Kohey Takashima, Representative Director, President

Inquiries: Kohei Matsumoto

Director, General Manager of Corporate planning Division

Securities Code: 3182, TSE

The corporate governance of Oisix ra daichi Inc. (the “Company”) is described below

I . Basic Views on Corporate Governance, Capital Structure, Corporate Profile and Other Basic Information

1. Basic Views

Based on the recognition that it is an indispensable function for continually raising corporate value, the company is working to strengthen and enhance our corporate governance system. In addition, in order to fulfill its accountability to shareholders, the Company believes that it is extremely important to ensure transparency and fairness in the implementation of prompt and appropriate information disclosure and decision-making. Furthermore, the Company recognizes that it is an important management issue to thoroughly implement a compliance system based on sound ethical standards and to earn the trust of shareholders, investors, business partners, and other stakeholders.

[Reasons for not implementing the Principles of the Corporate Governance Code]

[Principle 1-4: Strategic shares holds]

In the event that the Company expect that strengthening relationships with business partners will contribute to the expansion of the Group's business, we will hold the companies of the listed companies after thoroughly considering the significance of holding shares and economic rationality. However, specific criteria for the reduction of policy shareholdings and the exercise of voting rights thereof have not been established at this time. We will set the criteria in consideration of the results of future shareholdings and other circumstances.

[Supplementary Principle 2-4-1: Concept regarding securing diversity of core human resources, such as the promotion of women, foreigners, and mid-career recruits to managerial positions]

The Company have been securing human resources for women related to the products we handle, and we will continue to promote this. We have also begun hiring foreigners as a group through the development of overseas businesses and will develop the necessary institutional designs and operations.

As for specific figures regarding the above, the company immediate target for the ratio of women in management positions is 30%, and the actual ratio as of the end of March 2023 was 25%. Meanwhile, with regard to standards for foreign nationals and mid-career hires, effective standards will be set in consideration of the future situation.

[Principle of replenishment 4-1-2]

The Company does not disclose our medium-term management plan.

In the rapidly changing business environment surrounding us, we believe that disclosing our medium-term management plan may cause investors to make decisions that are different from what we intend.

At the same time, we discuss measures to respond to the progress of our single-year business plan through monitoring at the Board of Directors, Management Committee, and other meetings, and reflect these measures in future business plans.

Based on these considerations, we will explain to investors its future business development, business plans, and their progress at financial results briefings and other events.

[Principle of replenishment 4-1-3]

The Company does not have a clear succession plan for the CEO at this time. The Nomination and Compensation Committee which established in 2022 will report to and discuss with the Board of Directors, including how the succession plan should be.

[Disclosure based on each principle of the corporate governance code]

[Principle 1-7: Related party transactions]

In accordance with laws and regulations and the regulations of the Board of Directors, the Board of Directors is required to resolve competitive transactions by directors and conflict of interest transactions between directors and the Company.

[Principle 2-6: Fulfilling the Function of Corporate Pension as an Asset Owner]

The company have a defined contribution pension plan.

It is intended to provide a means of fund-provisioning while obtaining tax effects for the design of a comfortable life after the age of 60.

The departments in charge conduct business operations in order to ensure stable asset formation and financial soundness for employees, and exchange information on management and its status with the financial institutions to whom it outsources operations and manage operations accordingly.

[Principle 3-1: Enhancement of information disclosure]

The company disclose and disclose the following matters and proactively disseminate information.

(i) Company's goals (management philosophy, etc.), management strategies, and management plans

This information is available on our website. With regard to management plans, the Company announces earnings forecasts for each fiscal year at financial results briefings.

(ii) The basic concept and basic policy on corporate governance based on each principle of this code

The Company described in annual securities report "Fourth 4. Status of corporate governance, etc."

(iii) Policies and procedures by which the board determines the remuneration of senior management and directors

The remuneration of directors (including concurrent executive officers) is stated in the "Board of directors Remuneration" section of this report and the disclosure of the amount of remuneration and the policy for determining the calculation method of remuneration.

Remuneration for executive officers who concurrently serve as employees is determined after deliberation by full-time directors on the "appraisal content and revised remuneration" based on the criteria of the employee performance evaluation system.

