- Income before income taxes: Y83.6bn (+165% QoQ); Net income¹: Y66.9bn (4.0x QoQ); EPS²: Y21.51(4.0x QoQ)
- Three segment and segment Other performance improved; ROE³ rebounded to 8.5%
 - Retail and Investment Management reported significantly stronger results compared to last quarter
 - Segment Other helped lift earnings on the back of the sale of part of our stake in Nomura Research Institute (Y28bn)
- Three segment income before income taxes of Y44.7bn (+43% QoQ)
 - Retail
 - ✓ Strengthened segment based approach and provided detailed consulting based on changing market environment and individual needs of clients, resulting in strong improvement in flow revenue, etc.
 - ✓ Recurring revenue cost coverage ratio remained at 50% level
 - Investment Management
 - ✓ Business revenue remained solid with continued inflows into core investment trusts and alternatives
 - ✓ Improvement in investment gain/loss helped lift income before income taxes to highest level in six quarters
 - Wholesale
 - ✓ Equities and Investment Banking booked stronger revenues QoQ, while Fixed Income had a sluggish quarter due mainly to Macro Products (Rates, FX/EM), leading to lower net revenue QoQ
 - ✓ Performance also impacted by higher severance related expenses and non personnel expenses

Net revenue

Key points

- Net revenue: Y81bn (+12% QoQ; -7% YoY)
- Income before income taxes: Y13.3bn (+142% QoQ; -26% YoY)
- Strengthened segment based approach and provided detailed consulting based on changing market environment and individual needs of clients, resulting in strong improvement in flow revenue, etc.
- Recurring revenue remained unchanged QoQ, but recurring revenue cost coverage ratio remained at 50% level due to stringent cost management

Recurring revenue

- Investment trusts saw outflow of funds from corporates, but we booked continued net increases in recurring revenue assets in services including discretionary investments, loans and insurance
- Level fee assets which fully launched in April stood at over Y300bn as of the end of December

Flow revenue, etc.

- Japan stocks and bonds, investment trusts all up QoQ
- Consulting-related revenue increased QoQ driven by insurance as we further developed our asset consulting approach

■ Growth of client assets

	FY2022/23 2Q	FY2022/23 3Q
- Investment trust net inflows ³	-Y3.7bn	+Y41.4bn
- Discretionary investment net inflows ³	+Y71.4bn	+Y66.5bn
- Net inflows of cash and securities ⁴	-Y102.3bn	+Y99.1bn
- Recurring revenue cost coverage ratio ⁵	51%	50%

1. Revenue from client assets and ongoing revenue (investment trusts, discretionary investments, insurance, loans, level fee assets, etc.). Figures from before FY2022/23 1Q have been reclassified following a revision to the scope of recurring revenue in April 2022. 2. Revenue from transactions (brokerage revenue, consulting-related revenue), interest income, etc. other than from loans. 3. Retail channels and Japan Wealth Management Group. 4. Cash and securities inflows minus outflows, excluding regional financial institutions. 5. Recurring revenue divided by non-interest expenses.

Retail: Total sales increased as we provided detailed consulting timed to market changes

Total sales¹

Total sales¹ increased 7% QoQ

- Stocks: +7% QoQ
 - Sales of Japan stocks increased towards latter half of the quarter as market recovery led to improved sentiment and clients looked to buy on the dip
 - Contribution from primary transactions² (Y100.2bn vs. Y14.6bn in 2Q)
- Investment trusts: +25% QoQ
 - Inflows into US growth stock funds and US high yield funds on expectations of long-term growth and yield
- Bonds: +1% QoQ
 - Domestic bonds saw stronger sales of corporate bonds and JGBs for individuals
 - Sales of foreign bonds slowed from last quarter which included a large offering, but sales of US Treasuries grew due to improved yields and as a hedge against inflation
- Discretionary investments: -3% QoQ
 - SMAs and Fund Wrap contracts declined slightly QoQ
- Insurance: +75% QoQ
 - Sales of insurance products increased as we tapped into demand for retirement funds and estate planning

Top selling investment trusts (Oct – Dec 2022)

- 1 Alliance Bernstein US Growth Equity Fund
- 2 Nomura US High Yield Bond Fund
- 3 Fidelity US High Yield Fund

1. In FY2022/23 1Q, the scope of total sales was revised from Retail channels only to include Retail channels, Japan Wealth Management Group, Net & Call and intermediary. As a result, figures from before FY2022/23 1Q have been reclassified.

2. Retail channels, Japan Wealth Management Group, Net & Call, Hotto Direct.

Breakdown of net revenue

1. Includes revenues from asset management business (excl. ACI-related gain/loss), Nomura Babcock & Brown aircraft leasing-related revenues and general partner management fees gained from private equity and other investment businesses, but excludes investment gains/losses.

2. Comprised of returns from investments (changes in fair valuation, funding costs, management fees, dividends, etc.) including ACI-related gain/loss, limited partner investment stakes and general partner investment stakes in private equity and other investment businesses, and Mebuki Financial Group investment gain/loss.

Key points

- Net revenue: Y57bn (+118% QoQ; +42% YoY)
- Income before income taxes: Y33.3bn (6.0x QoQ; +64% YoY)
 - Business revenue, which represents stable revenues, remained robust growing 5% QoQ
 - Income before income taxes at highest level in six quarters as investment gain/loss improved
 - Expenses increased due to factors including partial sale of stake in portfolio companies and origination of aircraft lease transaction

Business revenue

- Net revenue: Y31.4bn (+5% QoQ; -0.4% YoY)
 - Asset management business remained solid as investment advisory booked continued inflows while the investment trust business saw outflows during the quarter
 - Performance improved at Nomura Babcock & Brown, which operates in aircraft leasing, on the back of a recovery in the operating environment

Investment gain/loss

- Net revenue: Y25.6bn (3.0x YoY)
 - Gain/loss related to investment in American Century Investments (ACI) improved substantially
 - Booked valuation gain on Nomura Capital Partners portfolio companies and realized gain on sale of part of equity stakes

Investment Management: Ongoing inflows into core investment trusts and alternatives

Assets under management (net)¹

(trillions of yen) ■ Investment advisory and international businesses, etc.
■ Investment trust business

AuM remained at same level as last quarter due partly to market factors

- Investment trust business
 - ETFs reported outflows (Y350bn), while core investment trusts⁴, MRFs, etc. booked inflows (core investment trusts⁴ Y44bn, MRFs, etc. Y200bn)
 - Core investment trusts⁴:
 - Privately placed investment trusts saw outflows, but in the Nomura Securities channel, high-yield bond investment trusts reported inflows on the back of US rate hikes
 - Ongoing inflows into bank channel and DC funds
- Investment advisory and international businesses, etc.
 - International business saw outflows from UCITS⁶ bond funds, while Japan saw inflows into international equities and other funds

Net inflows^{2, 3}

Alternative AuM declined due to yen appreciation but inflows continued^{3, 5}

1. Net after deducting duplications from assets under management (gross) of Nomura Asset Management, Nomura Corporate Research and Asset Management, and Wealth Square, as well as third party investment by Nomura SPARX Investment, Nomura Mezzanine Partners, Nomura Capital Partners, and Nomura Research & Advisory 2. Based on assets under management (net). 3. Historical figures have been reclassified following a review in FY2022/23 1Q to the method for measuring assets under management and the flow of funds. 4. Excluding ETFs and MRFs, etc.. 5. Total of Nomura Asset Management alternative AuM and third party investments related to Nomura SPARX Investment, Nomura Mezzanine Partners, Nomura Capital Partners, and Nomura Research & Advisory. 6.
