The corporate governance of Brother Industries, Ltd. (hereafter referred to as the Company) is described below.

I Basic Views on Corporate Governance, Capital Structure, Corporate Attributes and Other Basic Information

1. Basic Views

The Brother Group (hereafter referred to as the Group) has established the Brother Group Global Charter (hereafter referred to as the Global Charter) as the basis of all of its activities conducted worldwide, and sets enhancement of its corporate value over the long term by optimizing management resources and creating customer value, development of long-term trustful relationships with its shareholders by enhancement of corporate transparency through active provision of corporate information to shareholders, etc. as the fundamental ideas of the Group's corporate governance.

[\[Reasons for Non-Compliance with the Principles of the Corporate Governance Code\]](#)

The Company complies with all of the principles set forth in the Corporate Governance Code.

[\[Disclosure Based on the Principles of the Corporate Governance Code\]](#) Updated

[Principle 1-4 Cross-Shareholdings]

The Company holds shares of other listed companies (hereafter referred to as cross-shareholdings) when building good business relationships with such companies is considered likely to improve its corporate value over the mid to long-term. The Board of Directors also examines the appropriateness of its cross-shareholdings on an annual basis and expedites reduction of holdings determined deficient in meaning.

As a result of examining the purpose of holding shares, dividend yield, market value, other benefits and risks for individual share at the Board of Directors meeting held in November 2022, its cross-shareholdings were confirmed as reasonable and it was decided to continue holding each share.

In general, the Company exercises its voting rights for its cross-shareholdings. The Company approves an agenda item after carefully examining its contents, except when it potentially harms the Company's mid to long-term economic interest and when it is obvious that the shareholder value will be damaged (such as by antisocial acts by listed companies or the management of listed companies).

[Principle 1-7 Related Party Transactions]

In cases in which Directors are processing a transaction that could potentially create business competition with the Company or result in a conflict of interest with the Company, they must receive approval from the Board of Directors in accordance with the procedure stipulated in the internal rules.

[Principle 2-4 Ensuring Diversity, Including Active Participation of Women]

Supplementary principle 2-4 (1) Ensuring diversity such as core human resources

<Views on ensuring diversity>

The Company considers that it is imperative to ensure more diverse human resources as well as diversified work styles and career development, while business and market environments are significantly changing.

"The Group respects diversity and provides a working environment that enables our associates to utilize their talents and abilities to the fullest. The Group gives them great opportunity through challenging work assignments, and provides them with fair, attractive financial rewards." which is written in the "Basic Policies" of the Global Charter. Also, its Codes of Practice also mentions "always honor individuals and diversity, and act with trust and respect".

The Company has been proactively and continuously striving to hire diverse human resources and promote them to managerial posts, including hiring women, foreigners, and mid-career workers with various job experience.

<Autonomous and measurable target to ensure diversity/Status of ensuring diversity>

(1) Promoting women to managerial posts

The Company formulated the "Action Plan to Support the Success of Women" based on the Act on Promotion of Women's Participation and Advancement in the Workplace, aiming to increase the number of female managers (equivalent to managerial positions, or professions receiving the equivalent treatment) from 52 as of the end of March 2023, to more than 60 by the end of fiscal 2025. From the perspective of development, the Company supports employee's growth regardless of gender, but in order to create an environment enhancing the awareness of life events and career and also making managerial positions more familiar, the Company also provides learning opportunities, such as discussion meetings to introduce in-house female manager's career, lectures with experts, career training with external female workers, and outside counseling for manager candidates. Twenty-four employees participated in the female leader training, which was organized in September 2022. Other activities to create a pleasant working environment include telecommuting for child-rearing/nursing and reinstatement seminar for the employees on maternity leave.

