Notice of lawsuit filed in Canada against Hino and its subsidiaries in the U.S. and Canada

HINO MOTORS, LTD. (Hino) hereby announces that a lawsuit (Lawsuit) has been filed naming Hino and our subsidiary HINO MOTORS MANUFACTURING U.S.A., Inc. (HMM), HINO MOTORS SALES U.S.A., Inc. (HMS), and HINO MOTORS CANADA LTD. (HMC) (hereinafter Hino, HMM, HMS, and HMC collectively referred to as the "Company"), and our parent company, TOYOTA MOTOR CORPORATION (Toyota) and its subsidiary, TOYOTA CANADA INC. (TC), as defendants in the Supreme Court of British Columbia, Canada on October 19, 2023 (local time). The statement of claim has not yet been served on Hino. Hino was informed about the claim by its U.S. subsidiary, to which Hino understands that Plaintiff delivered a copy of their claim.

1.Cause and background of the Lawsuit

The Plaintiff has filed the Lawsuit naming the Company as defendants in a putative class action lawsuit on behalf of those who purchased or leased Hino's all model year 2004-2021 vehicles sold in Canada, claiming that class members have suffered damages due to alleged historical misconduct.

2. Plaintiff

EZ Junk Ltd. (British Columbia, Canada)

3.Outline of the Lawsuit

Under the statement of claim filed, the Plaintiff is claiming damages, punitive damages and other remedies against the Company. The statement of claim does not state the amount that the Plaintiff seeks to recover.

4.Future Outlook

Hino will take appropriate measures to defend itself after reviewing the Plaintiff's claims once the statement of claim is duly served. Hino cannot rule out that other similar types of lawsuits may be filed against Hino, our subsidiaries or affiliates in the future.

At the present time, it is difficult to reasonably calculate the impact of the Lawsuit on our business performance. We will promptly announce any matters that should be disclosed as and when they arise in the future.
