Notice regarding issuance of “net one report 2022”

Net One Systems Co., Ltd. (the “Company”) today issued its Integrated Report “net one report 2022.”

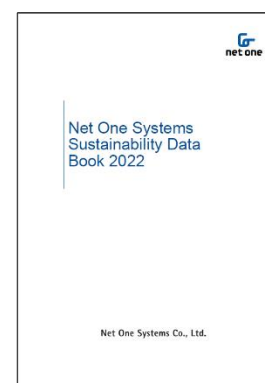

From this fiscal year onwards, the Company has published the “Annual Report” under the name of the “net one report,” with the purpose of informing all stakeholders of the Net One Group regarding its growth strategies, value creation, and sustainability management concepts and initiatives aimed at realizing its Purpose.

In “net one report 2022,” the Officer in charge explains the strategy and outlook of the current Medium-Term Business Plan that started in fiscal 2022, based on our newly formulated corporate philosophy system. The report also introduces value creation through customer success, materiality identification and initiatives, and a feature article on corporate culture reforms.

In addition, the separate “Sustainability Data Book 2022,” which includes comprehensive non-financial information such as ESG performance data, is scheduled for publication in February 2023.