(2) Promoting foreigners to managerial posts

The Company hires and promotes employees regardless of nationality, to ensure human resources who can play a core role in the business. As of the end of March 2023, the foreign employee ratio is 1.6% and the managerial ratio is 0.4%. Also, the Company's foreign Executive Officer ratio is 10.0% as of the end of March 2022, and 10.5% as of the end of March 2023. The Company has been promoting the globalization of its executive personnel by appointing qualified persons, regardless of their nationality, to the executive positions of the group companies in various countries and regions to realize community-based management. At facilities of the Group, we are actively promoting local employees to executive positions—this includes promotion to the position of president at sales facilities of regional headquarters in the U.S. and China. In the group companies outside Japan, local employees occupied 69% of management positions in 2022, increasing from 55% in 2017. Based on such circumstances, the Company recognizes that it reaches the sufficient level of standard in regard to promoting foreigners to managerial posts in the Group, therefore the Company does not set the target figures accordingly.

(3) Promoting mid-career employees to managerial posts

The Company's mid-career employee ratio is 45.5% in fiscal 2022, and the managerial ratio is 24.8% in fiscal 2022. The Company has no set target for their managerial positions because the number of mid-career employees depends on the labor market environment. However, the Company will proactively hire external talents to accelerate transformation of its business portfolio in the future .

<Policies on human resource development and the Company's environment improvement, and the current situations>

The Company's human resource development policy for ensuring diversity is to develop global personnel who can provide superior value while respecting employee's diversity and personality. Also, as its environmental improvement policy, the Company strives to create a foundation for diversified personnel's active roles, so that the employees can be highly motivated and receive opportunities for various career paths and flexible work styles.

The Company discloses its current situations of human resource development and environment improvement for ensuring diversity on its website (<https://global.brother/en/sustainability/social/diversified>).

[Principle 2-6 Fulfilling the Function as an Asset Owner of Corporate Pension]

The corporate pension plan of the Group consists of a defined benefit pension plan that manages funds and contributions under the Brother Pension Fund and a defined contribution pension plan under which funds and contributions are managed by employees themselves.

For the Brother Pension Fund, the Company has implemented personnel and operational measures such as the measures below so that the Fund can fulfill its expected function as the asset owner.

(1) In operating the Brother Pension Fund, the Company appoints persons with appropriate background and aptitude to become Directors of Investment, and has them participate in various workshops to improve their expertise in fund management.

(2) The Company contains an Asset Management Committee, which consists of managerial personnel from the finance and personnel departments (department head and above) as well as officers of labor unions, that convenes on a quarterly basis to confirm investment performance. With regard to an asset management trustee whose performance has not been satisfactory for a certain period of time, the Asset Management Committee examines, together with an external consultant, the necessity of replacement with a specific alternative asset management trustee.

(3) Conflicts of interest that may arise between beneficiaries of the Brother Pension Fund and the Company are appropriately managed by adapting a resolution for any important operational matter of the Fund at a conference of delegates, half of whom are employees as beneficiaries under the fund agreement, and entering into a discretionary agreement with the asset management trustee with regard to the selection of individual companies invested in and exercise of voting rights. An asset management trustee is determined based on the performance and capability regardless of the business relationships (e.g., financing, shareholding) with the parent company.

<The Company's sustainability activities>

The Sustainability Committee was established in April 2022 to promote sustainability-focused management based on the Basic Policy on Sustainability*. The Sustainability Committee is chaired by the Representative Director & President and consists of those in charge of each of the subcommittees, Value Creation Support, DEI, Responsible Value Chain, Environment & Climate Change, Corporate Governance, Sustainability Communication, Executive Officers of managing executive level or higher, business Executive Officers, and other persons designated by the President as needed.

*Basic Policy on Sustainability

Brother, which started its business by providing repair services for sewing machines, commenced production of sewing machines based on the ambition to turn the import-based industry into an export-based industry to create jobs for people who want to work.

The desire to create durable sewing machines has been passed down as the "At your side." spirit that always places customers first in the Brother Group Global Charter, which provides the foundation for all Brother Group activities. The Charter states that the Brother Group enhances corporate value by expanding the value provided to customers and by returning economic performance generated through business to stakeholders and the global environment.

As in the past, the Group will continue addressing the issues of our customers and society, defining materiality (key social issues) to be undertaken, and solving them. By doing so, we will aim to achieve our "At your side 2030" vision and the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) identified by the United Nations.

The Group is committed to practicing sustainability-focused management in order to sustainably provide value to its customers and solve social issues through its business activities, in the spirit of "At your side."

