Notice regarding publication of "UT Group Sustainability Data Book 2023"

UT Group today released "UT Group Sustainability Data Book 2023." We have integrated financial and non-financial information in the integrated reports that we have published since 2021 so as to share with our stakeholders the unique value chain of the UT Group and our efforts to improve corporate value over the medium to long term in an easy-to-understand manner.

The "UT Group Sustainability Data Book 2023" explains our thoughts, initiatives, indicators, etc. regarding sustainability that are not included in the Integrated Reports. The contents are categorized according to the Company's four key themes, and a wide range of information and data are included so that stakeholders can better understand the Company's activities.