(iv) Policies and procedures by which the Board of Directors elects and dismisses senior management and nominates candidates for directors and corporate auditors

With regard to the nomination of candidates for directors and Audit & Supervisory Board members, the President selects candidates who are deemed to be optimum based on a comprehensive consideration of their experience, knowledge, expertise, background, etc. The Audit & Supervisory Board members are proposed to the Board of Directors with the approval of the Audit & Supervisory Board, and their appointment is consulted at the General Meeting of Shareholders after approval by the Board of Directors.

The appointment and dismissal of executive officers has been proposed by the president to the Board of Directors and appointed by the Board of Directors in accordance with the Rules of Executive Officers and the Rules of Authority for Approval.

(v) Explanation of individual appointments, dismissals, and nominations when the Board of Directors elects and dismisses management executives and nominates candidates for Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members based on (iv) above.

Regarding the nomination of candidates for directors and Audit & Supervisory Board members, the reasons and background are stated in the Notice of Convocation of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

The Board of Directors resolves the election and dismissal of executive officers based on the executive officer regulations, taking into account specialized knowledge related to business, management execution capability, innovativeness, and leadership ability.

In election and dismissal, the Board of Directors sufficiently explains the reasons for the appointment and dismissal.

[Supplementary Principle 3-1-3 (Sustainability Initiatives in Disclosure of Management Strategies, etc.)]

(i) Disclosing management strategies, the company's own sustainability initiatives

The Company have adopted "Farm for Tomorrow, Table for Tomorrow" as our management philosophy. The expansion of the domestic home delivery business for organic and low pesticide vegetables and additive-free foods, our main business, is directly linked to the promotion of sustainability. In addition, we established the Green Shift Strategy and are strengthening in Nov. 2020 our efforts for the future of sustainable food with the aim of (1) achieving carbon neutrality throughout the supply chain through Mar. 2026 and (2) further reducing the food waste. Details of our sustainability initiatives are disclosed on the sustainability website of our corporate website.

(ii) Investment in human capital, intellectual property, etc. in collaboration with the company's management strategy and management issues

(Investment in Human and Intellectual Capital)

Regarding investment in human capital, we provide support so that employees can work autonomously to resolve challenged issues. In addition, we aim to create a workplace in which discussions within the company are respected, each and every employee is highly engaged and open. In terms of human resource development, we are building effective development programs to generate results as individuals and teams. We are also systematizing OJT-based training to ensure that employees can practice what they have understood in the training. In addition, a Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Committee has been newly established to strengthen compliance and thoroughness with the basic philosophy of "respecting diverse values without unfair discrimination based on nationality, race, disability, gender, sexuality, etc." and respecting the personality, human rights, and individuality of all persons working in our group. In terms of work style, we aim to create an environment that contributes to the maintenance and improvement of employee performance in an environment where office work and telecommuting are increasingly used in tandem, and we are making improvements such as introducing Non-Territorial Office and increasing the number of web conference booths and concentration spaces.

With regard to investment in intellectual property, our goal is to become a leading company in data-driven management in the food business. We are working to build a foundation for sharing and utilizing internal digital information, such as improving the shopping experience of customers through e-commerce and designing services based on customer purchasing data.

Details of our efforts for employees are disclosed on the sustainability website of our corporate website.

(Impacts on Climate Change)

The risks of climate change and the impact of revenue opportunities on the Company's business activities and earnings were calculated for quantitative risk scenarios and revenue opportunities in accordance with the recommendations of the Climate-Related Financial Disclosures (TCFD).

[Principle of replenishment 4-1-1]

In addition to the matters stipulated in laws and the Articles of Incorporation, companies have specified in detail the Regulations of the Board of Directors regarding matters to be resolved at meetings of the Board of Directors.

With regard to important matters other than those to be resolved by the Board of Directors, in addition to the Rules of the Management Committee (Management Committee Rules), the Rules of Administrative Authority stipulate the Standards of Authority for Approval, and prompt decision-making is carried out.

[Principle 4-9: Criteria for assessing the independence of Independent External Members of the Board of Directors and their quality]

The Company selects candidates for independent external directors through deliberations by the Board of Directors based on criteria compliant with the independence standards of the TSE.

