(Update on Disclosed Matter)
Mitsubishi Electric to Transfer Automotive-equipment Business to New Subsidiary as Part of Restructuring

TOKYO, October 31, 2023 – Mitsubishi Electric Corporation (TOKYO: 6503) announced today that it will transfer its automotive-equipment business and assets to a future wholly owned subsidiary Melco Automotive Equipment Business Split Preparation Corporation (the “Prep Company”), through an absorption-type company split effective April 1, 2024 (scheduled) (the “Company Split”), following the announcement “Mitsubishi Electric to Restructure its Automotive-equipment Business” issued on April 24 of this year.

As the Company Split will take the form of a simplified absorption-type company split with a wholly owned subsidiary of Mitsubishi Electric, certain information is omitted from this announcement.

1. Purpose of Company Split

Mitsubishi Electric is implementing strategic measures appropriate to each of its target businesses in order to adjust its business portfolio and strengthen its business structure for improved profitability and asset utilization. The company aims to streamline decision-making and accelerate transformation to urgently improve the profitability of its automotive-equipment business in the face of rapid changes taking place in the automotive industry, including the shift to connected, autonomous, shared & service, and electric (CASE) vehicles. Mitsubishi Electric expects the Company Split to improve operational efficiency and enhance the portfolio of its automotive-equipment business for greater profitability.

2. Overview of Company Split

(1) Company Split Schedule

Decision on Absorption-type Company Split by Executive Officers (Note)	October 31, 2023
Establishment of Melco Automotive Equipment Business Split Preparation Corporation	November 15, 2023 (Scheduled)
Execution of Company Split Agreement	November 15, 2023 (Scheduled)
Scheduled Company Split Date (Effective Date)	April 1, 2024 (Scheduled)

Note: The Company Split is a simplified absorption-type company split, pursuant to Article 784, Paragraph 2 of the Companies Act of Japan, and Mitsubishi Electric therefore does not require approval of this at a shareholders’ meeting. Accordingly, the Company Split will be implemented on the decision of the President and CEO, with due consideration of deliberations at the Executive Officers’ Meeting.

(2) Company Split Method

This is an absorption-type company split in which Mitsubishi Electric is the transferring company and the Prep Company is the succeeding company. Upon the consummation of the Company Split, the trade name of the Prep Company will be changed.

(3) Share Allotment Details related to the Company Split

The Prep Company will issue 1 common share to Mitsubishi Electric as consideration for the Company Split.

(4) Handling of Stock Acquisition Rights and Bonds with Stock Acquisition Rights Accompanying the Company Split

There are no applicable issues in the Company Split.

(5) Capitalization Changes Accompanying the Company Split

The Company Split will result in no change in the capitalization of Mitsubishi Electric.

(6) Rights and Obligations to be Assumed by the Company Split

In accordance with the provisions of the absorption-type company split agreement, the Prep Company will succeed to the assets, liabilities, contractual status and other rights and obligations associated with the automotive-equipment business of Mitsubishi Electric.

(7) Prospect of Fulfillment of Obligations

It has been determined that there is no prospect of the Prep Company being unable to fulfill its obligations after the Company Split.
