

January 4th, 2024

To All Concerned,

Company name	Japan Airlines Co., Ltd
Representative	Yuji Akasaka, President (Securities code: 9201 Tokyo Stock Exchange Prime Market)
Contact	Shuei Nishizawa, General Manager, Finance (Phone: +81-(0)3-5460-3121)

Notice Concerning Occurrence of Loss of Aircraft

Regarding the collision of our flight JL516 and the Japan Coast Guard aircraft on January 2nd, 2024, the operating loss will occur as follows due to the entire loss of one of our aircraft:

1. Outline of the loss

One of our aircraft was lost entirely due to the collision between our flight JL516 and the Japan Coast Guard aircraft on January 2nd, 2024. The estimated loss amount will be about 15 billion Japanese yen, which will be booked as operating losses. The loss will be covered by the insurance.

Name of the Lost Asset	Type of Asset	Estimated Loss Amount (Billion JPY)
Airbus A350-900 (Registration No. JA13XJ)	Aircraft	About 15

2. Future Outlook

The impact of the loss of the aircraft to the consolidated financial performance forecast ending March 2024 (from April 1st, 2023 to March 31st, 2024) is being scrutinized currently. We will disclose any necessary information immediately, if any.

(For Reference)

The Current Forecast of the financial performance disclosed on October 31st, 2023 and the financial results of the previous fiscal year:

	Revenue	Profit before financing and income tax (EBIT)	Profit attributable to owners of parent
Current Forecast ending March 2024	1,684,000	130,000	80,000
Results of the Previous Fiscal Year ended March 2023	1,375,589	64,563	34,423

(Million JPY)