LOGIGEAR VIETNAM CO., LTD. has changed its corporate name to AGEST Vietnam Co., Ltd.

~Expanding services for the Japanese market by unifying the group brand with AGEST, Inc. in Japan~

DIGITAL HEARTS HOLDINGS Co., Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as "DHH") announces that its subsidiary, LOGIGEAR VIETNAM CO., LTD. ("LGVN") has changed its corporate name to "AGEST Vietnam Co., Ltd." to expand services for the Japanese market by unifying the group brand and with strengthening collaboration AGEST, Inc., a domestic group company.

LGVN has been established in Vietnam as an operation center for its U.S. parent company, LOGIGEAR CORPORATION ("LGUS"), and has provided software testing and test automation support services to U.S. companies by utilizing more than 300 highly skilled test engineers. Since joining DHH together with LGUS in 2019, LGVN has expanded their capabilities. It established a joint venture with a local company in Vietnam to provide software development services and it has also strengthened group-wide collaboration to make use of their abundant engineering resources for projects with Japanese clients. Especially in recent years, LGVN has built a one-stop support system for client companies covering from requirement-defining and basic design to development, software testing, and post-release maintenance. LGVN works closely with AGEST, a core group company to provide test automation support services for Japanese companies and it also provides DX system development support through its newly established AGEST DX Solution Center in Hanoi.

As we move forward with these initiatives, LGVN has become increasingly important as a source of resources for whole of DHH Group to rapidly expand its Enterprise Business particularly with AGEST, rather than as a just operation center for "testing" services of LGUS. For this reason, LGVN has changed its corporate name to AGEST Vietnam Co., Ltd. with the aim of unifying AGEST brand and strengthening collaboration as one group with together.

In addition, due to a group-wide reorganization scheduled on January 1, 2024, LGVN's sole shareholder will be changed from LGUS to AGEST.
