems necessary.
- (6) To ensure reliability of its financial reports, the Company develops and operates an internal control system pursuant to the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act and other laws and regulations. We carry out timely and appropriate information disclosure as required by laws and regulations.
- (7) With respect to anti-social forces that pose a threat to the social order and safety, we will strictly confront them in a resolute manner across the organization so as to live up to the trust of stakeholders.

2. System for Storing and Managing Information Relating to the Execution of the Duties of Directors and Executive Officers

- (1) The Company properly stores and manages the information relating to the execution of the duties of Directors and Executive Officers pursuant to laws and regulations and internal regulations.
- (2) The information is accessible for Directors and Executive Officers of the Company as necessary.

3. Rules and System Related to the Management of Risk of Loss

- (1) Upon making decisions on important management issues, the Company's Directors and Executive Officers sufficiently verify the likelihood of loss.
- (2) In accordance with the "Risk Management Policy" established by the Company's Board of Directors, which is intended to identify and manage risks associated with business execution, the Risk Management Committee, made up of Risk Management Committee chair, heads of relevant departments and external experts, carries out activities to reduce and prevent risks for the Company and its Group companies, and develops systems in preparation for the outbreak of crisis.
- (3) As a Group engaged in a variety of businesses centered on the railway business with highly public nature, we recognize the safety of customers as an issue of the highest importance in our risk handling measures.
- (4) In the event of a major crisis, the Company promptly organizes a Crisis Management Headquarters headed by the Representative Director President and CEO in order to carry out activities aimed at responding to the crisis and quickly bringing it under control.

4. System for Ensuring That the Duties of Directors and Executive Officers are Executed Effectively

- (1) Pursuant to laws and regulations and internal regulations, the Board of Directors of the Company and its Group companies meet on a regular basis and on an ad-hoc basis as necessary. Important matters related to corporate management are deliberated in advance by meeting bodies made up of full-time Directors and full-time Executive Officers prior to the resolution by the Board of Directors. In addition, based on the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation, the Company delegates decision-making authority on the execution of important operations to Directors by resolution of the Board of Directors. The delegated matters are deliberated in advance by meeting bodies made up of full-time Directors and full-time Executive Officers prior to the decision-making.
- (2) The Board of Directors of the Company and its Group companies set company-wide goals. Directors (excluding Outside Directors and Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) and Executive Officers set department-specific goals, manage budget, and formulate and implement concrete measures toward achieving company-wide goals. The Company monitors the implementation status of the management plans of each company.
- (3) The organizations and division of duties of the Company and its Group companies, as well as each position's responsibilities, authorities and approval criteria associated with the business execution are set forth in the internal regulations, and thereby basic functions of each position and mutual relations are clarified, and expeditious decision-making and business execution are facilitated.

5. System for Ensuring Appropriate Operations of the Corporate Group Consisting of the Company, Its Parent and Its Subsidiaries

- (1) With regard to the matters of importance for the management of each Group company, the Group companies discuss with and report to the Company in accordance with the “Group Company Consultation Standard” established with the Company. The Group companies enhance their internal control systems on a continual basis pursuant to the “Keio Group Basic Policies on Internal Control System” set forth by the Company’s Board of Directors. The implementation status at each company is monitored by the Company.
- (2) We establish within the Company a department responsible for initiatives related to the internal control of Group companies, in order to promote the development of a system under which a discussion, information sharing, and communication of directions and requests are effectively made between the Company and each Group company.
- (3) The compliance systems of the Company and its Group companies are developed primarily by the Company on a group-wide basis. When any officer or employee of the Company and its Group companies discovers an event that may have a significant impact on the corporate value of the entire Group, they are required to report to the Compliance Committee chair of the Company, in addition to a regular reporting line, to discuss countermeasures.
- (4) Risks faced by the Company and its Group companies are identified and managed on a group-wide basis primarily by the Company through holding the Risk Management Committee meetings. In the event of a major crisis, the Group companies immediately report to the Company’s Risk Management Committee chair, and the Company provides support according to the case.

Also, the Group companies develop their own risk management systems and crisis management systems.

- (5) Matters related to the management of the Group as a whole are discussed at the Group Management Council. In addition, the Keio Group Presidents Council is held on a regular basis to share the Group’s management policies and management information.
- (6) To enhance and strengthen the audits for the entire Group, the Company’s full-time Audit and Supervisory Committee Members receive reports from Audit & Supervisory Board Members of the Group companies, as appropriate, and hold the Group Audit & Supervisory Board meeting on a regular basis, while also verifying the status of audits performed by each company’s Audit & Supervisory Board Members during and at the end of each fiscal period. In principle, full-time Audit & Supervisory Board Members of the Group companies belong to the Internal Audit Department, which is an internal audit department. Through mutual collaboration, they work to ensure appropriateness of the operations of the Group as a whole.

