Reason for the election of candidate for External Director and outline of expected roles	Ms. Yumiko Ashiwa has been active as a tax accountant over many years. She has been engaged in the management of Bloom Corporation with the purpose of developing human resources as its representative. Since assuming office as an External Director of the Company in May 2021, she has appropriately carried out her role and responsibilities in undertaking highly effective supervision of the Company's management based on her abundant experience and broad insight. The Company thus proposes her continued election as External Director. Her term of office as an External Director will be two years at the conclusion of this General Meeting of Shareholders.

(Notes) 1. There is no conflict of interest between the Company and any of the candidates for Director.

2. The “Career summary, positions, responsibilities and significant concurrent positions” of each candidate for Director includes positions and responsibilities that they still have or had in the previous ten years in relation to the execution of duties at AEON CO., LTD., the parent company of the Company, as well as its subsidiaries.
3. Mr. Keiji Kamio is expected to assume office as Director of FUJI CO.,LTD. on May 18, 2023.
4. The Company has concluded a contract with Mr. Kensuke Yabe, Mr. Takeki Kajimoto and Ms. Yumiko Ashiwa to limit their liability for damages stipulated in Article 423, Paragraph (1) of the Companies Act. The limitation of liability for damages under the contract shall be the higher of either 5 million yen or the minimum liability amount prescribed by laws and regulations, and in the event that their reelection is approved, the Company plans to continue with said contract.
5. The Company has filed a required notification to the Tokyo Stock Exchange for appointing Mr. Kensuke Yabe, Mr. Takeki Kajimoto and Ms. Yumiko Ashiwa as its independent officers. In the event that they are reelected, the Company plans to continue to file said notification for independent officers.
6. The Company’s parent company AEON CO., LTD. has entered into a directors and officers liability insurance policy with an insurance company with all Directors of the Group companies as insureds as provided for in Article 430-3, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act, and the Company pays its share of the insurance premiums as one of those companies. This policy is expected to continue and be renewed going forward. If each candidate for Director is elected and assumes office as Director, they will be insureds under this policy. This policy covers losses, such as damages and litigation expenses incurred by the insureds for liability for damages of Directors toward third parties or the Company, but does not cover them if caused by intent or gross negligence.

Proposal No. 2: Election of One Corporate Auditor

The term of office of Corporate Auditor Mr. Narihiro Osakada will expire at the conclusion of this meeting. Therefore, the Company proposes the new election of one Corporate Auditor.

In addition, the consent of the Board of Corporate Auditors has been obtained for this proposal.

The candidate for Corporate Auditor is as follows:

Rieko Takahashi

(Current family name: Tanaka)

New Candidate

Candidate for External Corporate Auditor

Candidate for independent officer

Date of birth	December 3, 1985	Number of shares of the Company held	0
Career summary, positions and significant concurrent positions	December 2011	Completed the training of a Legal Apprentice
	December 2011	Registered as an attorney at law (Osaka Bar Association)
	January 2012	Joined Yodoyabashi & Yamagami LPC
	April 2017	Seconded to Toyota Media Service Corporation (currently TOYOTA Connected Corporation)
	April 2022	Partner of Yodoyabashi & Yamagami LPC (current position)
Reason for the election of candidate for External Corporate Auditor	Ms. Rieko Takahashi is currently actively engaged as an attorney at law. The Company has judged that she is well qualified for the role of External Corporate Auditor due to her expert knowledge and experience as a legal expert, and proposes her election. Despite her lack of experience in the area of company management, she has practical experience as an in-house lawyer, and due to the reasons above, the Company has judged that she will be able to appropriately fulfill her duties as an External Corporate Auditor.

- (Notes)
1. There is no conflict of interest between the Company and Ms. Rieko Takahashi.
 2. In the event that Ms. Rieko Takahashi takes office as an External Corporate Auditor, the Company plans to conclude a contract with her to limit her liability for damages stipulated in Article 423, Paragraph (1) of the Companies Act. The limitation of liability for damages under the contract shall be the higher of either 5 million yen or the minimum liability amount prescribed by laws and regulations.
 3. The Company plans to file a required notification to the Tokyo Stock Exchange for appointing Ms. Rieko Takahashi as its independent officer.
 4. The Company's parent company AEON CO., LTD. has entered into a directors and officers liability insurance policy with an insurance company with all Corporate Auditors of the Group companies as insureds as provided for in Article 430-3, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act, and the Company pays its share of the insurance premiums as one of those companies. This policy is expected to continue and be renewed going forward. If Ms. Rieko Takahashi is elected and assumes office as Corporate Auditor, she will be an insured under this policy. This policy covers losses, such as damages and litigation expenses incurred by the insureds for liability for damages of Corporate Auditors toward third parties or the Company, but does not cover them if caused by intent or gross negligence.

