[Delayed] The AI chatbot extension for Google Chrome, enabling effortless conversations with websites across the globe

MetaReal Corp. (Headquarters: Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo, CEO: Junichi Goishi) and its subsidiary, Rozetta Corp. (Headquarters: Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo, CEO: Maro Watanabe), have announced the release of "ChatM.AI (Browser Extension)" an extension for "Google Chrome" that allows general individual users to easily engage in interactive conversations with an AI chatbot. The service will be available starting from July 12, 2023.

[Features of "ChatM.AI (Browser Extension)"]

"ChatM.AI (Browser Extension)" is a service where AI quickly learns from any website and the AI chatbot provides responses. The service utilizes information from the visited website and provides the source of the information.

Even if a visited website does not have a chatbot, users can receive interactive responses about the information on the website through the "ChatM.AI (Browser Extension)" integrated into "Google Chrome."

The use of "ChatM.AI (Browser Extension)" by general individual users is currently free of charge.