[Principle of replenishment 4-10-1]

The Company have a majority of independent external directors on the Board of Directors.

On this basis, the Nomination and Compensation Committee has been established as an advisory body to the Board of Directors. The Nomination and Compensation Committee is a voluntary committee with a majority of its members as independent external directors. The Nomination and Compensation Committee has been established to ensure objectivity and transparency, improve the supervisory functions of the Board of Directors, and further enhance corporate governance functions. The committee is composed of independent external directors who can be expected to provide effective advice from a wide variety of perspectives. The two current members are: the first is a university professor specializing in human resource management and organization, and has experience as an external director at several other companies; the second is a director who has grown the company from a venture company to a prime market company on the TSE.

[Principle of replenishment 4-11-1]

In accordance with our strategy, we have identified the skills of the members of the Board of Directors and disclosed the composition of the Board of Directors as indicated by the skill matrix on the Notice of Convocation of General Meeting of Shareholders and on our corporate website. The Board of Directors is composed of a necessary and appropriate number of members to ensure an effective management system and substantive discussion at the Board of Directors. In addition, we will ensure the balance and diversity of knowledge, experience and abilities of the Board of Directors as a whole while giving consideration to expertise, including personnel capable of demonstrating strengths in the management of each business field and personnel suitable for business management. The Independent External Directors include managers of companies listed on the TSE Prime Market.

[corporate website]

[Principle of replenishment 4-11-2]

The concurrent status of directors and statutory auditors of other listed companies is reasonably limited, and the status of important concurrent positions is disclosed annually in the Notice of Convocation of the General Meeting of Shareholders and the Annual Securities Report.

[Replenishment Principle 4-11-3]

The Company conducts an annual analysis and evaluation of the effectiveness of the Board of Directors with the aim of maintaining and improving the effectiveness of the Board of Directors. Based on the issues obtained, the Company will work to further improve the effectiveness of the Board of Directors. In the FY 2023/3, the secretariat of the Board of Directors interviewed directors and corporate auditors, mainly external directors and corporate auditors, and held individual discussions with them to identify issues to be addressed based on opinions and evaluations obtained from directors and corporate auditors, and to recognize issues for the future. The main perspectives of the analysis and evaluation are as follows.

- (i) Operation of the Board of Directors and deliberations at the Board of Directors meetings
- (ii) Proposals submitted to the Board of Directors
- (iii) Whether the information necessary for effective deliberations at Board of Directors meetings is available

In our interviews and discussions with directors and corporate auditors, we found that the Board of Directors generally operates and functions appropriately, and that the effectiveness of the Board of Directors as a whole is ensured. The main comments were as follows: The Board of Directors is operated in a manner that facilitates the opinions of directors, including corporate auditors; The representative director and the chairman of the Board of Directors understand the details of proposals to be submitted to the Board of Directors to stimulate discussions; Open discussions are conducted according to the skills of each director; and Information necessary for deliberations at the Board of Directors meetings seems to be obtained as appropriate.

In the future, we will continue our efforts to further improve the effectiveness of the Board of Directors by discussing management issues in light of the current status of our various businesses, which are expanding in various fields, and by providing information necessary for deliberations at the Board of Directors meetings as appropriate, so that issues to be discussed can be discussed more fully.

[Principle of replenishment 4-14-2]

The Company provide the Board of Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members with opportunities to acquire the knowledge they need in their business operations so that they can fully demonstrate their management supervision and audit functions at the request of the Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members and at the proposal of the Board of Directors Secretariat.

The Company is responsible for the costs incurred in such cases.

[Principle 5-1: Policy on constructive dialogue with shareholders]

The Company recognize the importance of strengthening and enhancing our corporate governance system based on the recognition that it is an essential function to continuously increase corporate value. At the same time, we also recognize the importance of continually engaging in active dialogue with shareholders, reflecting shareholder opinions and requests in management, and growing us together with shareholders.

To this end, we have established an IR system and disclose information as needed to gain an understanding of our performance and management policies.

