ACSL, Inc. is pleased to announce that in a press release dated January 23, 2024, "Leading Japanese Drone Maker ACSL Announces Pricing, Availability and Authorized Dealers of NDAA-Compliant SOTEN Drone in the U.S.," announcing the pricing and authorized dealers of the small aerial photography drone SOTEN in the U.S.

■ From a press release by ACSL, Inc.

ACSL, Inc. announced its entry into the US drone market in May 2023 and has been showcasing its flagship drone SOTEN to potential clients in various industries to gather feedback on improvements to be applied before the U.S. debut. Since then, the SOTEN has been upgraded with reduced video latency, enhanced gimbal and camera controls, an improved user interface, and compliance with FAA remote ID requirements. The first batch of 50 drones arrived in the U.S. and more will be delivered to meet the growing demand for secure, versatile, and high-performance small aerial photography drones. ACSL, Inc. is thrilled to share the standard package of SOTEN will retail for under $10,000 USD and orders can be placed through authorized retailers starting January 23.

ACSL, Inc. has announced a curated list of 8 authorized dealers to support SOTEN's entry all over the United States, including Advexure, Blue Skies Drones, DronesMadeEasy, Frontier Precision Unmanned,

General Pacific (GenPac Drones), Gresco UAS, UVT, and Volatus Drones. These partners will play a critical role as not only dealers, but certified repair and service experts, ensuring seamless customer service and support in the region.