6. Matters Related to Employees to Assist Duties of the Audit and Supervisory Committee at Its Request, and Matters related to the Independence of Such Employees

To increase the effectiveness of audits by the Audit and Supervisory Committee and to carry out audit operations smoothly, the Company assigns dedicated employees including those with expertise. In performing their duties, these employees abide by directions and orders of Audit and Supervisory Committee Members. For the transfer, personnel evaluation and disciplinary action on these employees, a consent from the full-time Audit and Supervisory Committee Members appointed by the Audit and

Supervisory Committee is required.

7. Systems for Directors, Executive Officers and Employees to Report to the Audit and Supervisory Committee and Other Systems Related to Reporting to the Audit and Supervisory Committee

At the Company, Directors who are not Audit and Supervisory Committee Members ensure a system that allows Audit and Supervisory Committee Members to attend important meetings and state opinions. Moreover, Directors who are not Audit and Supervisory Committee Members and Executive Officers report the following items to the Audit and Supervisory Committee.

Similar systems are also ensured at each Group company and the following items are reported to Audit & Supervisory Board Members of each Group company.

- (1) Important matters related to the decision-making of the Company;
- (2) Matters that could cause serious damage to the Company and the Group;
- (3) Audit plans and audit results of internal audits;
- (4) Misconducts or important matters in violation of laws and regulations and the Articles of Incorporation associated with the execution of duties of Directors who are not Audit and Supervisory Committee Members and Executive Officers of the Company and Directors and employees of each Group company;
- (5) Important matters related to compliance and risk management;
- (6) Important matters among the items that are subject to discussion and reporting set forth in the “Group Company Consultation Standard”; and
- (7) Other matters deemed necessary for the execution of duties of Audit and Supervisory Committee Members of the Company and Audit & Supervisory Board Members of each Group company, in addition to the above.

Employees who discover important matters related to (2) and (4) may report such matters directly to Audit and Supervisory Committee Members of the Company and Audit & Supervisory Board Members of each Group company.

Directors who are not Audit and Supervisory Committee Members and Executive Officers of the Company and Directors and employees of each Group company will not receive any disadvantages for reasons of having made such report to Audit and Supervisory Committee Members of the Company and Audit & Supervisory Board Members of each Group company.

8. Other Systems to Ensure That Audits by the Audit and Supervisory Committee are Performed Effectively

The Company’s Directors who are not Audit and Supervisory Committee Members ensure the following system so that effective audits can be performed in accordance with the audits plan prepared by the Audit and Supervisory Committee of the Company:

- (1) Hearing opinions from Directors who are not Audit and Supervisory Committee Members, Executive Officers and important employees as necessary;
- (2) Regular meetings with the Representative Director and Accounting Auditors;
- (3) Delivery of organizational audits in collaboration with the internal audit section;
- (4) Collaboration with the sections in charge of internal control;
- (5) Investigations on the Group companies;
- (6) Appointment of external experts selected independently as advisors, including lawyers and certified public accountants

Any costs arising from (6) will be borne by the Company.

9. Internal Control Committee

To supervise the systems mentioned in above 1. through 8., Internal Control Committee meetings are held, and thereby the development of internal control system will be promoted on a group-wide basis.

<Outline of the Status of Implementation in Fiscal 2021>

(1) Compliance

In order to raise awareness of the importance of compliance, we expanded the scope of employees attending compliance and harassment prevention training for new managerial employees to those in managerial positions across the Group. With regard to a whistleblowing system, the total number of whistleblowing cases was disclosed to stakeholders in the “Safety, Social and Environmental Report.” In addition, we made efforts to alleviate employees’ anxiety about contacting the whistleblowing counter by introducing an outline of the investigation and status of response regarding actual cases.

(2) Risk Management

With regard to risk management, we mainly worked on the priority risk countermeasures, which had been selected as measures to be taken during the three years from fiscal 2021 to fiscal 2023.

To address labor-related and compliance risks, the Company established the “Guidelines for Harassment Prevention,” incorporated harassment prevention into criteria for promotion examination, and conducted position-level-specific training, as measures to prevent harassment. In addition, Group companies incorporated relevant clauses into their employment rules and conducted training. In response to law amendments, we revised our internal regulations and the Company’s “Privacy Policy” in association with the revision of the Act on the Protection of Personal Information and informed the details by conducting seminars for administration department employees at all Group companies and e-learning for employees of the Company. Furthermore, Group companies which have become subject to the obligations imposed by the revised Act on the Promotion of Female Participation and Career

Advancement in the Workplace formulated their Plans of Action for General Employers and notified relevant labor bureaus.

To address information security risks, we introduced a WAF (web application firewall: a system that blocks unauthorized website access) and relocated our website to a safer system platform, thereby taking measures against attacks to our website. In addition, to take measures against cyberattacks targeting our enterprise system, the Company examined its security measures for the railway operation management system and conducted drills in preparation for targeted e-mail attacks, while Group companies completed transition to new antivirus software and proceeded with transition to new e-mail security software.