3.Matters concerning the determination of the contents of individual remuneration, etc. for directors

Individual remuneration shall be delegated by Representative Director & CEO in accordance with a resolution of the Board of Directors, and the details of such delegation shall be determined by the amount of the basic remuneration. To ensure that the relevant authority is properly exercised by Representative Director & CEO, the Representative Directors shall make decisions by respecting the content deliberated at the Executive Compensation Advisory Council, including an External third party.

【Supporting System for External Directors and/or Audit & Supervisory Board Members】

The Corporate Planning Division has supported for External Directors and External Audit & Supervisory Board Members. In addition, the full-time corporate auditors regularly communicate information to the part-time corporate auditors.

2. Matters on Functions of Business Execution, Auditing, Oversight, Nomination and Remuneration

Decisions (Overview of Current Corporate Governance System)

1) Basic Explanation of the Company's Organization

a. Board of Directors

The Company's Board of Directors consists of 9 directors (including 5 external directors). The Board of Directors meet once a month and extraordinary meetings are held as necessary to execute business and to supervise the execution of business by the Board of Directors. In addition Audit & Supervisory Board Members also attend meetings of the Board of Directors to audit the execution of business by the Board of Directors.

b. Management Committee

The Company regularly holds management committee attended by full-time directors, full-time corporate auditors and the heads of each division to confirm the execution of day-to-day operations and expedite decision-making.

c. Corporate Auditors and Board of Corporate Auditors

The Company's Board of Corporate Auditors consists of 1 full time corporate auditor and 3 part-time corporate auditors, all of whom are external corporate auditors. Each of Audit & Supervisory Board members attends meetings of the Board of Directors and other important meetings and expresses his opinions in an effort to enhance the effectiveness of corporate governance. In principle, the Board of Corporate Auditors meets on the same day as the regular meetings of the Board of Directors.

d. Accounting Auditors

The Company has entered into an audit agreement with Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu LLC, which is subject to audits pursuant to the Companies Act and the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act.

e. Nominating and Compensation Committee

The Company has established the Nomination and Compensation Committee as a voluntary committee that advises the Board of Directors, with a majority of the three members being outside directors who are independent directors. The committee discusses the design of the remuneration system for each director, the status of business execution, the Company's business performance, and the ideal management structure based on the Company's business plans and challenges, and reports back to the Board of Directors in response to its inquiries regarding director remuneration and nominations.

2) Risk management system

The Company carries out risk management and compliance systems mainly by the Risk Management Committee. The committee consists of the General Manager of the Administration Division and executive officers and others. Full-time Audit & Supervisory Board members also participate at all times. Its mission is to disseminate and raise awareness of compliance among officers and employees, receive reports of violations of laws and regulations, and investigate the facts. Specifically, the subcommittee meets once a month to report and discuss compliance-related matters, such as the existence of internal reporting, responses to anti-social forces, and the status of compliance with labor-related laws and regulations, as well as matters related to risk management, matters related to disclosure (timely disclosure), and the status of responses to the so-called J-SOX Act.

In addition, in accordance with the intent of the Whistleblower Protection Act, the Company have established an internal reporting system (the "Corporate Ethics Hotline") with the aim of contributing to thorough compliance. Through this system, our employees can report to the previously established Corporate Ethics Hotline Contact that violations of laws and regulations stipulated in the Whistleblower Protection Act and other serious violations of compliance, etc. have occurred or are about to occur. The whistleblowers will be received appropriate protective measures, the person in charge of the Corporate Ethics Hotline reports information to the Risk Management Committee and takes corrective measures when necessary. In addition, the Company has established the Code of Ethics as a code of conduct to be followed by all our officers and employees, and we are working to disseminate and educate them. As part of our efforts to ensure compliance with laws and regulations related to individual operations, we confirm compliance with laws and regulations that are closely related to our operations, such as the Personal Information Protection Law, Act against Unjustifiable Premiums and Misleading Representations, and the Specified Commercial Transactions Law, and disseminate knowledge about laws and regulations through training and other means.

3. Reasons for Adoption of Current Corporate Governance System

Based on the size and business of the Company, we judge that a company with a board of corporate auditors is the most appropriate option. By appointing 5 external directors (All of whom are independent) and 4 external corporate auditors (3 of whom are independent), we are working to improve the checks and monitoring functions of the Board of Directors.