In the Brother Group Vision "At your side 2030," the Group has defined "Our Purpose" as "By being 'At your side.,' we enable people's productivity and creativity, contribute to society, and help protect the earth." In its CS B2024 medium-term business strategy, which was formulated and launched by backcasting from the Vision, the Group positioned contributing to sustainability as its priority management issue, identified materialities for the first time, and set fiscal 2024 targets for resolving those materialities. The details are disclosed in "Medium-Term Business Strategy CS B2024" on the Company's website (<https://global.brother/en/corporate/csb>).

<Investment in human capital, intellectual property, intangible assets, etc.>

The most important foundation for the Group's sustainable growth is its human resources. The Group has made "realizing a diverse and active society" its materiality, and has established the following targets for fiscal 2024: "improving employee engagement*," "encouraging the assignment of local employees to top management positions of facilities outside Japan," and "strengthening the talent pipeline for gender balance and establishing an environment for achieving diverse ways of working." Toward the "management foundation transformation for a sustainable future" set forth in the medium-term business strategy "CS B2024," the Group will continue to enhance its own productivity and creativity, as well as take actions to further strengthen its human capital such as by creating a comfortable working environment for each and every employee.

* Relationships in which employees and management are equal to each other and provide value to each other.

Since its foundation, the Company has launched new businesses by harnessing its diverse proprietary technologies, sales channels, and continuous relationship with customers. At present, the Company deploys its business globally with production, sales, service, and development facilities in more than 40 countries and regions while using external networks. It will continue to take advantage of these strengths to promote prior investments toward the creation of new businesses and technologies that help to address materialities and make investments to further evolve inkjet-centered printing technologies and expand their scope of application.

To enhance and expand "connections with customers," the Company will make DX investments, such as building platforms and revamping enterprise systems. It will also invest in supply-chain resilience to promote "management foundation transformation for a sustainable future," which is one of the strategic themes of the Brother Group medium-term business strategy "CS B2024."

The Company's Mid-Term Business Strategy is disclosed on the Group's official website (<https://global.brother/en/corporate/csb>). In addition, the Company's initiatives related to a story of value creation, human capital, and intellectual property, etc. are also disclosed in its integrated report (<https://global.brother/en/sustainability/report-archive/bir>).

<Disclosure based on the framework of TCFD, etc.>

In order to contribute to society and protect the earth, the Group has identified the reduction of CO₂ emissions as one of the important issues to solve as materiality, and has set CO₂ emission reduction targets as sustainability goals. In February 2020, the Group expressed its endorsement of the recommendations of the Task Force on Climate-related Financial Disclosures (TCFD).

Based on these TCFD Recommendations, the risks and opportunities of climate change with regard to our Printing & Solutions Business, Personal & Home Business, Machinery Business, and new businesses were analyzed, and relevant information was disclosed on our website (<https://global.brother/en/sustainability/eco/cc>) in fiscal 2021. We will expand the scope of our business analysis and strive to enhance our information disclosure as well as further stepping up our climate change countermeasures in order to contribute to the formation of a decarbonized society.

[Principle 5-2 Formulation and announcement of the management strategy and management plan]

<Action to realize management with cost of capital and stock price in mind>

Based on our understanding, the Company's cost of equity is about 7% to 10%. It is calculated based on CAPM but is considered as a certain range because it fluctuates depending on the calculation timing and preconditions. We will promote business portfolio transformation while using interest-bearing debt to reduce the cost of equity. We will also achieve stable and continuous shareholder returns.

ROE was 9.7% on average over the past five years (fiscal 2018 to fiscal 2022). Based on our understanding, this is above or equivalent to the cost of equity. The target for fiscal 2024, which is the final fiscal year of the medium-term business strategy "CS B2024", is ROE of at least 10%, which is above the cost of capital. We aim to attain ROE at a level where we can maintain an equity spread continuously.

PBR was 1.1 times on average over the past five years (fiscal 2018 to fiscal 2022). More recently, PBR is as low as about 0.9 times. We aim to improve PBR quickly by improving profitability and promoting business portfolio transformation through continued growth investments. We will further promote management with cost of capital and return on investment in mind to meet stakeholders' expectations, achieve sustainable growth, and improve our corporate value in line with the financial policy set out in the medium-term business strategy "CS B2024".