<Board of Directors' Policies for Nominating Candidates for Director and Corporate Auditor>

<Standards for Independence of External Officers>

Maxvalu Tokai Co., Ltd. (hereinafter, the "Company") believes that it is desirable that its External Officers (External Directors and External Corporate Auditors) are sufficiently independent in order to secure objectivity and transparency required to maintain appropriate governance of the Company.

The Company hereby stipulates the standard of independence of its External Officers (including candidates). If its External Officers (including candidates) come under any of the following items, the Company deems that the sufficient independence from the Company is not secured.

- (1) An executive of the Company or a subsidiary and associates of the Company (Note 1).
- (2) A shareholder or an executive thereof with 10% or more of the voting rights of the Company.
- (3) An executive of a company, etc., that comes under any of the following:
 - 1) A major business partner of the Company (Note 2).
 - 2) A major lender of the Company (Note 3).
 - 3) A shareholder with 10% or more of the shares as based on the voting rights of the Company.
- (4) A certified public accountant who belongs to an audit cooperation that serves as Independent Auditor of the Company.
- (5) A business consultant, certified public accountant, licensed tax accountant, lawyer, judicial clerk, patent attorney or any other specialist who has received a large sum of money (Note 4) or other properties from the Company, or in the case of a corporate entity, association or any other types of entity, a person who belongs to the entity in question.
- (6) A payee of a large (Note 4) donation from the Company.
- (7) A person who is coming from a company which has a relationship of interlocking executives (Note 5) with the Company.
- (8) A person who has a close relative (Note 6) who falls under any of items (1) through (7) above (limited to significant executives who execute duties (Note 7), excluding (4) and (5)).
- (9) A person who has recently come under any of the foregoing items from (2) through (8).
- (10) Notwithstanding the foregoing items, any person who is deemed to have conflict of interest with the Company for special reasons.

Notes:

1. An executing person means a person who currently belongs to and serves as Executive Director, Officer, Executive Officer and any other similar positions thereto, as well as an employee (collectively, "an executive" under this standard) or executing person who has belonged to the Group in the past ten years.
2. A major business partner means a supplier of products, etc., that constitute a considerable portion of the sales, etc. of the Company, or a business partner whose sales to the Company constitute a substantial portion of the sales of that certain company.
3. A major lender means an institution from which the Company borrows money, with a loan balance that constitutes a considerable portion of the total assets at the fiscal year-end of the Company.
4. A large sum of money means money with an aggregate amount of 10 million yen or more for the immediately preceding fiscal year.

5. A relationship of interlocking executives refers to a case where the Company's executive is serving concurrently as an external officer of another company, and such an executive of another company is serving as an External Officer of the Company.
6. A relative means a spouse or relative within the second degree of kinship.
7. A significant executive means Director, Officer, Executive Officer, and an executive occupying a position higher than general manager, or an executive with similar authority thereto.

<Views on Balance, Diversity and Scale of the Board of Directors as a Whole>

In order to ensure effectiveness of independent and objective supervision of the management by the Board of Directors, one-third of Directors shall be independent External Directors, and in order to appropriately carry out oversight and supervision of the execution of duties of the Board of Directors and Directors, the Company shall be a company with a Board of Corporate Auditors in which at least half of the members are External Corporate Auditors.

Internal Directors shall consist of personnel who not only possess "achievements, decisiveness, the ability to execute and a sense of balance," which are important elements for management, but also abundant knowledge and experience regarding sales, merchandise, finance, human resources, store development, governance, etc.

Furthermore, External Directors comprise personnel who possess the necessary elements for the Company to continue sound management, such as people with abundant management experience, professionals in the fields of accounting, finance, legal affairs, etc., and people with academic experience, on the premise of combining diverse knowledge and perspectives while maintaining independence.

Going forward, the Board of Directors, which consists of personnel with these necessary achievements, experience and skills, will continue to conduct robust deliberations and make swift decisions, and work to realize the Company's management strategy.