To address business-specific risks that should be handled according to the characteristics of each department in the Company and each Group company, we looked into the knife and fire attack on a Keio Line train occurred on October 31, 2021, identified issues, and discussed countermeasures. In addition, at shopping centers under direct management of the Company, tenants were informed again of what to do and where to contact in case of an emergency. As for countermeasures against natural disasters, the Company formulated a new BCP (business continuity plan) to cope with fall of ashes due to an eruption of Mt. Fuji.

Furthermore, to address business continuity risks caused by the new coronavirus infection, we continued to take thorough measures to prevent infection according to changes in the situation of the infection, led by the response headquarters. We also offered workplace vaccination for employees of the Company and Group companies and took other appropriate measures to prevent disruption of business activities across the Group.

(3) Internal Control for Financial Reporting

We conducted an internal control assessment after setting the necessary scope of assessment in light of the materiality of impacts on the reliability of financial reporting.

Financial disclosure materials were disclosed after submission to the Board of Directors, following the confirmation by the Disclosure Committee.

(4) Internal Audits

We conducted internal audits of the Company and the Group companies pursuant to the internal audit basic plan. In addition, we enhanced the audit activities by conducting top management interviews with the department and companies subject to the audits and reflecting the findings in the audit plan, and feeding back audit results directly to the top management, and offering support to resolve issues, as necessary.

IV. 2. Basic Views on Eliminating Anti-Social Forces and the Progress of System Development

[Basic Views on Eliminating Anti-Social Forces]

Our basic views on eliminating anti-social forces are described in 1. (7) of the Keio Group Basic Policies on Internal Control System.

<Major initiatives in fiscal 2021 >

As an initiative against anti-social forces, we ensured thorough implementation of rules for checking to confirm that new business partners are not anti-social forces.

V. Other

V. 1. Adoption of Anti-Takeover Measures

Supplementary Explanation

At the 101st Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 29, 2022, the Company received approval for a proposal for the “Basic Policy Regarding Countermeasures to Large-Scale Acquisitions of the Company Shares (Takeover Defense Measures),” which is intended to ensure and increase the Company’s corporate value and common interests of its shareholders. Given this, at the Company’s Board of Directors meeting held on the same day, we resolved the “Plan for Countermeasures to Large-Scale Acquisitions of the Company Shares (Takeover Defense Measures)” (hereinafter, the “Plan), which is a specific countermeasure based on the said basic policy. As part of this countermeasure, we filed a shelf registration for the issuance of stock acquisition rights.

For the Basic Policy Regarding the Takeover Defense Measures and details of the Plan, please see the Company’s website (<https://www.keio.co.jp/company/>).

V. 2. Other Matters Concerning Corporate Governance System

The internal system for ensuring timely disclosure of our corporate information is described below.

The Company has formulated the “Disclosure Policy” to set forth basic views on information disclosure to the shareholders and investors, and has established the Disclosure Committee to achieve the matters stipulated in the said policy.

1. Disclosure Policy

Please see “III. 2. IR Activities” in this report.

2. Internal System

The procedures for collection and disclosure of information mainly conducted by the Disclosure Committee are as follows. We continue to enhance and strengthen internal controls related to preparation and disclosure of financial reporting through ensuring that our employees are fully aware of the laws and regulations and internal rules related to information disclosure.

(1) Collection

The secretariat of the Disclosure Committee collects information through attending internal meetings and receiving reports from business divisions, administrative divisions and the Group Business Management Department. Information on the Group companies is aggregated by the Group Business Management Department from each Group company.

The information to be collected by the secretariat is stipulated under internal regulations. To enable an appropriate and timely disclosure to shareholders and investors, information shall be managed in a centralized manner.

(2) Disclosure

In principle, the Disclosure Committee determines whether or not information needs to be disclosed, and disclosure will be made after deliberation at the Board of Directors, etc.

In order to achieve more appropriate information disclosure, the contents of financial disclosure materials such as earnings summary and securities reports are confirmed by the Disclosure Committee in advance, prior to the submission to the Board of Directors, etc.

In addition, we disclose information beyond that required by laws and regulations, such as those requiring prompt disclosure in light of the purposes of timely disclosure, supplementary explanation materials for earnings summary and monthly business overview, in a timely and appropriate manner upon consent of the Disclosure Committee and in line with the procedures set forth in the internal regulations.

In the event of a disaster, accident or other fact necessitating an urgent disclosure, the Risk Management Committee chaired by a Director in charge of compliance and the Disclosure Committee discuss and promptly disclose the fact according to the judgment of the Representative Director President & CEO.

Disclosure is made through posting at TDnet and EDINET, etc., in accordance with the procedures set forth under laws and regulations. We also strive to disclose information proactively through the Company's website.