Outside Auditors' Relationship with the Company (2) Updated

Name	Designation as Independent Officer	Supplementary Explanation of the Relationship	Reasons of Appointment
Akira Yamada	○	Mr. Yamada served as a member of an independent advisory committee, established based on a Policy toward Large-scale Purchases of Brother Shares, until June 2018. The Company has remunerated Mr. Yamada for his services.	Mr. Yamada, who has been involved in domestic and international corporate legal affairs as a lawyer for many years, is deemed able to carry out the duties of Outside Auditor of the Company and audit the Company's business operations from a perspective independent from the Company's management, based on his considerable experience, achievements and knowledge acquired as a lawyer. In addition, since he satisfies the requirements for independent officers as specified by the Tokyo Stock Exchange, Inc., as well as the Company's Independence Standards for Outside Officers, and the relationship explained in the column to the left does not affect the independence of Mr. Yamada considering the nature of this relationship, the Company deems Mr. Yamada as an Independent Officer who would have no possible conflict of interest with general shareholders.
Kazuya Jono	○	Sumitomo Mitsui Banking Corporation, for which Mr. Jono served as Director and Senior Managing Executive Officer until March 2012, is one of the Company's banking correspondents and the Company borrows funds from and conducts other transactions with the bank.	Mr. Jono has been involved in the management of financial institutions for years. Through his extensive experience, insight and achievements he can provide auditing over the operation of the Company, as an Outside Auditor of the Company independent of the managing executives. In addition, since he satisfies the requirements for independent officers as specified by the Tokyo Stock Exchange, Inc., as well as the Company's Independence Standards for Outside Officers. He retired from the bank and Sumitomo Mitsui Financial Group, Inc., the parent company of the bank, in 2012. The Company deems Mr. Jono to be an Independent Officer who would have no possible conflict of interest with general shareholders in terms of the relationship explained in the column to the left. Both of the companies mentioned above are not major shareholders of the Company, and the Company has conducted transactions with several financial institutions including the said bank on a continuous basis; therefore, the relationship between the bank and the Company does not affect decisions made by the Company.
Chika Matsumoto	○	In fiscal 2022, the Company commissioned KPMG AZSA LLC, whose director of the Nagoya Office was Ms. Matsumoto, to offer consulting services. The transaction amount was about 10 million yen. Ms. Matsumoto worked for the Company as an employee from April 1983 to August 1985. More than 37 years have passed since she left the Company.	Through her years of career as a certified public accountant, Chika Matsumoto has extensive experience, insight and achievements in the finance and accounting field. Based thereon, it is considered that she can provide auditing over the operation of the Company, independent of the managing executives, and most appropriate for Chika Matsumoto to be appointed as an Outside Auditor. Ms. Matsumoto meets the requirements for independent directors established by the Tokyo Stock Exchange and the Independence Standards for Outside Officers established by the Company. The nature of the transaction indicated on the left and her past career is unlikely to affect her independence. Thus, we consider Ms. Matsumoto as an independent officer who is unlikely to cause conflict of interest with general shareholders.

Supplementary Explanation
Performance-based remuneration

Annual bonus

Policy on Details of Performance Indicators pertaining to the Annual Bonus, Method of Calculating Remuneration, etc., and Determination of Time and Terms of Payment

The annual bonus is variable monetary remuneration that reflects performance in each fiscal year. It will be paid at a certain time each year, in principle, based on a report of the Compensation Committee and a resolution of the Board of Directors.

The annual bonus will be calculated using the calculation method set forth below. However, the total amount of the annual bonus paid in each fiscal year shall be a maximum of 0.4% of the amount of consolidated net income in that fiscal year, and if the total amount to be paid exceeds such maximum amount as a result of the calculation below, adjustments will be made so that the total amount is within the maximum amount.

(1) Determine the “allocation rate” based on the sum total of “base points” according to the position of the Director eligible for a payment, and the predetermined “base point unit rate,” “base revenue” and “base net income.”

