[Background]

In Mid-Term Management Plan, Next Engine announced that it would expand and enhance its services for small businesses. In recent years, changes in the external environment have forced many small businesses and new entrants to downsize or withdraw from their businesses.

We believe that the Next Engine business needs to provide easy-to-introduce services for small businesses and new entrants in order to achieve continuous growth. Accordingly, we have decided to support the growth of EC market by strengthening automation functions and revising rate plans. Now in its fifteenth year since its launch, Next Engine is committed to enhancing the support of small businesses and new entrants through these initiatives.