(2) Based on the “allocation rate” under (1), calculate the total resources for an annual bonus in the relevant fiscal year using the following formula: Total resource 1 = Consolidated net income × Allocation rate × 1/2

Total resource 2 = Consolidated net income × Allocation rate × 1/2 × Sales adjustment factor (as per the table below)

Total resources for a bonus = Total resource 1 + Total resource 2

	Consolidated revenue	Sales adjustment factor
(a)	More than 750 billion yen	A factor that is calculated by extending the straight line of a linear function, whose slope is the same as that of (c), from (b)
(b)	750 billion yen	100%
(c)	Between (b) and (d)	A factor on the straight line of a linear function connecting (b) and (d) when the revenue is plotted on the x axis and the sales adjustment factor is plotted on the y axis
(d)	500 billion yen	50%
(e)	Less than 500 billion yen	0%

Note: As used in this paragraph, the term “consolidated net income” refers to “net income attributable to the owners of the parent company”.

(3) Calculate the tentative amount to be distributed to each Director eligible for a payment by dividing the total resources for a bonus proportionally based on the base points according to the position of each Director eligible for a payment.

(4) The Representative Director and President may propose that an extra amount be added to the tentative amount distributed to each Director eligible for a payment, except for him/herself, by a maximum of 10% of such tentative amount distributed.

(5) The Compensation Committee will deliberate on the total of the tentative amount to be distributed to each Director eligible for a payment and the extra amount added thereto, as well as the total amount to be paid, and then submit to the Board of Directors the plan for payment of an annual bonus to each Director. The annual bonus will be paid to each Director eligible for a payment by a resolution of the Board of Directors.

Stock-based compensation

Policy on Details of Stock-based Compensation, Details of Performance Indicators, Calculation Method, and Determination of Time and Terms of Payment

Stock-based compensation is variable remuneration based on the degree of achievement of targets, such as those for the medium-term business strategy, and the degree of enhancement of shareholder value, for contribution to the enhancement of the Company’s medium- to long-term corporate value. As such stock-based compensation, shares, etc. will be delivered to Directors eligible to receive them through the Trust to which the Company contributes money by use of the Board Benefit Trust system.

The time of delivery of shares, etc. to a Director as stock-based compensation will be after the Director leaves the Company, in principle.

Shares, etc. delivered as stock-based compensation will be calculated according to the methods set forth below.

(1) Each eligible Director is granted 50% as fixed points and 50% as performance-linked points out of the number obtained by dividing the base amount of stock-based compensation, which is predetermined according to the Director’s position, by the base stock price, for each fiscal year in the subject period for the medium-term business strategy, etc. (hereinafter simply referred to as the “subject period”). Fixed points and performance-linked points are accumulated and added together.

(2) After the expiration of the subject period, the number of points delivered will be calculated by multiplying the number of accumulated performance-linked points of each Director by each of the performance-linked coefficients according to the following indicators, weight and degree of achievement of targets.

Calculation formula

Final value of the performance-linked points = (A) + (B) + (C) + (D)

(A) Cumulative value of performance-linked points × 25% × Revenue factor (*1)

(B) Cumulative value of performance-linked points × 25% × Net income factor (*2)

The Board of Directors, which consists of eleven members (including five Outside Directors), decides on important management matters and supervises executive operations at monthly Board of Directors meetings and extraordinary Board of Directors meetings held as necessary. In fiscal 2022 (from April 2022 to March 2023), meetings of the Board of Directors were held 12 times and all Directors and all Corporate Auditors attended all the meetings, except for the absence of one Director from one meeting. In addition, the Company has implemented an Executive Officer System, whereby executive operations and supervision are separated in an effort to ensure swift decision-making and to strengthen corporate governance. Executive Officers are appointed by the Board of Directors and are responsible for executive operations of business, departments and group subsidiaries, of which the Executive Officer oversees or is in charge.

Strategy meetings, which mainly consist of titled Executive Officers, are also held each month. These meetings, with the President as a Chairman, develop the strategies concerning the operations covered by the Group as a whole and executive operations are deliberated upon.

3. Reasons for Adoption of Current Corporate Governance System
